

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

A DEBARKER RESIDENCE on St. John Street is to be sold.

CHATHAM UNION.—The report of the interesting Chatham Union service at St. Paul's on Thursday last will appear next week.

FROM WYNS.—We had a call on Monday from Mr. James Parrell, formerly of Newcastle, and Sam'l O'Brien, formerly of the Chaplin Island road, both of whom are now residents of Clough, Minnesota.

MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY.—Missionary services will be held in St. Luke's Church on Sunday, October 4th.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Willard Sinclair, of Bridgetown, left home on Monday for Montreal, where he is to be in the morning.

loans, and Lynch Bros.—the largest operators on hand being in furthering of the work of the Auxiliary in the home Districts.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted.—That the office bearers be re-elected, viz:—

President—Miss Chalmers. Vice-Presidents—Mr. Snowball, Mrs. Street and Mrs. Parker.

Treasurer—Mrs. McCurdy. Secretary—Mrs. Atkinson. 2nd. That the General Committee be re-appointed.—

3rd. That the following Collectors be appointed:—

Chatham, Upper District—Miss McLachlan. Lower District—Miss Sumner.

Middle District—Miss Benson and Miss Lawson. Black Brook—Miss A. Loggie.

Douglasstown—Miss Miller. Napan, Upper District—Miss Jardine.

Lower District—Miss Bremner. Newcastle, Upper District—Mrs. F. Z. Allen.

Middle District—Miss Maud Davidson. Lower District—Miss Annie Aitken.

Nelson—Miss Sutton. Deshay—Mr. John W. Miller.

Blackville—Mrs. Gravelly. Daikow—Mrs. John L. Murray.

Whitesville—Mrs. E. A. Redbank—Mrs. Murray. Sagra—Mrs. Todd.

4th. That a cordial vote of thanks be given to the collectors for their diligence in the work of the past year and also to the press for gratuitous advertising. The meeting adjourned at 10 o'clock with prayer by Rev. Mr. Marshall.

L. A. ATKIN, SECRETY. St. Anne, Newcastle, Sept. 29, 1891.

A Pine Show. The Fredericton Exhibition, which is to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, will be a general affair, and no doubt, attract a large number of visitors.

Its great features will be in stock and agricultural products, and the prize list will amount to $2,500. Amongst the attractions will be horse racing, and $20,000 worth of first-class cattle and sheep, which have been imported by the government.

The sale of the mill will take place on Wednesday 7th inst. and the sale of the house, Zephyr, Deacon, Professor, Knight of Chester, Granville and Aurora.

Creators from Miramichi will have an excellent opportunity to visit the show as the Canada Eastern railway is offering very attractive rates. Tickets must be obtained on 6th, and may be used on 6th or 7th to get to Fredericton and will be good to return until Friday 9th. The rates for the return trip to Fredericton and return will be as follows:—

From Chatham, $2.00. Blackville, 1.75. Blacktown, 1.50. Douglasstown, 1.25. Cross Creek, 1.00. Covered Bridge, .75. Zon, .65. Natshaw, .50. Mans, .40. Goodspeed's, .35. Pennic, .30. Marvellville, .25.

Local agents of the railway will also arrange for transportation of stock to the exhibition. The Capital says:—

Arrangements are now fully complete for Fredericton's great show and fair on the 6th, 7th and 8th of October. It will be opened by His Honor Sir Leonard Tilley, at 2 o'clock on Tuesday 6th. On Wednesday, the Knights of Pythias will have their grand parade. Knights will be present from all the encampments of the province, as well as from those of Bangor, Presqu'Isle, Calais and Eastport. Six brass bands will take part in the parade. On Thursday night the firemen will have their torchlight procession and pyrotechnic display. On Wednesday and Thursday afternoon, the horse races will take place on the park track. A purse of $1,100 has been offered, and many fast horses will compete. There will be some special attractions at the evening risk, among others the famous dog show, one of the most prominent features of the St. John show. Lines, the celebrated stationer, with many 14 feet and 12 feet long will be on exhibition, each day of the fair. The government importation of $20,000 worth of pure bred stock will be sold at public auction. Ample accommodation for all has been secured. Exhibition open to all New Brunswickers.

Young Men's Christian Association of Chatham. Meetings held every week in their rooms, up-stairs, Barry's Building, as follows:—

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, for Prayer and Training. Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for Bible Study. All young men are most cordially invited to all of these meetings.

