Comedy Twist

There is no comedy as funny as that found in human life as it exists in every city and town. The quaint characters one meets in daily life furnish vast amounts of humor that is unusually funny. The author who depicts these people in their natural environs has created a masterpiece. In this production real types were used and under the direction of G. V. Seyferitz they do the natural thing. It is a film that stands by itself.

with fists for his broadsword, sheer grit his armor, conquering a mountain his crusade—and with a code of honor that put loyalty to his pal above written laws; who could lay down even his love for a friend—Such is the hero in this great picture.

BIG HUMAN STORY

Every element that appeals to human emotions has been perfectly blended in the enacting of this film that grips, even hurts, in places, so powerful are its situations. It is the story of one man's sacrifice for his friend; a really great love story built upon friendship.
