

SEE SPECIAL RATE TO LEFT ADS. PAGE 3.

THE EVENING TIMES.

THE WEATHER. Snow for tonight and tomorrow.

VOL. I, NO. 117.

ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1906.

ONE CENT.

CZAR'S CAVALRY RUSHING ON YAMA.

Reported Big Advance Against Jap Forces -- Stoessel Does Not Forgive the Navy for Leaving Him in Port Arthur -- Strike Situation.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The Russian have begun an extensive cavalry movement against Field Marshal Oyama's extreme left. Last night they were attempting to cross the Hun river west of Liao Yang with 9,000 horsemen.

Will Sail as Arranged. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The departure of Grand Duke Alexis and Vice Admiral Avelan for Libau last evening to bid farewell to the Third Squadron on its departure for the Far East does not indicate that there is any intention of postponing the sailing of the squadron as has been rumored at Kiel.

Japan's New Torpedos. Tokyo, Feb. 15.—The new torpedo boat destroyers Arake and Fubuki, constructed in Japan, have been placed in commission. Their average speed is 39 knots per hour.

Steamers Captured. Tokyo, Feb. 15.—The British steamers Apollo and Sotoman, bound for Vladivostok were captured by the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Ararae in the Japanese sea.

Defends Kurapatin. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—In view of the continued attacks on the Kurapatin of General Kurapatin, which are prejudicial to the Russian arms, the Novoye Vremya, in an extended defense of the tactics of the commander in chief proposed that a commission composed of retired officers be appointed to pass judgment on the general.

Quarrels Among Officers. Paris, Feb. 15.—French special correspondents sent to meet the French steamer Australia, having on board General Stoenel and others of the survivors of Port Arthur, forward detailed accounts of discord among the Russian officers.

ASQUITH FOR DISSOLUTION In British House Today Former Home Secretary Resumed Debate.

London, Feb. 15.—In the House of Commons today, the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne was resumed by Mr. Asquith (liberal), formerly home secretary, who made the amendment.

A BIG DEAL. Project to Vest Control of Equitable Life Assurance Society in the Policy Holders.

New York, Feb. 15.—A movement to take the control of the Equitable Life Assurance Society from the stockholders and place it with the policy holders, is being taken up by the board of directors.

Ridicules Roosevelt. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The Novoye Vremya, in a sarcastic editorial on the United States Senate in connection with their action on the arbitration treaties pokes fun at the alleged attempt of the United States to take the leadership in the world's CITIZENS UNITED IN FAVOR OF CHANGE.

Further Opinions Gathered by The Times Express Much Dissatisfaction With Present Methods of Civic Administration --- Want Complete Change of System.

The following additional opinions concerning a change in civic affairs have been secured by The Times. R. M. Magee. 'I have not given the matter very much consideration but from what I can learn I am certainly of the opinion that the proposals of the civic reform committee would be very beneficial and I think such proposals should be put into effect. I have every faith in the legal fraternity, I think that business men should know more about the affairs of the city, from a business standpoint, than lawyers.'

Work Resumed. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The work resumed today in the majority of the factories.

The Zemsky Zabor. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—M. S. Suvorin (editor of the Novoye Vremya) discussing the proposed assembling of the Zemsky Zabor, quotes the views of a very high personage close to the emperor as outlining a plan by which the outlying districts would be treated as one of the colonies of the United States, but maintaining the principle of unrestricted suffrage, declaring that the Zemsky Zabor should vote as the university graduates and saying it is essential that the proceedings be conducted in Russian.

Exhausting Itself. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The latest reports from Poland indicate that the strike situation at Warsaw and Lodz is exhausting itself.

Robert Belyea. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—I certainly endorse the reform of the city government. I think that business men in the council, and I believe there is plenty of room for reform in civic affairs in this city.

A. M. Rowan. Mr. Rowan does not see how the method of conducting the city's affairs can be improved.

F. S. Thomas. Mr. Thomas said that he was strongly in favor of civic reform.

F. A. Peters. F. A. Peters said he would favor a civic reform league, composed of business men. He did not think that it could be run as a secret society, however, but as an influential body of business men he thought it would be a success.

O. H. Warwick. O. H. Warwick said he had not given much thought to the question, but generally what is definitely proposed in connection with the civic reform league and do not know, or neither have I any idea, of the ultimate results.

D. J. Purdy. Mr. Purdy declined to express an opinion as he had not given the matter sufficient consideration.

Andrew Malcolm. 'I am certainly opposed to the election at-large as at present conducted. I believe in each ward electing its own aldermen. I don't know exactly what is definitely proposed in connection with the civic reform league and do not know, or neither have I any idea, of the ultimate results. But I will say that the city council affects us more, financially, than the Dominion government.'

A. C. Fairweather. 'Endorse the civic reform? Well, I do. Anything will be acceptable if we can get out of the objectionable state of civic affairs as it exists at present, and has been existing for the past few years.'

Walter Foster. 'I have not had time to give the matter much consideration and am not in a position to express my opinion.'

John Sealy. 'I do not care to express my opinion at the present time.'

