WHAT TERM IS HIS ISN'T DENIES ONE RELATIONSHIP
Famous English Comedian Will Give Extra Performance Here of "Sweet Lavender."

Imagine an elderly man of about medium height, slight of build, his grey hair brushed straight back from a high forehead, a pair of keen grey eyes that twinkled as he spoke, a wonderfully mobile and expressive mouth, a black cravat, a top hat and heavy lenses of ring and a gray suit of clothes. Such a man was Edward Terry when we met him in the grill room at the King Edward last night. We forgot how it came about, but shortly after the formal handshaking and greeting the conversation turned to nervousness.

"Nervous, why bless you, yes, I often feel nervous. There is no man who loves his art, in my opinion, who does not feel nervous at times. When I hear a young member of my company boast that he never feels nervous I cannot help doubting his love for the Theatre as an art. And is not art first nervousness, either. Even after I have played a piece 500 times I am liable to sudden tremors. I myself, I should think I should forget" and when one asks himself that he invariably does forget. And you know the promoter feels that he is no longer a vital necessity to the play. As a consequence there, but one struggles thru somehow.

"There is another kind of nervousness. It comes when a man is asked to give up the top of the ladder and there is another chap right at his heels. There another chap has just been asked to give up the top of the ladder and there is another chap right at his heels. There another chap has just been asked to give up the top of the ladder and there is another chap right at his heels.

We happened to mention the illness of Sir Henry Irving.

"Yes," said Mr. Terry eagerly, "have you heard how he is? I saw a telegram when he was ill, and I would be a fool to say that he would be ill again as soon as possible. It would be an awful thing if he had to go to a hospital and be laid up. I would be a great pity if he had to retire, a great pity."

An Hissler Shattered.
In the net while Mr. Terry mused over the illness of his friend we summed up our courage. We wanted to ask him a question, and we were afraid to show the absurd depth of our ignorance. At last we dared. "I would like to see you in relation to Miss Ellen Terry."

Mr. Terry laughed his heartiest laugh up to that time, when he said: "No, I'm not. So many people have made that mistake. Some say we are brother and sister. Others say we are and brother and sister. Other say we are again in cousinship and so on. Now I suppose you have a maternal ancestor, but Miss Terry and I have never figured out just how many times we are removed. Miss Ellen Terry is in my company, and people claim that she is a relative of mine. I have been reached out again with the remark that I am a musical comedian at some times in my career."

"Yes," said Mr. Terry, "I was in musical comedies for nine-fifteen years. I am a keen lover of music, but I do not play, and I rather liked the musical comedy."

And then Mr. Terry made a statement, which, coming from a comedian, would not be placed on record, it explodes an old tradition by showing that there is at least one comedian living who does not long to play Hamlet or stalk saddy thru a tragic role.

Doesn't Like Tragedy.
"I much prefer plays of the lighter stuff. The cheerful, ungholly comedy, which gives people a brighter view of life and makes them laugh. I have no desire to do the morbid or fearful work."

Mr. Terry chatted on, venturing a query or an assenting monosyllable until he had touched on a host of subjects. He reported rather amusingly a story which he said he had heard of a part which he has played over 4000 times to the delight of thousands of people, was the most popular and he thought he liked it best. At least the public seemed to like it best. Mr. Terry also announced that he had been made a member of the Royal Academy on Wednesday evening instead of "The House of Burnside" as previously said.

"I smoke very rarely," said Mr. Terry, "and then only a cigar. That is for my own pleasure. But as Dick Phenix I have always smoked a pipe. That is the part of my business."

And we went away sore perplexed.

DIPHTHERIA IS EPIDEMIC
3 DIE IN ONE LOCALITY
At Least Dozen Other Cases Said To Exist in Winchester St. School District.

There is anxiety in the neighborhood of Winchester-street school over what has now assumed the proportions of an epidemic of diphtheria. On Saturday night the little five-year-old son of Mrs. Barber, of 659 Ontario, succumbed to the disease. Ethel, his elder sister, is ill with the disease. There are reported to be at least 12 other cases in the vicinity. A daughter of Frank Lundy of 32 St. James-avenue contracted the disease some time ago, and a couple of weeks ago she died. Mr. Lundy became ill and died some time ago. Mrs. Lundy is ill at the isolation hospital.

Mr. Barber told The World last night that his little girl's case had been traced back to her contact with the little Lundy girl, whose classmate she was in Winchester-street school. The little boy, who died on Saturday, contracted it from his sister.

The doctors say that in the cases where death has occurred the disease did not come out upon the throat, but struck in, attacking the heart.

ANOTHER UNIVERSITY QUARREL
This Time in Montreal, Trouble Coming from Quebec.

Montreal, Que., Feb. 26.—(Special)—A special of Quebec says: "Montreal is on the eve of passing thru another university quarrel. For some time past there have been whispers in religious circles to the effect that the time was near at hand when the French universities of the metropolis must be freed from the domination of the Quebec university. A superb argument had been given to the name of the great ultra-montane to the situation which had been reached in that Montreal must be released from the domination of the Quebec university, as it should be done prudently, in order not to bring the Gallican faculty, presided over by Mr. Justice Mathieu. It is supposed that Judge Fagnoulet in Montreal with the object of securing the separation from Pius X., and certain words dropped by a chivalrous dignitary in Montreal to confirm this theory."

"Sir Louis Jette left at once for Montreal to take part at a meeting of the Laval faculty and you may affirm that at this meeting it was decided to forward a counter-petition to Rome. This petition will allege that in the opinion of the lay element of the Montreal university, Quebec represents the real Catholic teaching. Amongst those who took part in the meeting were: Judges Mathieu and Desjardins, Lt. Gov. Jette, Judge Lafontaine, Mr. Lemieux, P. F. Monk, M.P., Gervais, M.P., P. Demers, M.P., and others."

