

MARRY GATHER FOR TODAY'S INAUGURATION Distinguished Gathering at Hanover For Dr. Nichols Inaugural — Ambassador Bryce Present.

Hanover, N. H., Oct. 13.—Upon the time-revered campus of old Dartmouth, guarded by the same towering mountain sentinels which a hundred and forty years ago looked down upon a wilderness of forest and plain and saw a little band of white and Indian students studying their classics and philosophy by the light of pine knots, there thronged tonight a host of distinguished men of learning, academics, theologians and kings of finance and industry, as well as hundreds of prominent graduates of the college, all come to witness the inauguration into office tomorrow of a leading scientist, Dr. Ernest Fox Nichols, as the tenth president of Dartmouth College.

PROFESSIONAL BETTING SHOULD BE MADE A CRIME

Committee Of General Synod On Moral And Social Reform Pass Strong Resolutions—Other Business Transacted.

Yesterday the sessions of the committees of the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada were continued in Trinity church. In the morning an address of welcome was presented to the Primate of Canada and the House of Bishops by the executive committee of the Diocese of Fredericton. A meeting of the Sunday school commission and the House of Bishops was held in the afternoon.

COUNTY COURT TO REJOURN IN ALBERT

The following letter from Mr. Justice Wedderburn to the High Sheriff of Albert County, sufficiently explains itself, and is published for the benefit of all whom it may concern.—

MISS CHALEFOUR ON STAND DENIES ALL KNOWLEDGE OF IMPROPER TREATMENT EXTENDED TO HER BY SIR FREDERICK BORDEN TELLS OF HER ILLNESS WHICH SHE DESCRIBES AS PERITONITIS—MISS ARCHANBAULT MAKES UNWILLING DISCLOSURES.

(Continued From Page 1.) mark that the sheriff should clear the court if he could not get order. The witness said that constables were there already. Orders were given to arrest the next offender.

"No," one of those letters was written by me, she said. Every time she said a letter was mine, I told a lie, and I told it under oath. I never wrote such trash. My signature is always on my letters. I acknowledge no letter without my flinging the papers to the floor she said she had sworn they were hers in sarcasm. To Judge Drysdale she recalled her statements that she had lied.

"Do you notice the postmark is Jacksonville?" "It looks like that don't it," was the answer. "It was there at that time. The letter is not in my hand writing."

Each successive letter was reproduced in turn. Miss Chalefour said she had been in New Orleans before going to Jacksonville. She first said she was there a year. Then she said it was in Louisiana. A letter produced by her, witness saying that the writing looked like her mother's.

"I don't want to get you into trouble," said Mr. Ritchie. "You need not worry about getting me into trouble," was the reply.

At this point a jurymen left the room and the proceedings were held up a quarter of an hour. During the interval Miss Chalefour called Mr. Wickwire to her and talked with him.

A bill for nursing in which a charge for delivery $20, was produced. It was Miss Chalefour jumped up and secured it. She said the doctor did not know what was the matter with her. He had said she had valvular disease of the heart and peritonitis. The doctors did not know what ailed her.

The stenographers' table was literally piled with letters repudiated by witness and still she protested that she knew nothing of the letters. With alternate smiles and gestures of defiance she repudiated the letters which were in turn initialed and filed. Witness said she was in Crowley near New Orleans two years ago. She swore she was not in Crowley in April in spite of a letter exhibited.

The photograph of the witness exhibited in the morning was handed to witness. It was taken at Crowley. Witness seized it and tore it to pieces before she could be prevented from doing so. "I am not going to have my mother have my photograph."

Miss Chalefour was not repentant Judge Drysdale told her of the enormity of the offence of destroying her own letters. She met act differently, he said, or he would have to send her below.

"I hardly know what to do with you," said his lordship. "I am not on trial," said Miss Chalefour, rising to her feet in anger. "I'm here to give evidence, gentlemen," she said, stretching out her arms. "I fall to see why my private letters have been brought into court and given to the public. I have said on my oath that Sir Frederick Borden was talking to do with me."

Mr. Ritchie called attention again to the improprieties of the witness's actions. His lordship said she would say it before the jury. She placed her in custody and adjourn the court. Another letter was handed to witness, she promising not to tear it up. It was from Jacksonville. She referred to the picture she had just torn up. "Charlie and Elsie mentioned it in even her cousins, the letter was not from her."

"Yes, they are all lies. I have been caught in lies, sure. Great evidence you got," she said. The court adjourned at 5 o'clock amid scenes of great excitement. Crowds discussed the sensational developments of the streets and everywhere it was the all-absorbing topic.

Kentville, N. S., Oct. 13.—At the opening session of the evidence, the woman alleged to have been taken from her husband by Sir Frederick Borden was among those present.

At the opening of the morning session the question of the admissibility of evidence was argued by Messrs. Ritchie and Roscoe, K. C. Mr. Justice Drysdale said that he had found the rule to be the same in civil as in criminal cases. He would follow the civil procedure and the admissions of Sir Frederick Borden would have proved in the regular way. That would not be received in evidence from Mrs. Allison was the effect of his decision.

Went to Montreal. To Mr. Ritchie, Mrs. Allison said her daughter went to Montreal June 1896. A week after Sir Frederick left her house. In the interval she had had two conversations with him. Sir Frederick went to Montreal nearly every week after her daughter went to Montreal (objection). Mrs. Allison said a cab called for Sir Frederick on the last Saturday in August.

An attempt to introduce the conversation at this time failed. A telegram from the daughter to Sir Frederick was not admitted. The notice that it was to be introduced not having been given.

