

PROVINCIAL NEWS

MILLTOWN, N. B., Nov. 9.—Stephen Spaulding, living a few miles out of Milltown, N. B., a few days ago, aged 78 years, from an injury received while wrestling in a friendly way with Daniel Thurston, an old school mate of his own age.

Miss Zelma Woodcock, of Calais, and Alfred Richards of Portland were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Calais, on Wednesday, by the Rev. C. G. McCully. Miss Mabel Blanchard of Waterville was bridesmaid, and Martin Woodcock of Portland, the best man.

Mrs. Albert Robinson has returned home after several weeks' visiting her sisters in New York and Boston and other cities in the republic. Guy Hunter has gone to Seattle, Wash., where he will remain for some time.

It is stated here that Dr. Read of Centenary church, St. John, has accepted the invitation to St. Stephen's Methodist church for next conference.

While Alexander and Anna Day were falling a spruce tree in the lumber woods on the Kennebec, the branches caught a birch tree, bending it almost to the ground. It rebounded and struck Amos on the left side, breaking his hip and shoulder, and injuring his head. He was unconscious for twenty-four hours. He was driven to West Forks, where he died on the 25th October. He was a native of Tower Hill, Charlotte Co., N. B., to which place his remains were carried for interment.

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church held their fall supper last night and took in about $30.

HOPEWELL HILL, Nov. 8.—Russell C. Hubly of Sussex, one of the returned Trappist hermits, while in the village that he visited the superior school, where he gave a thrilling account of his experience at Thaurberg, Mr. Hubly formerly taught school at Albert. His friends in this county gave him a cordial welcome.

That newly discovered unusually high last night and today. The Hill dyke was badly broken and the marsh flooded. The main road at the "Rocks" was overflowed.

John W. Peck of Annapolis county, N. S., visited his former home here this week. Capt. James Doherty, first officer of the bark W. W. McLaughlin, now at Annapolis, is visiting his old home at Chemical road.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 9.—Two young men, Frank Watts and Frank McManis, well known about the week, were captured last night by Officers O'Neill and Ridout, while attempting to enter the Klondike, M. Fickler & Co's store. They had gained access to the cellar and were attempting to force a passage through a trap door which led to the main store when the noise attracted the attention of a colored woman who lived near and who gave the alarm. It is said that evidence will be forthcoming which will connect the young men arrested with at least one of the many burglaries which have been committed in this city during the past few weeks.

Joseph Pollock, a well known resident of this city, was found dead in his bed last night. Heart disease was the cause. Deceased was a native of the parish of Mansuetudo but had resided here for many years. He was 57 years old and leaves a son and two daughters.

Rev. Dr. McLeod was burned in effigy at Marysville last night by a number of Mr. McLeod's supporters.

BENTON, Carleton Co., Nov. 10.—The funeral of the late Henry Moxon took place yesterday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Clark, pastor of the Woodstock F. B. church. Mr. Moxon was a native of Nova Scotia, but was an old and highly respected resident and one of the most successful farmers of this vicinity. Owing to failing health he disposed of his fine property here about a year ago, and moved to Woodstock after which his health gradually gave way. He leaves a wife, three sons, three daughters and twelve grandchildren. His sons are Isaac and Samuel of California and Richard of Massachusetts. His daughters are Mrs. Oliver Hoemphill of Richmond, Carleton Co.; Mrs. Fred Hayden and Mrs. Geo. Little of Woodstock. The pall-bearers were: James McKenney, James Edwards, Daniel McMillin and Jonathan Smith. His remains were interred in the Benton cemetery in the presence of a large number of sympathetic friends.

On Wednesday as Colwell, the four-year-old son of John Bulger, was playing on the C. P. E. station, where his father was at work, he fell, striking on one of the rails, which resulted in a broken arm. Dr. Saunders was summoned.

A thank offering service was held at Oak Mountain church on Sunday evening, under the auspices of the W. F. M. Society. It was well attended and proved a success.

