JAPAN IS STILL EXCITED OVER CALIFORNIA'S POLICY

Leading Paper Wants Less Talk and More Work to Remedy the Conditions—Japanese Representative Makes Light of the Troubles

TOKIO, June 6.—The Nichi Nichi, commenting on Japanese and American relations today, says: "The traditional friendship will not escape a rupture should incidents like those that have occurred in San Francisco be repeated. Whether the sufferers are school children or restaurant keepers, or the site of persecution be limited to California, it does not alter the fact that our compatriots are victims of anti-Japanese outrages. Japanese go there under treaty protection."

"President Roosevelt's enlightened message to the last congress was received here with eminent satisfaction, but actual developments since are a total failure. 'What we want are not so many expressions of civilized sentiments, but one set of efficient protection of the treaty rights of Japan. The masterly paper in this regard is no destination for a treaty between Japan and the United States. The general tone of the Japanese press is becoming outspoken and unless an assurance in some form is made to insure the safety of Japanese in San Francisco, it is feared that the friendly relations between both nations will be endangered."

Count Okuma, leader of the Progressives, is outspoken as usual, but it should be remembered that, while denying the difficulty, his being out of office permits him a free-expression of his opinions. Count Okuma generally occupies the position of critic. While his power has waned, he has lived only a few months. The Japanese press is not so much quoting, as absolutely silent on the question of proceeding to extremes in the settlement of the San Francisco affair. Common sense people only expect reparation in the form of damages for the losses suffered by Japanese residents there and the punishment of their assailants. It is believed that the Government of Japan is taking proper steps in the matter, and while the public is irritated at the tardiness displayed in effecting a solution of the difficulty, its opinion has not yet reached the stage of advocating an appeal to a hostile demonstration in any form.

LONDON, June 6.—Baron Takekazu Okawa, vice-president of the Japanese Red Cross Society, who has arrived here from New York May 26, to attend the Red Cross conference which is to open here June 10, threw cold water on the sensational reports of the ill-treatment of Japanese in America, to which some of the most staid English papers are devoting much attention. In an interview today he said: "Naturally, as a member of the House of Peers and a politician I was anxious to see to what extent any anti-Japanese feeling existed in the United States. I may say that the San Francisco affair is a much more local affair than I thought it was when I was in Japan. The result of my investigations in the United States enables me to declare that the feelings of Americans towards my country are most cordial. Nowhere did I find the least sign of unkindness, with the exception of San Francisco. We in Japan wish the situation between the two countries to be more and more harmonious, hence the desire that no such jar as occurred in San Francisco, although a purely local one, should be repeated."

NEW YORK, June 6.—Count Okuma, former leader of the Progressives, the opposition party in Japan, in response to a request by the New York World, called that paper the following regarding the incident in San Francisco, in which the Japanese were involved: "I deeply regret that anti-Japanese outrages are being repeated in San Francisco. We as a nation, are not satisfied with settlement of 'last school' which resulted in unjust discrimination against and the actual expulsion of Japanese emigrants. 'We patiently hoped that the principles laid out in the enlightened message of President Roosevelt last December would prevail and that every unjust discrimination against Japanese would be stopped. Repetition of injustice against the Japanese who mercifully hurt our warm feelings toward America, and our traditional friendship will be weakened thereby. 'Our and just treatment is essential to maintain friendship. Repeated outrageous acts, will not only damage American interests but also discredit American civilization. 'For the sake of justice and humanity we appeal to the American public to stop Boer-like outrages and unfair discrimination against Japanese, and pray that Washington's farewell address be not forgotten by American people.' Count Okuma has been Minister of Finance, Foreign Affairs and Premier of Japan. He is now head of Waseda University, which he founded and endowed largely.

SUPREME COURT.
FREDERICKTON, N. B., June 6.—Bourque vs. Record Foundry and Machine Co. is before the supreme court today and will likely occupy the entire day. J. D. Whitney is acting for the plaintiff and H. A. Powell appears for the defendant.

THE PRODUCTION OF IRON AND STEEL

Is Now the Greatest in the History of America

Uncertainty as to the Continuation of Last Season's Prosperity Caused Some Slight Depression.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 6.—Despite tumors in the iron and steel trade abroad as well as in this country, canvasses of the industry warrants the statement that the last half of 1907 and the first half of 1908 will witness the largest production capacity in the history of the United States and Canada. It is estimated that new furnace construction will add at least 2,000,000 tons to the prospective capacity of the country. Last year the local output of iron and steel was 23,970,000 tons. A corresponding stimulus, it is said, will be given the coke trade, inasmuch as it is estimated that the new pig iron furnace capacity will consume the product of between 6,000 and 7,000 ovens.