Eye Opener in Evidence. Handing Mrs. Allison the copy of the Eye Opener put in evidence, Mrs. Allison said she had seen her daughter about four times in Montreal. She had seen her in September last in Baltimore. The daughter returned to her home over Sunday and searched for the telegram a week after it was given. (Mrs. Allison) had found it.

Here again an objection was raised by Mr. Roscoe and the information sought could not be elicited.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF SIR FREDERICK AND DAUGHTER IDENTIFIED BY THE WITNESS

The non-jury case of Margaret Sullivan vs. John McNamee, the last case on the docket, was heard at the adjourned session of the September Circuit Court which opened in the Equity Chambers yesterday morning.

HEARING YESTERDAY IN CIRCUIT COURT.

The non-jury case of Margaret Sullivan vs. John McNamee, the last case on the docket, was heard at the adjourned session of the September Circuit Court which opened in the Equity Chambers yesterday morning.

The action is for trespass to land in the Parish of Simonds, on which the plaintiff's land, belonging to the defendant, was situated. The plaintiff alleges that about February last the defendant entered upon the land in question and set down and hauled away trees and stumps.

The defendant, in his plea, says that the land does not belong to the plaintiff, and at the time of the alleged trespass was in the possession of Josephine McGill and Maria Sharkey, and that he (the defendant) committed the alleged trespass as a servant of the owners.

Mr. N. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Morning Session. In opening Mr. Skinner for the defendant said that the question of the trespass was not disputed, but the title of the land was the real point in issue. The plaintiff was in a position to produce deeds showing her title to the property. Also he would claim by possession as the plaintiff had been in possession for over twenty years.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Mr. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather for the defendant. The proceedings at both sessions were on the merits. The evidence was also amassing at times.

Rev. Canon Tucker in Stirring Address, Pictures Militant China Defying The World—Three Well-Attended Missionary Meetings Last Evening Addressed by Primate Of Canada And Other Dignitaries Of The Church.

St. John people were given an opportunity last evening at three public missionary meetings, to hear a number of the distinguished churchmen attending the General Synod committee meetings being held in the city, and in all cases, large crowds availed themselves of the privilege.

The meetings were held in St. John's school room, St. George's church, Carleton, and St. Luke's school house, Fredericton.

Archbishop Matheson, Primate of all Canada, spoke at the St. John's meeting and predicted a great Empire for the Church in the future. He spoke of the work in the foreign field, paying particular attention to the opening in China. This great mission had 96 other dioceses, and was not to have a competitor. Missionary work would remove the menace of the yellow peril.

In St. John's School. Bishop Richardson presided at the meeting in St. John's school room and had with him on the platform a distinguished gathering of bishops and prelates. Archbishop Matheson presided at the meeting in St. George's church, and Bishop Sweeney, of Toronto and Canon N. L. Tucker were the speakers.

Archbishop Hamilton of Ottawa, was also present, presiding at the meeting in St. Luke's school room. The Bishop of Fredericton presided at the meeting in St. Luke's school room and had with him on the platform a distinguished gathering of bishops and prelates.

Canon Tucker. Canon Tucker answered the people who said they did not believe in missions. He said that the fundamental principles that God was working in the world, that Christ came to save all men and that the Holy Spirit was the comforter of every one, missions could stand for themselves before any intelligent audience.

Under the old order of things if a clergyman did not get along in his parish or in his diocese, he was sent to the mission field. He was sent to the mission field to save all men and that the Holy Spirit was the comforter of every one, missions could stand for themselves before any intelligent audience.

After referring to the comparatively small amount of money raised for missions, Canon Tucker closed with an eloquent appeal for the work in China. The Chinese were, he said, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

Mr. Powell—Well we will see what the visions are. Mr. Powell continuing—Both my associates and I are informed by Mr. Powell that the Chinese are, in fact, the best specimen of mankind in mind and body of any nation in the world. They worked all day and part of the night, uncomplacently, and only a little rice for food. They were 400,000,000 of them, one quarter of the human race and one half of the heathen people on earth, as many as the entire Christian population of the world.

WILL AUTHOR PLAY PROVE HIS PLAY RE COMING LITIGATION

London, Oct. 13.—Everybody heard of J. M. Barrie, the Scottish author who became a titan of plays. He wrote the Little Nipper, Peter Pan, and "What Every Woman Knows."

WHAT WILL BE THE DENIER PROCEEDING REMARKABLE PARADE

London, Oct. 13.—Everybody heard of J. M. Barrie, the Scottish author who became a titan of plays. He wrote the Little Nipper, Peter Pan, and "What Every Woman Knows."

MONEY MAKER WINS OUT AT NORTH SYDNEY

North Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 12.—The exhibition and horse races here were attended by a crowd of over five thousand visitors today and the town assumed a general holiday appearance.

Special To The Standard.

North Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 12.—The exhibition and horse races here were attended by a crowd of over five thousand visitors today and the town assumed a general holiday appearance.

Special To The Standard.

North Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 12.—The exhibition and horse races here were attended by a crowd of over five thousand visitors today and the town assumed a general holiday appearance.

Special To The Standard.

North Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 12.—The exhibition and horse races here were attended by a crowd of over five thousand visitors today and the town assumed a general holiday appearance.

Special To The Standard.

North Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 12.—The exhibition and horse races here were attended by a crowd of over five thousand visitors today and the town assumed a general holiday appearance.

Special To The Standard.

North Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 12.—The exhibition and horse races here were attended by a crowd of over five thousand visitors today and the town assumed a general holiday appearance.

Special To The Standard.

North Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 12.—The exhibition and horse races here were attended by a crowd of over five thousand visitors today and the town assumed a general holiday appearance.