Clie Blackie and Mr. Secord, both of Lowell, Mass., are visiting Andrew Blackie in this city.

RICHBUCK, Nov. 10.—Sheriff Leger opened his declaration court at two o'clock. Previous to his declaration Geo. V. McInerney made the objection that not one of the ballots used in the election had the stubs numbered as the law required.

O. J. Leblanc received 2,477 votes and Geo. V. McInerney 1,816. Mr. Leblanc addressed the electors briefly. Mr. McInerney thanked the people for the vote he received and also for the hospitality shown him in all parts of the county during the campaign. He said he appeared before them probably for the last time. He had already received an offer of three seats, but he would take time to consider.

MISSING CLERK'S BODY FOUND. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Two bodies were taken from the ruins of the Tarrant building today. The first was that of Hamilton Mathew, a driver. The second was that of a man whose name was not given. The bodies were found in the remains were being excavated.

The second body was that of Benj. Moorehouse, the missing shipping and stock clerk of the company. Moorehouse was 33 years old and had been missing since the day of the explosion. With him in all probability died also all possibility of explaining the fire. The bodies were taken from the storage books of the big drug firm in which was a list of all the explosives stored in the building.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Jerry Lynch, aged 72, the last survivor of the crew of the Confederate battleship Alabama, died at his residence in Innes park today. He left a large estate.

P. G. MASTER PITTS

Pays His Compliments to Orange Grand Master McArthur.

Hunted from One County to Another: Some Experiences Mr. McArthur Would Not Care to Repeat.

The Fredericton Reporter says, under the head: The Way of the Transgressor is Hard: One of the amusing incidents of the campaign has been the peregrinations of Orange Grand Master P. G. McArthur, of St. John. Mr. McArthur is a deflection from the liberal conservative ranks, and an acquisition to the liberal party.

His conversion was so sudden as to cause considerable comment in the press, and was in such close proximity to the securing of a much desired contract by his brother to build a round house, or some other building on the I. C. R., that it was asserted that D. McArthur's deflection was in a large measure traceable to this source.

As a matter of fact the rapid change of views of this gentleman would hardly receive a passing notice were it not for the fact that some months ago the Orange party of this province elected him to the chair of the Grand Lodge, and after the change of heart, there seemed to be a burning call upon his part to take the stump and denounce all members of the society that were not prepared to accept the liberal transit policy, minus round houses and perquisites.

Mr. McArthur started his campaign somewhere about Golden Grove, St. John. At this meeting reliable information is to the effect that the revival did not progress very favorably. The St. John liberal organizers some way began to doubt the wisdom of being identified with it, and suggested Kings Co. as a good field for such a crusade. One meeting at Hampton convinced Mr. Donville's friends that there was a mistake somewhere, and McArthur was hurriedly called off and transported to York.

No doubt there was a good deal of fun in connection with the visits to the other counties, but the general feeling that for the short time he was allowed to run loose in York, there was more fun for the conservatives, and more discomfiture and agony among the liberals than in any campaign since confederation. It began in the liberal committee meeting on Wednesday afternoon, when in a rambling speech of an hour or so he about broke up the meeting, and the crusade closed in Gibson the same evening in a Hallows' Eve racket that gentleman would hardly like to repeat at ten dollars a night and expenses. The fulsome laments of Mr. Tarte, the personal reflections upon Orangemen who were present for the purpose of listening to the new convert to Tartarism and the accounts of the small boys in the library seats were too much for the gentleman who came labeled by all the grit newspapers as the Orange grand master, who was to go to all the Orange districts and convert the brethren to Tartarism, Laurier, et al.

The Annapolis telegram from Charlotte county, made up in the Queen hotel on Wednesday night after the meeting, called him to that county to talk to the Roman Catholics there, with a suggestion to drop off at Cork on the way. All arrangements in York were promptly cancelled and now it is exit McArthur.

PROVINCIAL S. S. ASSOCIATION. (For the Sun.)