It is stated that the information which is derived from official sources should have a reassuring effect upon business men who have had reasonable doubt as to the maintenance of the wonderful degree of prosperity which characterized the industry last year. The cause of the shutting down of the furnaces at a time of actual famine in pig iron, said an expert, "is a case of necessity superinduced by a little lack of confidence last year. 'There were comparatively few persons who had faith in the iron market. During the closing months of 1906 nearly everybody was willing to do business with a restriction in 1907. Producers of pig iron therefore booked orders for this year's delivery under the impression that the market would fall off and rushed production with the idea that there would be plenty of leisure this spring and summer for delayed output. The fall in current demand did not occur and as a consequence of overworking furnaces all last year needed repairs are now imperative."

CONDEMNED TO DEATH FOR KILLING BARILLAS

MEXICO CITY, June 6.—Florence Morales, and Bernabé Mora, were found guilty last night of murdering General Manuel Barillas, former president of the Republic of Guatemala, in this city on the night of April 13, last.

The jury, which returned the verdict, was out an hour and forty minutes. Upon the announcement of the verdict, the two defendants of the assassin asked for clemency, citing the provision for twenty-year imprisonment. The court took the matter under advisement and in thirty minutes returned pronouncing the death sentence. The residents there had no emotion, their doom was pronounced. No date has been set for execution as yet.

THINK IT AN ATTEMPT TO KILL EMPEROR'S BROTHER

ST. PETERSBURG, June 6.—There have been so many alleged attempts lately upon the lives of members of the imperial household of Russia that scarcely a day passed without adding to the number. The latest, according to the Novoye Vremya was a deliberate design on the life of Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, younger brother of Emperor Nicholas. In any event a serious accident was narrowly averted. The scene was the Gatchina Road, leading to Tsarskoye-Selo, and the time yesterday afternoon. Piles of stones completely blocking the highway, were discovered just before the passage of the automobile bearing Grand Duke. They were hurriedly cleared away and the emperor's brother passed in safety.

MAYOR SCHMITZ ON TRIAL ON CHARGE OF BLACKMAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The opening address for the prosecution by Assistant District Attorney Henry, the partial examination of ex-Police Commissioner Thomas Regan, the introduction as evidence of much data from the minute books of the Police Commission for the years 1904 and 1905 and the questioning in relation thereto of the Secretary of the Commission, Officer Charles F. Skully, were the proceedings yesterday in the first day of the trial of Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, for alleged extortion of money from keepers of French restaurants.

Attorney Henry in his statement to the jury, charged the Mayor and Abraham Ruef jointly indicted with Schmitz on this charge, with plotting to "carry on a systematic scheme of blackmail" through the police commission.

ST. JOHN MEN APPEAR IN OPERA AT MONTGTON

MONTGTON, N. B., June 6.—A. H. Lindsay, formerly of St. John, and John Kelly, the well known St. John tenor, had the leading roles in a very successful performance of the comic opera Mlado, given here last night. Mr. Lindsay had the role of Pook Bah, while Kelly took the part of Nanki Poo. Both gave very clever performances and were encored in a number of solos.

The performance was under the auspices of the Montgton fire department and of the tournament fund, and was given to crowded houses.

HARRY ORCHARD CONTINUES HIS GRUESOME RECITAL

Yesterday's Evidence Regarding a Long Series of Murders Had Many Weak Points Which Will be Further Explained Today

LONDON, June 5.—The rush of modern life is being felt to such an extent by even the world of fashion, that time cannot now be found for such little social amenities as the personal leaving of visiting cards at the houses of friends and acquaintances. Formerly the woman of fashion found that she could manage this task herself. Then the help of her own personal servants had to be called in. Now the stationer undertakes "the whole business of card-leaving at a merely nominal sum per 100, so that the cards need never be sent to their owner. A list is made out, and there the responsibility of the fashionable woman ends, so far as calling on her friends is concerned, the cards being left by a perfect stranger to both visitor and visited."