Geo. E. Fairweather. 'I do not care to express my opinion at the present time.'

Thorne Bros. Messrs. Thorne Bros., said they were in favor of any scheme that would tend to better our civic affairs. They thought the idea of forming the city into districts, a good one. They considered the business men had not taken an active interest in civic affairs as they should. They would join in any movement for the betterment of the city government.

F. A. Peters. F. A. Peters said he would favor a civic reform league, composed of business men. He did not think that it could be run as a secret society, however, but as an influential body of business men he thought it would be a success.

FRANK RAISINGER DIES AT BRIDGETON EVEN THOUGH THE ROPE BROKE.

Frank Raisingier Dies at Bridgeton Even Though the Rope Refused to Hang Him—He Was Convicted of Murdering His Wife.

Bridgeton, N. J., Feb. 15.—Frank Raisingier was hanged here today for the murder of his wife. The rope broke as the body rebounded and the back of Raisingier's head struck a cross beam of the scaffold and broke Raisingier's neck. The physicians present said death was instantaneous. Raisingier was quickly caught by the cord and lifted the body clean off the ground but a quick examination by Dr. Stiles revealed the fact that the neck was broken and it was therefore not necessary to raise the body again to the scaffold.

GRAVEYARD INSURANCE. Mrs. Barron Suspected of Causing Three or Four Deaths.

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 15.—(Special.)—In connection with the arrest of Mrs. Rose Barron, who is suspected of having poisoned her father-in-law Peter Barron, an old British pensioner of this city, the police are now investigating the death of Mrs. Green of Detroit, which occurred eight months ago, under circumstances identical with those of Peter Barron's. Mrs. Green was being nursed by Rose Barron at the time for a trivial ailment, but her illness took a sudden serious turn and death ensued within a few hours. The police have discovered that Mrs. Barron's father-in-law and brother, both of whom it is said, carried insurance in the woman's favor, died within a short time of each other of mysterious illness.

THE GREEK CASE. Judge Tuck in Chambers Heard Interesting Case This Morning.

The case of Anastasios Pappagourgiou, against Harry W. Turner came up in chambers this morning before Justice Tuck and the direct examination of George Cusley, the first witness was concluded.

TORPEDO BOATS CHEAP FOR CASH. Victoria, B. C., Feb. 15.—(Special.)—By instructions of the lords of the admiralty, torpedo boats No. 39 and 40 on this station are to be sold. The vessels have been rendered unfit for naval purposes, and purchased will be required to satisfy naval authorities that they will not be re-sold to belligerents.

INSPECTOR FIRED. Truro, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—H. H. Johnson license inspector was deposited last night by the town council and the duties of the office put on the chief of Police John Waller. The appointment of H. G. McLaughlin as town clerk was confirmed.

MEETING ADJOURNED. Halifax, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—The Exhibition Commission adjourned from Monday evening until this morning by which time it was expected all the commissioners from outside the city could be here, but this morning it was found that several commissioners had not yet arrived in Halifax so the meeting was further adjourned until Friday evening.

ORGAN FACTORY BURNED. Quebec, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—A fire of unknown origin destroyed the building and contents of the Hoberg Organ factory. The building was heavily stocked with organ cases in process of manufacture. The loss is estimated at $30,000, fully covered by insurance.

DIVIDEND REDUCED. Montreal, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—A reduction of two percent in the future dividends of Montreal Cotton has been decided upon. During the past few years the dividend had been a matter of 10 percent.

The Times New Reporter.

Our esteemed fellow citizen Mr. Peter Spoonins reports having seen a yellow butterfly in the Happy Home saloon yesterday afternoon. Mr. Spoonins is reported to be some 100 years old today. His attending physician advises him to change his brand, as the next stage to yellow butterflies is pink ostriches with pale blue eyes and green horns.

FERRY MATTERS. The ferry committee held an important meeting this morning. The chairman asked if Wun Lung was on the route to-day. The members said they were not sure, and a recess was taken while a messenger went out to inquire. He returned presently to say that Wun Lung was still on the horizon of Navy Island, showing signals of distress.

A BIG DEAL. Project to Vest Control of Equitable Life Assurance Society in the Policy Holders.

New York, Feb. 15.—A movement to take the control of the Equitable Life Assurance Society from the stockholders and place it with the policy holders, is being taken up by the board of directors.

Ridicules Roosevelt. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The Novoye Vremya, in a sarcastic editorial on the United States Senate in connection with their action on the arbitration treaties pokes fun at the alleged attempt of the United States to take the leadership in the world's

The ferry superintendent was asked how many persons boarded the ferry. He asked time to prepare a statement and was given one week. By that time it is hoped that he will have a complete list made out.

The chairman asked if Wun Lung was still on the horizon of Navy Island, showing signals of distress. He returned presently to say that Wun Lung was still on the horizon of Navy Island, showing signals of distress.

While in front of Dr. William Christie's office a member of the city council pronounced the name of Androsin Pappagourgia. Whether the man's name will convict him is still in doubt, but most business men will pronounce the name of Androsin Pappagourgia.