The Process of Fiction. The Hants, N. S. Journal publishes a story that is very amusing to a number of gentlemen who participated in the rescue of a yachtman, frightened off Lamson's mill on the Miramichi, a few years ago. The incidents of the event were a party of four men and a boy sailing a race with a sloop in a very careless manner, the result being a capsizing, fortunately in shallow water—and as the boat filled and went down slowly, her crew, for and aft, kept on the surface, passing up the shores, hauled and leach of the vessel, until the hull took bottom in about twelve feet of water. They hung on, safely and without risk, until the judges' steamer, which was only about 200 yards away from them when the mishap occurred—ran to their assistance, and took them on board. It is true that the helmsman, who crawled up the back of the mainmast, fell a starboard, and "threw" a long distance from the boat when it capsized, and some of "the boys" pretended to believe him, but few of them ever expected to find the episode giving the results of the race, as it is now doing, in the following form:—

"An exchange explains how to keep from drowning by simply getting cool and breathing water, as does the deer, etc. A person unable to swim, and getting in water beyond his depth, can save his life by floating—by lying flat on the back, the limbs extended, not flexed, the arms placed close to the mainmast, and the head over the stern. A cool-headed newspaper man of Chatham, New Brunswick, Mr. [Name], a boat capsized during a squall, and he (the only occupant of the boat) was thrown into the water, and he was not rescued until he was rescued by the steamer. He could not swim, but he made up his mind to keep his head above water, and by keeping cool and his limbs well inflated, treading water gently, and making good use of the only arm he had, he kept his head above water, and was rescued by the steamer. He is now doing, in the following form:—

"An exchange explains how to keep from drowning by simply getting cool and breathing water, as does the deer, etc. A person unable to swim, and getting in water beyond his depth, can save his life by floating—by lying flat on the back, the limbs extended, not flexed, the arms placed close to the mainmast, and the head over the stern. A cool-headed newspaper man of Chatham, New Brunswick, Mr. [Name], a boat capsized during a squall, and he (the only occupant of the boat) was thrown into the water, and he was not rescued until he was rescued by the steamer. He could not swim, but he made up his mind to keep his head above water, and by keeping cool and his limbs well inflated, treading water gently, and making good use of the only arm he had, he kept his head above water, and was rescued by the steamer. He is now doing, in the following form:—

"An exchange explains how to keep from drowning by simply getting cool and breathing water, as does the deer, etc. A person unable to swim, and getting in water beyond his depth, can save his life by floating—by lying flat on the back, the limbs extended, not flexed, the arms placed close to the mainmast, and the head over the stern. A cool-headed newspaper man of Chatham, New Brunswick, Mr. [Name], a boat capsized during a squall, and he (the only occupant of the boat) was thrown into the water, and he was not rescued until he was rescued by the steamer. He could not swim, but he made up his mind to keep his head above water, and by keeping cool and his limbs well inflated, treading water gently, and making good use of the only arm he had, he kept his head above water, and was rescued by the steamer. He is now doing, in the following form:—

"An exchange explains how to keep from drowning by simply getting cool and breathing water, as does the deer, etc. A person unable to swim, and getting in water beyond his depth, can save his life by floating—by lying flat on the back, the limbs extended, not flexed, the arms placed close to the mainmast, and the head over the stern. A cool-headed newspaper man of Chatham, New Brunswick, Mr. [Name], a boat capsized during a squall, and he (the only occupant of the boat) was thrown into the water, and he was not rescued until he was rescued by the steamer. He could not swim, but he made up his mind to keep his head above water, and by keeping cool and his limbs well inflated, treading water gently, and making good use of the only arm he had, he kept his head above water, and was rescued by the steamer. He is now doing, in the following form:—

They are of both sexes and, unfortunately, associated with the pure and good, who do not suspect the villain that they conceal in an apparently correct everyday life. The St. Andrew's Beacon tells a little story which illustrates one phase of the work of this reptile class. It says:—

"Mr. J. Inglis Street, a former resident of St. Andrew's, but who is now engaged in the drug business at Malden, Mass., has been greatly annoyed lately by frequent reports of a letter from a person signing the name of his wife. It was the old story of a wronged woman who wanted financial reparation. Several of the letters began 'You dear old naughty,' and they were bubbling over with love, and tears and kisses. He was bold to have his largest, sweetest, biggest and slickest knife for her, but he was a'fraid to shut out $200 or he would be quit. The name of Mr. John Street, was introduced in several of the letters. In one place the writer said that Mr. Magro 'had helped me out of St. Andrew's,' and you would help me out of Boston." Mr. Street tried hard to trap "her" but could not succeed. He then placed the matter in the hands of the police, with the result that Mr. Street's clerk, Gilbert H. Tuttle, was arrested. He confessed, and he did it for fun. But it is likely to prove expensive for him.