Inquiries yesterday showed that the whole business of card-leaving has become thoroughly organized, and is now a well-organized occupation. "The card-leaver is no ordinary person of the bill-distributing type. He is a man well dressed and thoroughly versed in the rules of etiquette. He must know the proper hours for calling. With his little parcel of cards, all in envelopes and addressed, but not sealed down, he 'calls' and presents the card. This having been done, he returns the empty envelopes to the stationer, as an indication that the card has been left. If the person called on has not left or moved away, a note is made on the envelope, and the card returned in it. In defense of the system it is pointed out that it would be absolutely impossible for any woman of fashion to do her own card-leaving and attend to all the other social functions as well. "The purely personal call, of course, still made, and is indicated in the usual manner by turning down one corner. Leaving cards so marked is never deputed.

MOONHONEY SPENT IN HOME OF WHEELS

ROYAL CAR IN WHICH SPACE IS UTILIZED FOR COMFORTS OF ORDINARY HOSE.

LONDON, June 5.—In a builder's yard in Fulham stands the quaint little home in London, a clean, comfortable, and well-furnished residence. During the winter months this snug little home has been occupied by a young married couple, who toured the eastern countries in it during the summer. "We shall not tour again this summer," said V. Barron, the proud owner of this house on wheels, "because my wife thinks it is time to settle down, and for that reason I am thinking of selling it. But I shall be sorry to part with our little home, for in spite of its small dimensions we have been very happy in it."

Mr. Barron believes that his caravan which is built on Pullman car lines, is the replica of one owned by Lord Dudley. He bought it from the first owner, who fixed it with mirrors in the walls and ceiling and many ingenious devices for saving space. Over all the car is 21 feet long and 8 feet wide, and has a front door and a side door, so that the owner can attach a portable kitchen or a tent to one end. "The coal cellar is a large, deep drawer, which pulls out from underneath the range, and holds at least half a hundredweight. On one side of the chimney-piece, which is furnished with a miniature overmantel and china ornaments, is an atrape cupboard. Cupboards are indeed to be found in the most unexpected places. On one side of the end entrance door is a hanging closet for Mrs. Barron's dresses; on the other side the china closet, with a 'wine cellar' underneath. The flap of the table folds upward instead of down, and becomes a chest of drawers. In the bedroom, which is about 3 1/2 feet, the bed occupies most of the space, but there is room for a washstand and dressing table as well.

AN ATTEMPT TO BURN THE TOWN OF ALLENTOWN

ALLENTOWN, Pa., June 6.—What was apparently an effort of incendiaries to destroy the City of Allentown occurred here early today when firemen were called almost simultaneously to fight three fires in the business section of the city. An effort was made to draw the firemen from the business section by turning in false alarms from residents of the city. Total loss was $125,000.

LAURIER AND BRODEUR RECEIVED BY THE POPE

ROME, June 6.—The Pope today received in private audience Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier and R. L. Brodeur, the Canadian minister of marine and fisheries, and their families. The pontiff informed his visitors that he followed with affectionate interest the progress made by the Dominion.

New Trade Relieves the Society of Bored and Discharges Social Duty.

LONDON, June 5.—The rush of modern life is being felt to such an extent by even the world of fashion, that time cannot now be found for such little social amenities as the personal leaving of visiting cards at the houses of friends and acquaintances. ## MOURNING COUPLE COMPACT TO DIE

Drink Poison Together and Hold Person Who Starts for Help Till Strength Fails

JACKSON, Mich., June 6.—Despondent over the loss of one of their children, who died not long ago, and also from the great expense to which they had been put from illness in their family, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, residing near Springport, attempted suicide today by taking chloroform. "It occurred at Bly's Lake. They went there with the determination of ending their lives, and after drinking the contents of a four ounce bottle of the poison, they called to Mrs. Charles Thuma, who was out on the lake fishing. When she arrived on shore they told her what they had done. She started at once to send for a doctor, but was held by them as long as they had strength enough to do so. As soon as she got away she ran to her husband and he gave the alarm. This was about noon, and at two o'clock Dr. Stewart, of Springport, arrived with Mr. McEwen, the marshal of the village, and every effort was made to revive them, but with little effect. It is believed both Sanders and his wife will die, although there is some hope of saving the woman. Sanders for some years has been a thrasher, and is said to have run deeply in debt. He is about forty-five years old, and Mrs. Sanders, thirty-five. There are three children, aged fourteen, eight and five years.