The Provincial Sunday School association executive closed Thursday evening its first general executive meeting in the parlor of Germain street Baptist church. Never did it have one of clearer plan and more earnest purpose. The meeting was an adjournment from Nov. 3rd, when Geo. Archibald, an invitation, met with them, and said he never saw business carried out so thoroughly, each accepting earnestly the work allotted to him. The work of the year was well reviewed and divided up among sub-committees, who will report in January and other regular executive meetings. There have been some changes in the officers. E. M. McArthur is the treasurer and Rev. T. F. Fotheringham becomes superintendent of normal class work. Mrs. T. H. Bullock is superintendent of the new temperance department. Miss MacIntyre is the recording secretary. Mrs. N. C. Scott had to decline the primary work and Miss E. M. Trimble becomes superintendent of that department. R. G. Haley is again chairman, but all agreed to see T. S. Simms again present with his deep interest and wise counsel.

Among the new steps is that of a Sunday school tour, in which members of committee and others chosen by the meeting are to attend the county conventions in the summer. Every possible effort will be made to come to the provincial convention at Fredericton next October to review a year of splendid work.

WINTER STEAMERS COMING. Messrs. Schofield & Co. have informed the Star that in order to prevent detaining their steamers in Glasgow, the Donaldson line completed arrangements this morning for their first two steamers, the Atchafalaya and Cordoba, to be loaded here with grain from the Intercolonial railway and deals from Mr. Mackay, in hopes that before the following steamers have to be arranged for the difficulty between the government and the Canadian Pacific railway may be settled in some way whereby that railway will continue their business here this coming winter as heretofore, in which event

THE MARKETS.

Revised Every Monday for the Semi-Weekly Sun.

ST. JOHN MARKETS. (Wholesale Prices.)

Table listing market prices for various goods including Canadian beef, mutton, veal, butter, and other commodities.

Table listing market prices for fish including cod, haddock, mackerel, and other species.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

(Chatham Advance.)

The Rev. J. B. DeWolfe, M. A., organizing secretary of the diocese of Fredericton, assisted the rector of St. Paul's at the services of Sunday last, and delivered able and instructive sermons bearing upon the mission work of the diocese.

Mr. Cowie also addressed the children of St. Mary's Sunday school in the school room on Sunday afternoon. In his sermons and addresses the organizing secretary set forth in a forcible and interesting manner the claims of diocesan missions upon the general and liberal support of church people throughout the diocese and pointed out the reasons for the withdrawal of aid which had been so long given to the diocese from the mother land. He showed also that it was necessary that by increased contributions from the diocese the unavoidable shrinkage of income from the invested funds of the diocese should be given to the diocese. Mr. Cowie eloquently urged the claims of the mission field upon the attention of Christian people, and we are glad to learn that he is meeting with great encouragement in the prosecution of his mission work. A cheerful response was made at last Sunday's services to his appeal for contributions to diocesan missions, and the amount, including additional contributions at a highly interesting and interesting meeting, was $40. This does not include contributions from St. Paul's congregation, which may be made at any convenient time. Mrs. Cowie's address on Monday evening in the school room of the school room on Monday evening, was $40. This does not include contributions from St. Paul's congregation, which may be made at any convenient time.

STABBING AFFRAY.

A Bloody Fracas at Oromocto—A Constable and Brother Stabbed. (Gleaner, Thursday.)

William Poor, a well known resident of Oromocto, this morning laid information against one Martin Cogswell of the same place charging him with assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm. Mr. Poor was in the city today and he gave particulars of a fracas, which resulted in his making the above charge. His story is substantially as follows. Yesterday at Oromocto Herbert Cogswell and Phillip Goodine became involved in a war of words over election matters. The dispute took place in front of Wm. Poor's residence, who is a constable. Words led to blows, and the two men were engaged in a struggle. Mr. Poor, in his official capacity, commanded peace and the separation of the combatants. At this he was set upon by Martin Cogswell, brother of one of the combatants, and the scuffle which ensued. Mr. Poor was stabbed in the abdomen. The wound, however, was only skin deep, the jack knife, which was the weapon used, not being long enough in the blade to do much damage after penetration. The wound was treated with a coat of vasoline and two heavy woolen shirts. Mr. Poor shouted for help, that he was stabbed. His brother, Alfred, came to his assistance, and in the altercation which ensued, sustaining a severe wound in the left arm. The wound was evidently made by a knife. An ugly wound it was, in which Dr. Peake found it necessary to take several stitches. The victim 'lost much blood, and Mr. Poor says if it had not been for the first wound he took, assisted by his brother, who is a large, able-bodied man there would have been serious trouble, as the crowd was in a state of wild-fury, the Cogswells having been provoking fight all day.

