Proper Thing Now Is to Peel Off Soiled Skin

(From Beauty's Mirror)

Those who abhor sticky, greasy, shiny, streaked complexions should religiously avoid creams, powders and rouges these heated days. There's no need for them, anyway, since the virtues of mercerized soap have become known.

Only a Woman Knows How a Woman is Really Dressed. By J. R. HAMILTON. Former Advertising Manager, Wanamaker's, Philadelphia.

ONE of the most interesting amusements is watching the feminine sport of fishing for men. Man is a very greedy fish of the genus called "sucker".

Only a woman knows how a woman thinks. Only a woman knows how a woman is dressed. A woman can always "see through" another woman, even when the sunshine doesn't help.

Now what are we coming to? Simply to the fact that there are always two kinds of women; one kind who are really well dressed and the other who are seemingly so.

The women who are seemingly well-dressed are always "make-shift" artists for the stage. The women who are really well-dressed are the ones who do their planning ahead.

Big Clearance Sales are going on in all the stores. Everything is cut in price. Corsets, waists, corset covers, skirts, underwear, lingerie, hosiery, dresses, suits, shoes and the scores of other things which a woman knows and a man can never know—all these can now be had for a fraction of their regular price.

The well-dressed woman will get them and have them for another year. The careless woman will do without them now (because she can) and next year she will be putting up another stage effect with the aid of a few pieces of lace and a number of pins.

Better turn to the advertising now; follow these Clearance Sales and be really and truly well-dressed.
