BAD RUNAWAY ON THE MARSH ROAD

Two women, who are inmates of a road house, met with a serious accident last night on the Marsh road. They were driving a spirited animal, which they seemed to have no control over. At one place on the road the horse shied at a sheet of paper and started to run away, before going far the carriage was overturned and its inmates thrown onto the road. One of the women was thrown on top of the other. The underneath one was badly cut about the head, and it is thought that her wrist was broken. The other woman had her ankle badly hurt, but was able to assist her companion to far feet. The horse was captured farther down the road, and the women afterwards drove back to the house, where they received medical attention.

FORTUNES IN WALKING STICKS.

The £370 which was paid the other day for an enamelled "enhancer" (walking-stick) of Louis VIII's reign was not a particularly big figure, all things considered, says Tit-Bits, for quite a usual price for these articles at the time they were in vogue was five thousand francs, or say £200, allowing for the difference between the value of money then and now.

Some of them, indeed, cost much more, being made of precious metal and jewelled. In England, too, similar articles were sold for large sums. A walking-stick which was made for a courier of Henry VIII which recently changed hands in London at the record price of £1,200, was of ebony, garnished with gold, and was furnished with a gold knob, inside which was a gem-encrusted snuff-box and a scent-bottle. The stick itself, too, was hollow, and contained, among other things, a set of gold "twitchees," a pair of compasses of gold, a foot rule of gold, and a whistle tipped with gold.

Napoleon paid £260 for a gold-mounted tortoiseshell cane. It is now in the possession of King Edward, who also owns a beautifully carved walking-

ASSOCIATION CABLES REGRETS TO ENGLAND

TORONTO, Sept. 4.—The Canadian Manufacturers Association have cabled regrets to Batley, Yorkshire, Chamber of Commerce in regard to the "Shoddy" article which appeared in Industrial Canada, and which incensed the British woolen manufacturers. G. M. Murray cabled as follows yesterday: "Chamber of Commerce, Batley, England: 'Canadian Manufacturers' Association sincerely regret any injustice that may have been done British woolen manufacturers by the publication of article in Industrial Canada reflecting on quality of Yorkshire wools.'"

Mr. Murray explained that the article complained of was a contributed one, and did not emanate from the association.

AFISH MONGER.

Mrs. Jones often declared that she really enjoyed a little chat with her fish monger because he was a man of such original ideas, but one day, says London Opinion, she returned from market somewhat puzzled by his remarks.

"I said to him, just in the way of conversation," declared Mrs. Jones, "that I had heard that a man becomes like that with which he most associates."

"That's ridiculous," Mrs. Jones' he answered. "I've been a fishmonger all my life and can't swim a yard."

stick that once belonged to "Bonnie Prince Charlie," for which he gave £160 at a recent sale of Stuart effects. This figure represents probably a sentimental value, as did certainly the £1,000 which Li Hung Chang offered General Gordon for the tiny regimental cane with which he directed the forward movements of his "ever-victorious army." Gordon, however, refused to sell it, or even to let it go out of his possession, and we see him represented today in Trafalgar Square with it still beneath his arm.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 4.—A meeting of the Liberals was held this evening at the Queen Hotel, which was largely attended. TWENTY-ONE CARS LEAP INTO DITCH

TORONTO, Sept. 4.—While the fast Grand Trunk Pacific freight train No. 1 was running down hill at Trenton this morning, the track of the first car broke and twenty-one cars were thrown into the ditch and their contents scattered. The cars took fire, and all except a car of whiskey were destroyed. While the whiskey escaped destruction by fire, the railway authorities say that before they could clear up the wreck at least a dozen cases were missing. No one was hurt.

A fire in the tower of the University building this afternoon caused some excitement, but the damage was very light.