FLOUR, ETC.

Table listing prices for flour, meal, and other grain products.

FRUITS, ETC.

Table listing prices for various fruits and produce.

GRAIN, ETC.

Table listing prices for various grains and other agricultural products.

THE MARKETS.

Revised Every Monday for the Semi-Weekly Sun.

ST. JOHN MARKETS. (Wholesale Prices.)

Table listing market prices for various goods including Canadian beef, mutton, veal, butter, and other commodities.

Table listing market prices for fish including cod, haddock, mackerel, and other species.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

(Chatham Advance.)

The Rev. J. B. DeWolfe, M. A., organizing secretary of the diocese of Fredericton, assisted the rector of St. Paul's at the services of Sunday last, and delivered able and instructive sermons bearing upon the mission work of the diocese.

Mr. Cowie also addressed the children of St. Mary's Sunday school in the school room on Sunday afternoon. In his sermons and addresses the organizing secretary set forth in a forcible and interesting manner the claims of diocesan missions upon the general and liberal support of church people throughout the diocese and pointed out the reasons for the withdrawal of aid which had been so long given to the diocese from the mother land. He showed also that it was necessary that by increased contributions from the diocese the unavoidable shrinkage of income from the invested funds of the diocese should be given to the diocese. Mr. Cowie eloquently urged the claims of the mission field upon the attention of Christian people, and we are glad to learn that he is meeting with great encouragement in the prosecution of his mission work. A cheerful response was made at last Sunday's services to his appeal for contributions to diocesan missions, and the amount, including additional contributions at a highly interesting and interesting meeting, was $40. This does not include contributions from St. Paul's congregation, which may be made at any convenient time. Mrs. Cowie's address on Monday evening in the school room of the school room on Monday evening, was $40. This does not include contributions from St. Paul's congregation, which may be made at any convenient time.

STABBING AFFRAY.

A Bloody Fracas at Oromocto—A Constable and Brother Stabbed. (Gleaner, Thursday.)

William Poor, a well known resident of Oromocto, this morning laid information against one Martin Cogswell of the same place charging him with assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm. Mr. Poor was in the city today and he gave particulars of a fracas, which resulted in his making the above charge. His story is substantially as follows. Yesterday at Oromocto Herbert Cogswell and Phillip Goodine became involved in a war of words over election matters. The dispute took place in front of Wm. Poor's residence, who is a constable. Words led to blows, and the two men were engaged in a struggle. Mr. Poor, in his official capacity, commanded peace and the separation of the combatants. At this he was set upon by Martin Cogswell, brother of one of the combatants, and the scuffle which ensued. Mr. Poor was stabbed in the abdomen. The wound, however, was only skin deep, the jack knife, which was the weapon used, not being long enough in the blade to do much damage after penetration. The wound was treated with a coat of vasoline and two heavy woolen shirts. Mr. Poor shouted for help, that he was stabbed. His brother, Alfred, came to his assistance, and in the altercation which ensued, sustaining a severe wound in the left arm. The wound was evidently made by a knife. An ugly wound it was, in which Dr. Peake found it necessary to take several stitches. The victim 'lost much blood, and Mr. Poor says if it had not been for the first wound he took, assisted by his brother, who is a large, able-bodied man there would have been serious trouble, as the crowd was in a state of wild-fury, the Cogswells having been provoking fight all day.

FLOUR, ETC.

