REPRESENTS FIRESTONE TIRES IN MARITIME PROVINCES

H. J. Rodgers, who recently severed his connection with the Dunlop Rubber Company, has been appointed maritime representative of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company of Hamilton (Ont.). Mr. Rodgers will have control of their sales organization and all matters pertaining to this company's business in the maritime provinces. The Firestone Company are the largest exclusive manufacturers of motor tires in the world, enjoying the largest distribution of any tire manufacturer, their Akron, Ohio, plant being capable of turning out 30,000 tires per day. The Canadian plant, situated at Hamilton, is an exact duplicate of their No. 2 Akron plant and will be the most modern of its size on this continent. Mr. Rodgers has been connected with the rubber business for a good many years and enjoys a large connection with automobile and garage trade throughout the maritime provinces. He will make his headquarters in St. John, where arrangements will be completed for a sales organization for these provinces.

Naval Man Drowned
Portland, Me., June 17—Reuben K. Dyer, who with the rank of lieutenant-commander commanded the United States gunboat Marietta during the war, was drowned in the harbor here today. He fell overboard while on a brief yachting trip with Lieutenant Commander W. W. Ramsay, in command of Eagle boat No. 19.
