of several claimants to peerages during the last twelve months, yet thus far George V. has refrained from following its recommendations by calling the dignities in question out of abeyance. He is under no obligation to do so. Indeed, until the reign of Queen Victoria, the monarch was wont to refuse to revive any peerages that had been in abeyance for more than thirty

King George, it is asserted on excellent authority, has resolved to revert to this rule, which will prove a source of satisfaction to the vast majority of Great Britain's hereditary legislators; for when the sovereign calls a peerage out of abey-ance in favor of any claimant, the latter becomes invested with precedence determ-ined by the date of the original creation of the dignity, and takes the "pas" of all the peers of his grade, whose honors are becomes invested with precedence determined by the date of the original creation of the dignity, and takes the "pas" of all the peers of his grade, whose honors are less ancient.

Thus, when Queen Victoria, in 1839, on the recommendation of her premier, Lord Melbourne, terminated the 414 years abeyance of the Barony of Camoys in favor of Thomas Stonor of Stonor Park, on the Oxfordshire banks of the Thames, he, ipse facto, became entitled to precedence over all the barons whose peerages had been created since A.D. 1383, which is the date of the origin of the Camoys Barony. The present Lord Camoys, his greatgrandson, is married to Miss Irene Sherman, daughter of the late William Watts Sherman, of New York.

The Reverse of Heatings had been done to the date of the late William Watts Sherman, of New York.