Table listing prices for flour, meal, and other grain products.

FRUITS, ETC.

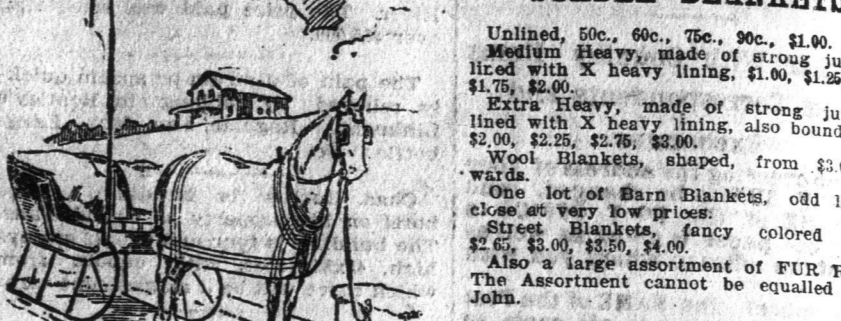

Table listing prices for various fruits and produce.

GRAIN, ETC.

Table listing prices for various grains and other agricultural products.

Horse Clothing.

STABLE BLANKETS

H. HORTON & SON, 11 Market Square, St. John, N. B.

FREE! SEND NO MONEY

FREE! SEND NO MONEY

SCHOONER WRECKED.

Myra S. Weaver Lost and Six Persons Drowned.

Four Survivors Rescued by a Passing Steamer—Wrecked Schooner Wawbeek Sold.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The three-masted schooner Myra S. Weaver was wrecked in Vineyard Sound early this morning and six lives were lost.

The names of those who perished are: Captain R. S. Vannaman of Philadelphia, aged about 35; Steward Wm. Petersen, married, residing in New Orleans; Chas. Magnusson, single, of Bergen, Norway; John Hejman of Aland, Finland; Miss Mary Emerson, aged about 23, of Mobile; Miss Ella Bebo, aged 15, also of Mobile.

Miss Emerson was a sister-in-law of the captain and Miss Bebo was her niece. Str. City of Macon, Capt. Savage, rescued the four survivors while on the way here from New York.

The saved man are: First Mate John Kearney of Calais, Me.; Second Mate Rasmussen, and Seaman Geo. Johnson and Axel Ogza.

The Weaver left Ferdinandia, Fla., Oct. 16, with a cargo of 426,000 feet of pine lumber, part of which was carried on deck. From the very outset, weather of great severity was encountered. At 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon the schooner anchored six miles west of the Handkerchief, in Vineyard Sound. At nightfall it was blowing almost a hurricane. That night the passengers and crew were ordered to lash themselves to the rigging. The force of the wind and waves swayed the vessel in a terrible manner, and finally she parted her heavy anchor chains almost simultaneously and began to drift.

The terrible situation had its effect on Miss Emerson, and she finally grew weaker from exhaustion and fright, until her lifeless body hung by the lashings in the rigging. The action of the waves soon tore the clothing from the remains.

At 3:30 a. m. the schooner struck on Handkerchief Shoal and with an awful lurch capsized and lay with her starboard side and three masts under water. The mate was plunged beneath the waves, but succeeded in clinging to the mast. The captain and little girl, the steward and the two members of the crew, Magnusson and Holman, were drowned.

The deck cargo of lumber was flying all about, and Second Mate Olsen received severe injuries to both hands by having them crushed between pieces of lumber.

First Mate Kearney, after an almost superhuman effort, succeeded in reaching a position near the mizenmast by jumping upon the boards which formed part of the deckload. Here the four men held on for over an hour, when the City of Macon, in sight, and rescued them after two hours' hard work in small boats.

The Myra S. Weaver was a three-masted schooner of 498 tons net, 524 tons gross, and valued at $25,000. It was insured by the Merchants' Mutual.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The wrecked British schooner Wawbeek was sold at auction at East Boston at noon today by U. S. Deputy Marshal May Donald, to the Red Star Towing and Wrecking Co. for $70. The wreck is not considered worth repairing even for use as a lighter. She probably will be stripped and her gear and hull disposed of.