Castoria is recommended by physicians, for children teaching. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It cures colic, cholera, diarrhoea, and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing sleep. It is the mother's friend in all cases.

Public Wharf Sale. The Chatham public wharf property was leased at public auction by Mr. Edward Johnson on Tuesday at noon. Just as Mr. Johnson was about to close the bidding, an announcement was made by the Council to proceed, on the ground that he, Wyse, had been authorized by two members of the committee of three to let the property. The sale of the general grounds, Mr. Johnson merely smiled and proceeded. The first lot offered—that on which the engine house stands—and which the town fire department has had free of charge for more than twenty years, was expected to go to the town at a nominal figure, but F. E. Winslow, Esq., bid against chairman McDonald of the Fire Commissioners until it was run up to $22 per annum—until which high ground rent was considered for the town. The front portion of the wharf, comprising all the property save the reserved public lot, the Ferry Slip, the engine house site and the lots on which the buildings of Messrs. Crimmin, Sailer & Gillespie's buildings stand—was expected to be secured—after sharp competition—by F. E. Winslow, Esq., at a rental of $115 a year. The remaining portion—lots on which Messrs. Crimmin, Sailer & Gillespie's buildings stand—was expected to be secured—after sharp competition—by F. E. Winslow, Esq., at a rental of $115 a year.

Queer world! Queer! people Here are men and women by thousands suffering from all sorts of diseases, bearing all manner of pain, spending their all on physicians and "getting no relief." The medicine is Dr. Pierce's Great Peppermint Cure, and its different parts of the ordinary nostrums in this:—

It does what it claims to do: it cures you nothing! The way is this: You pay your druggist $1.00 for a bottle. You read the directions, and you follow them. You get better or you don't. If you do, you buy another bottle, and perhaps another. If you don't get better, you get your money back. And in that so many people are willing to be sick when the remedy is so near at hand.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Along and out of Work. Michael Dooley, 19 years of age and a native of Prince Edward Island, attempted to commit suicide Monday evening by cutting his throat with a razor as he was boarding house 2 Summer place, East Chatham. He was removed to the City Hospital where his chances for recovery were pronounced good. Dooley had been searching for work for some time, but became despondent of his ill-luck.—(Boston Post.)

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

They are of both sexes and, unfortunately, associated with the pure and good, who do not suspect the villain that they conceal in an apparently correct everyday life. The St. Andrew's Beacon tells a little story which illustrates one phase of the work of this reptile class. It says:—

"Mr. J. Inglis Street, a former resident of St. Andrew's, but who is now engaged in the drug business at Malden, Mass., has been greatly annoyed lately by frequent reports of a letter from a person signing the name of his wife. It was the old story of a wronged woman who wanted financial reparation. Several of the letters began 'You dear old naughty,' and they were bubbling over with love, and tears and kisses. He was bold to have his largest, sweetest, biggest and slickest knife for her, but he was a'fraid to shut out $200 or he would be quit. The name of Mr. John Street, was introduced in several of the letters. In one place the writer said that Mr. Magro 'had helped me out of St. Andrew's,' and you would help me out of Boston." Mr. Street tried hard to trap "her" but could not succeed. He then placed the matter in the hands of the police, with the result that Mr. Street's clerk, Gilbert H. Tuttle, was arrested. He confessed, and he did it for fun. But it is likely to prove expensive for him.

Castoria is recommended by physicians, for children teaching. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It cures colic, cholera, diarrhoea, and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing sleep. It is the mother's friend in all cases.

Public Wharf Sale. The Chatham public wharf property was leased at public auction by Mr. Edward Johnson on Tuesday at noon. Just as Mr. Johnson was about to close the bidding, an announcement was made by the Council to proceed, on the ground that he, Wyse, had been authorized by two members of the committee of three to let the property. The sale of the general grounds, Mr. Johnson merely smiled and proceeded. The first lot offered—that on which the engine house stands—and which the town fire department has had free of charge for more than twenty years, was expected to go to the town at a nominal figure, but F. E. Winslow, Esq., bid against chairman McDonald of the Fire Commissioners until it was run up to $22 per annum—until which high ground rent was considered for the town. The front portion of the wharf, comprising all the property save the reserved public lot, the Ferry Slip, the engine house site and the lots on which the buildings of Messrs. Crimmin, Sailer & Gillespie's buildings stand—was expected to be secured—after sharp competition—by F. E. Winslow, Esq., at a rental of $115 a year. The remaining portion—lots on which Messrs. Crimmin, Sailer & Gillespie's buildings stand—was expected to be secured—after sharp competition—by F. E. Winslow, Esq., at a rental of $115 a year.

