He expects to collect such a commanding lead in the English style of play and to hold Hoppe so safe in the balking games that he will win beyond question of doubt.

GERMAN YACHT DETAINED

MACK AND TEAM NOT WORRYING

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Connie Mack, the tall Philadelphia tactician, roamed into this city this morning, coming from the direction of Cleveland. At Connie's heels came a score of sturdy young men, who when not engaged in the clipping of coupons indulge in the business of pennant-making under the name of Athletics.

Mack and his men are here for the express purpose of padding their win column at the expense of Callahan's White Sox. Mack visited the American League headquarters, where he discussed current topics with Pres. B. B. Johnson and answered queries broadsided by an anxious interviewer. "What do you think of the Red Sox?" was asked.

"They are all right," was Connie's reply.

"Are you or your men worrying over the way your lead has been cut down?"

"I guess not. Worry will not win ball games."

"The Red Sox have been playing good ball."

"Yes."

"You are 5 1/2 games ahead of the Red Sox."

"Of course you expect to win out?"

"We expect to be in at the finish."

"Baseball is uncertain."

"Yes, I always figure my opponent has a chance. I know the Red Sox feel the same way about it. They are going to make a play right up to the last game. We will do the same."