The Wawbeek was bound from this port to Hillsboro in ballast, when she sprang a leak Oct. 9, and the following day the vessel capsized off Eastern Point. Hadley Edgett, the captain's son, was drowned. The wreck was afterwards picked up by tugs belonging to the Red Star Towing and Wrecking Co. and towed into port.

SCHOONER ASHORE.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Nov. 8.—The 77-ton schooner John F. Fiske, Capt. William Nutt, owned by J. Gordon Hicks of Rockport, Me., is ashore and on fire in Little Cove, and will be a total loss. The vessel and cargo are valued at $2,000, there being $100,000 of insurance. The fire broke out on Tuesday night with 1,150 barrels of lime, and after discharging 250 barrels of lime, the remainder of the cargo took fire. An unsuccessful attempt was made to smother the fire, and the schooner was abandoned this afternoon. After being stripped of her rigging the schooner was abandoned and will undoubtedly be a total loss by tomorrow morning.

Zere Semon, the noted magician, says he is about to build a theatre in Sydney.

DECLARATION

Trueman meant to named had public religious attacks.

Mr. Foster replied in public or private encouraged any such public record as of a statement being introduced by the Foster was proceeding question when said "Tell us about Sa..."

"That is a simple allium, to put it when a great nation discussed," said Mr. W. H. Trueman—

Mr. Foster said that Mr. Schofield to the sailing of the ship.

C. B. Leckhart—

Mr. Foster—"That between Mr. Schofield have believed the a gentleman, and it to make against a gentleman to say lying, for that is to charge. If Mr. Trueman knew the not telling the truth come to the campaign and say so, until it is all over, to make such an a..."

Mr. Foster, continued he had never public was for debate down.

He concluded by supporters and by body of the people courteous treatment of the many anxious days him. In that respect his compensations, right to be joyful, time the liberal party of power, and Blair would have Lantana and other John.

Mr. Blair—"I am talum's support," Hon. A. G. Blair and claimed that there was no agreement held him from making the race and the minister there, considerable length, little or no part in it. That provin public questions on decided accordingly, the race and the liberal party had so by such appeals, Co. to such a case.

A voice—Yes.

Mr. Blair—When a general campaign slogan "Beware the French Ontario!"

Hon. Mr. Blair—long ago, and the Hon. A. G. Blair, Proceeding, he had this province there, paganda of Protest, olices, conducted s. Foster must be aware the province and parties and would tion to the raving party. (Applause.)

charges of Mr. Foster dropped when the day of the meeting, the contingent to s. contradictory these hand was a compla ment had given no for the race and the fault was found he ture was not made waiting to ascertain country. It was just as this, charging on of the country, and victory in another, tive party had soug or, but had failed said a conservative not have waited fr side of the contest tinger. Why did of the same hate in sity for the winter then returned to t with it at some le...

Hon. Mr. Foster nomination which for the purpose of, hastily retired, acc McAlpine and a n... porters.

Mr. Foster then p for the race and the case and the action of the railway case there cept that an electio Bonaventure count the railway ran dropped when the the sending of the matter of imperial action was needed i... ies to demonstrate they could not take struggle in which gaged. The minister had proof of the st Mr. Schofield in his he run away from without producing i...

Dealing with the cry, he said he had tract from Pacadu's sake of raising it, had been raised by Mr. Blair was to d... he had a right to d... he should be cond... of the ministers w... their actions were... were said against... or honesty, that s... turned to his fol... and excused... abuse no because i... one of yourselves," should ignore all the deal with public o... merits. If a public... and excused... ish or French, Cath... Mr. Foster deliver dress, closing about...

HALEPOND, Kings... heavy southern... last night all clear

Advertisement for Dr. J. H. Ryan, featuring 'SUSSEX' and 'SOLID GOLD' products, with a portrait of a man and text describing the benefits of the medicine.