FIRE DESTROYS NINE BUILDINGS

Village of St. Remi, P. Q., Visited by a Disastrous Blaze

MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—Fire this morning at St. Remi, a village of four thousand inhabitants, situated twenty miles from this city to the southwest, destroyed nine houses and stores, with a property loss estimated at $10,000. The fire originated in a four-story brick building occupied by L. P. LaSalle as a general store, at 6.20 this morning, and his loss alone is estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000. The residence and the drug store of Dr. Trudeau adjoining was also destroyed in short order. As the conflagration threatened the destruction of the entire village, Montreal was appealed to for assistance and sent a steamer and ten men to the scene. Owing to the inadequate water supply, however, the engine was practically useless, and recourse was had to the old-fashioned hand pumps, which did surprisingly good work under the circumstances, getting the fire under control about ten o'clock. All the buildings destroyed were fairly well covered by insurance.

AMUSEMENTS.

NICKEL TODAY AND MONDAY.

If good programmes will attract the lovers of such the Nickel ought to be public headquarters today and on the holiday, Monday, for the bills in both cases are beyond the ordinary in excellence. Take today, for instance, the school children will have a veritable feast of fun, music and fancy in Mr. Puz, the baby that was born homely and ugly and made handsome by the good fairy; What a Boy Can Do will appeal to all childish hearts, and the two other pictures will make them laugh long and loud. Then comes the greatest laugh of all The Hummerv Co. In A. Count of No Account, the talking picture play that has been making so much fun. Same show in the evening.

On Monday the most sensational picture play in existence, A Race for Millions, will be produced for the holiday crowd. In fact this great attraction has been held back especially for Labor Day patrons. The dialogue and action of this piece is of the most intense nature, being the story of a stolen Klondike claim and a hot chase to Dawson City to recover it, the villain fleeing on a special express, the hero in a racing automobile. All the realistic effects in the Nickel will be employed to add life and interest to this wonderful story. Four other pictures as well as two new songs. Doors open at 10 a. m. and close 10.30. Something doing all the time on the holiday.

THE PRINCESS VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.

The high class vaudeville being given at the Princess Theatre this week is attracting large and appreciative audiences. The only renowned lady magician that is performing today is Seky, and this clever artist of mystery is one of the best features at the Princess this season. There is an entire change of pictures today and these have been especially selected to make the Princess programme the best in the city. A faithful Porter is the title of a picture that is full of dramatic incidents. A Valuable Hat is a comedy drama, while A War Episode is a picture that presents a teaching scene during French war times. The Clock and the Coal Man is some rare comedy. In addition to the above programmes Madame Demby and Harry Newcombe will be heard in the latest illustrated songs. There will be a special matinee today for ladies and children, and Seky will appear at three and four o'clock.

THREE FEATURE PICTURES AT THE UNIQUE TODAY.

For those who are so fortunate as to have this afternoon of the Unique management have secured an especially fine programme. The pictures are so good that it is impossible to pick one out for a feature. The first picture is called The Renegade, and is a most interesting story of army life. Every moment is intensely interesting and full of exciting incidents. The second picture is entitled The Viking's Daughter. This is a very instructive picture, showing the manners and customs of the ancient Norsemen. The story told by this picture holds one's interest throughout. The last picture is a comedy called The Female Politician. All who enjoy a good laugh should see this picture. A woman who is nominated for mayor starts out to make a career. Her experience is funny beyond description. In the afternoon Miss Mae Power will sing that touching melody When the Evening Breeze is sighing Home Sweet Home, and Miss A. Outous 'Neath the Boughs of the Old Maple Tree. In the evening Miss Power will sing Vesta Victoria's great song, Poor John and Wm. Lanyon St. John's best tenor, Kalle, Darling, I am waiting. Watch for our big programme Monday.

COMING OF MISS DARLING.

The appearance of Miss Darling, the leading soprano singer of the Grand Opera Company which opens a week's engagement at the St. John Opera House the week of September 21, and who will sing at the opening ceremonies of the exhibition on Saturday evening next, September 13, is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest. Miss Darling possesses a voice of wonderful sweetness and she has created a mild sensation wherever she has been heard. She will sing several numbers at the St. John show. There will also be addresses by prominent public men, such as the Minister of Agriculture, the Minister of Public Works and the Premier of the province and others. The opening ceremonies will be held in the large amusement hall, and there will be no charge other than the admission fee to the exhibition grounds. Season ticket holders will also attend.