The above dispatch is generally confirmed here. The law faculty of Laval have decided to consult the other faculties and ask the religious authorities if such were their intentions, they were strongly in favor of remaining in statu quo.

Moscow, Feb. 25.—The employes of the municipal council are threatening a strike in order to show their sympathy with the Galician, subject of Moscow, whom the imperial government has expelled for having sanctioned resolutions adopted by the municipal council and provincial Zemstvo. The employees regard the price as unjust special provision. If the strike occurs, it will be the first purely political strike.

Dr. Snoop's Restorative
Too much fat is the result of indigestion. The digestive organs take up the fats of the food, but do not act on the nerve-building and muscle-making parts of it. That's why fat people who look strong, so often complain of feeling weak and depressed. Anti-fats are dangerous and unnatural. Select an easy-to-digest food that contains all the elements in right proportion, just such a food as LIFE CHIPS. Made from the whole grain of the wheat, it is so prepared that the weakest stomach will digest it all. The body thus gets the proper quantity of all the requisites. You can't get too much fat out of life chips because there is not too much fat in them. Serve right from the package alone or with cream or fruit. Price everywhere 10c.

CONSIDERABLY ENHANCED DETECTIVE GREER'S THEORY
May Be an Arrest Monday Night and Important Developments Before Very Long.

"Brantford, Feb. 26.—(Special)—There are no new developments in connection with the Doyle murder case in Brantford Township. All ideas of suicide or accident have been abandoned by the authorities, and they are now convinced that Doyle was murdered and nothing else. Provincial Detective Greer arrived in this city last night and proceeded to the scene of the crime this morning.

When seen to-night the detective had no important announcements to make. He looked tired and had a long talk with the son, Felix Doyle, against whom there is much suspicion. The detective Greer will state nothing about his opinion of Doyle's complicity with the affair, but he says that in his opinion DOYLE IS SLAUGHTERED AND ENHANCED.

Greer says there may be an arrest Tuesday night, and he is positive there will be important developments before very long. He will work on the case till he is cleared, and his opinion is that the crime was committed in the bedroom and not in the woodshed as alleged by Doyle. He stated there are no traces of blood in the kitchen where Doyle says he carried the woman down, and he found her in the woodshed. Detective Greer will not say anything on this phase of the question.

The inquest opens to-morrow night in this city, and it is expected Doyle will tell his story to the jury. The funeral of the murdered woman will take place to-morrow morning at 11 a.m. Many curious ones visited the place of the tragedy to-day.

Doyle is being kept in the police lock-up, and he is willing to tell anyone what his opinion is regarding how his mother met her fate.

TO PROTEST SOUTH ONTARIO
Liberals Decide to Attempt to Get Charles Calder Out.

Whitby, Feb. 25.—(Special)—An adjourned meeting of the executive of the Liberal Association of South Ontario was held here this afternoon in the office of David Ormiston. At the meeting held two weeks ago, at which the Hon. John Bryden was present, the question of protesting Charles Calder's election was considered, but no decision arrived at. It was then decided to adjourn till next week to allow a mass meeting to be held on with the protest. The appeal regarded the protest, which would be held at the office of the Hon. Charles Calder, and prominent Liberals say that the protest is decided on. It is not possible, they say, for the protest to be held in the city of Toronto, and no one doubts his ability to hold the seat, even if he has to go thru another election. The protest is now being organized. It is said Mayor Powke of Ottawa, or a prominent Toronto lawyer, may act as agent for the protest. The protest will be held at the office of the Liberal association, and will run in the Liberal interests if the riding is opened.

BRITISH PRESS PLEASED
Now Possible for Russia to Make Ample Amends.

London, Feb. 27.—The British press welcomes the report of the international commission of inquiry into the North Sea affair. The report, it is said, is a masterpiece of impartiality and justice. It is believed that the decision will do much to settle the matter. The commission has found in favor of the British, and it is expected that Russia will be able to make ample amends for the wrong done. The report is a masterpiece of impartiality and justice. LET VENEZUELA ALONE
New York, Feb. 26.—Joseph L. Andara, former judge of the supreme court of Venezuela, and later foreign representative of the unsuccessful revolution against President Castro in 1903, has arrived here to take up his duties as representative to the United States to urge the United States to recognize the revolution which is being maintained in Venezuela. In an interview Judge Andara said he believes that if the United States interferes in the Venezuelan situation, it will only bring about a civil war between the National and Liberal parties against Castro. He said that the United States should let Venezuela alone.

ICE FAMINE IN LONDON
London, Feb. 26.—(Special)—The ice men of the city, having been driven from pillar to post by the board of health, obtained permission two weeks ago to cut ice on the north branch of the Thames. To save the city from a probable ice famine, the dealers combined and erected a huge ice harvesting machine. Ice cutting was to begin Monday, but this morning the derelict was found to have been destroyed during the night. Another week at least will be lost, and the danger of an ice famine in London grows more probable.

AMONG GREENS
Amos Green, an employe of the street railway company, accumulated a large sum of money, and he was killed by a street car on Saturday night. It is supposed to have been a mere accident, but it is believed that he had been drinking. When asked for payment, he refused to pay, and he was taken to the police station. The dispenser of liquor took to his heels and in changing him Green did about $35 worth of damages to glassware and other goods. He was arrested by P. S. Rowe, Constables Childs and Allen.