Queer world! Queer! people Here are men and women by thousands suffering from all sorts of diseases, bearing all manner of pain, spending their all on physicians and "getting no relief." The medicine is Dr. Pierce's Great Peppermint Cure, and its different parts of the ordinary nostrums in this:—

It does what it claims to do: it cures you nothing! The way is this: You pay your druggist $1.00 for a bottle. You read the directions, and you follow them. You get better or you don't. If you do, you buy another bottle, and perhaps another. If you don't get better, you get your money back. And in that so many people are willing to be sick when the remedy is so near at hand.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Along and out of Work. Michael Dooley, 19 years of age and a native of Prince Edward Island, attempted to commit suicide Monday evening by cutting his throat with a razor as he was boarding house 2 Summer place, East Chatham. He was removed to the City Hospital where his chances for recovery were pronounced good. Dooley had been searching for work for some time, but became despondent of his ill-luck.—(Boston Post.)

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

They are of both sexes and, unfortunately, associated with the pure and good, who do not suspect the villain that they conceal in an apparently correct everyday life. The St. Andrew's Beacon tells a little story which illustrates one phase of the work of this reptile class. It says:—

"Mr. J. Inglis Street, a former resident of St. Andrew's, but who is now engaged in the drug business at Malden, Mass., has been greatly annoyed lately by frequent reports of a letter from a person signing the name of his wife. It was the old story of a wronged woman who wanted financial reparation. Several of the letters began 'You dear old naughty,' and they were bubbling over with love, and tears and kisses. He was bold to have his largest, sweetest, biggest and slickest knife for her, but he was a'fraid to shut out $200 or he would be quit. The name of Mr. John Street, was introduced in several of the letters. In one place the writer said that Mr. Magro 'had helped me out of St. Andrew's,' and you would help me out of Boston." Mr. Street tried hard to trap "her" but could not succeed. He then placed the matter in the hands of the police, with the result that Mr. Street's clerk, Gilbert H. Tuttle, was arrested. He confessed, and he did it for fun. But it is likely to prove expensive for him.

Castoria is recommended by physicians, for children teaching. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It cures colic, cholera, diarrhoea, and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing sleep. It is the mother's friend in all cases.

Public Wharf Sale. The Chatham public wharf property was leased at public auction by Mr. Edward Johnson on Tuesday at noon. Just as Mr. Johnson was about to close the bidding, an announcement was made by the Council to proceed, on the ground that he, Wyse, had been authorized by two members of the committee of three to let the property. The sale of the general grounds, Mr. Johnson merely smiled and proceeded. The first lot offered—that on which the engine house stands—and which the town fire department has had free of charge for more than twenty years, was expected to go to the town at a nominal figure, but F. E. Winslow, Esq., bid against chairman McDonald of the Fire Commissioners until it was run up to $22 per annum—until which high ground rent was considered for the town. The front portion of the wharf, comprising all the property save the reserved public lot, the Ferry Slip, the engine house site and the lots on which the buildings of Messrs. Crimmin, Sailer & Gillespie's buildings stand—was expected to be secured—after sharp competition—by F. E. Winslow, Esq., at a rental of $115 a year. The remaining portion—lots on which Messrs. Crimmin, Sailer & Gillespie's buildings stand—was expected to be secured—after sharp competition—by F. E. Winslow, Esq., at a rental of $115 a year.

Queer world! Queer! people Here are men and women by thousands suffering from all sorts of diseases, bearing all manner of pain, spending their all on physicians and "getting no relief." The medicine is Dr. Pierce's Great Peppermint Cure, and its different parts of the ordinary nostrums in this:—

It does what it claims to do: it cures you nothing! The way is this: You pay your druggist $1.00 for a bottle. You read the directions, and you follow them. You get better or you don't. If you do, you buy another bottle, and perhaps another. If you don't get better, you get your money back. And in that so many people are willing to be sick when the remedy is so near at hand.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Along and out of Work. Michael Dooley, 19 years of age and a native of Prince Edward Island, attempted to commit suicide Monday evening by cutting his throat with a razor as he was boarding house 2 Summer place, East Chatham. He was removed to the City Hospital where his chances for recovery were pronounced good. Dooley had been searching for work for some time, but became despondent of his ill-luck.—(Boston Post.)

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she still cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When