Every inch of space has been taken in the industrial building, and judging from the preparations being made the exhibits will be more attractive than at any previous show.

The entries for the carriage hall ensure that building being crowded to its utmost capacity, and the same applies to the poultry, horse, cattle, sheep, swine, agricultural, horticultural and dairy departments. Never in the history of the exhibition has there been such a demand for space and the only thing needed now to ensure the most successful fair ever held is fine weather, so that the crowds will pour into the city to see the greatest fair in eastern Canada. The dates are Sept. 12 to 19.

A PICTURE HOUSE HAPPENING WITHOUT PRECEDENT.

During the third show at the Bijou last night, while Miss Smith was singing the song that has made such a hit and on this occasion at the request of many of the Bijou patrons, she was presented with a beautiful bouquet, which was accepted with the true grace that has always marked this little lady both in manner and singing since she made her first appearance at this house. The management wish to inform the public that Miss Smith will be heard again today in this, one of the prettiest songs yet sung in this city. The Singer was Irish. Incidentally, as it does, many of the most popular Irish airs, which for sweetness are hard to beat, it is no wonder that people are enraptured with it. The picture programme at the Bijou is one of the best yet presented by this house; every picture new and up-to-date and never shown before. For good drama The Flight from Bergamo is one of great interest and instructive as to the doings of the Turk. For comedy The Fat Baby and The Fat Python belong to the hearty laugh order, and in The Little Peacemaker is seen a bit of really good drama. Then there's a picture showing the recent Harvard-Yale boat race. "Dave" Higgins is singing that funny song He Walked Right in and Turned Around with illustrations that cause much laughter.

LABOR DAY AT THE CEDAR.

Spared an hour at the Cedar Labor day. For the holiday the Cedar management have a bill of fare which is hard to beat. In addition to the usual did set of pictures they have re-engaged Al Dillon, the comedian, who made such a hit here a few weeks ago. They have also a new vocalist, who comes very highly recommended. A special show will be given Monday commencing at 10 o'clock and continuing until 12 o'clock. No increase in the price. The same old happy cents.

A GOOD SHOW AT FIVE HALP HOUSE.

The new programme at the Happy Half Hour drew the usual S. R. O. crowds yesterday, and, as promised, the programme was a splendid one. Miss Holmes delighted the audience with her singing of O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star, from Tannhauser. Mr. Buchanan sang Dolly Varden, a catchy number from the musical comedy Dolly Varden. Both singers, as usual, were encored. The Children's Floral Pets at Tullier's Garden is a splendid picture, and shows the many handsome floral floats that go to make one of the annual sights of Paris. None but children take part. Oh! Look at the Pretty Girl kept everybody laughing at the "rubber neck" in the picture. The Forester is a delightful comedy drama, and Love and War is a powerful romantic drama of the days of Napoleon. Prof. Titus sang What Might Have Been and Harry LaRue sang The Pride of the Prairie, both receiving generous applause. Parents should let their children see this show today, particularly Children's Floral Pets in Tullier's Garden. A special programme for Monday and Tuesday. Something good.

CHILD IS RUN OVER

AMHERST, Sept. 4.—The two-year-old child of B. B. Black, of the retail department of the Amherst Boot & Shoe Company, Ltd., was run over this afternoon by a cart containing a heavy load of hay, the two wheels passing over the wrist, crushing it so badly that the physician fears amputation may be necessary. The little one was on the street and was not noticed by the driver.

LOGICAL CONCLUSION.

First Burglar—Hark! I hear some one talking.
Second Burglar—What's he saying?
First Burglar—That he will never get on another house as long as he lives.
Second Burglar—Let's get out of this. No money here. He's lost every cent.—London Tit-Bits.
