A CURE FOR TRENCH FEET ARE NICE DRY SOCKS. But to have "dry socks" we must have wool, and to have wool, we must have money. Owing to the fact that yarn is more than double the original price, the S. C. A. must call on the public for assistance. Cash donations will be gratefully acknowledged and sent to the treasurer, Mrs. J. Walter Holly, No. 184 Germain St. A generous response is hoped for.

ST. JOHN MAN MISSING. Mrs. John Breen, 833 Main street, has received word that her son, Pte. Leonard Breen, is reported wounded and missing on Nov. 6. Previous to his enlistment Pte. Breen was employed by Mr. C. H. Jackson, King Square. When the 104th was formed he signed on with that unit, but was later transferred to another N. B. unit. His brother, Pte. Albert Breen, of the original 26th, made the supreme sacrifice in the battle of the Somme, October 2nd, 1916.

THREE HORSES LOST. Three horses which were being sent to Halifax to help in the relief work there, escaped from the cattle pen at Gilbert's Lane last night about ten o'clock and it is supposed are somewhere in Rockwood Park. The horses which were being forwarded by the Dominion Express Company, arrived in the city on Thursday and were placed in the cattle pen to be shipped out last night at 11:30. It is not known by what means they got out of the pen and any person seeing them will please notify Mr. McLaughlin at the Gilbert's Lane crossing.

HALIFAX RELIEF. A meeting of the Halifax relief committee and the executive of the Victory Loan was held yesterday morning in the office of Mayor Hayes. He reported that contributions to date totalled roughly $40,000. The committee expressed the opinion that the city's contribution should be at least $20,000 and suggested a city grant to make up the difference between the voluntary subscriptions and that amount, about $20,000. It was decided to pay the bills for the goods shipped the first week of the disaster and send the balance forward in cash.

FRANK HIGGINS, MURDERER, OBJECTS TO TAKING THE HUMAN LIFE AND EYES EXEMPTING PAPERS

Is Now Serving Life Sentence in Dorchester for Killing Doherty—Says His Appeal is Based on Articles of Faith in His Religious Denomination—Other Exemption Cases of Interest.

"Because I belong to a religious denomination, the articles of faith of which will not permit in the taking of human blood." Such was the reason advanced by Frank Higgins, the murderer of young Doherty, in his exemption claim filed with the registrar for the province. Higgins is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for the crime, and along with the other prisoners was given the papers provided under the Military Service Act to be filled out. This is without a doubt the most unique and apparently illogical reason for exemption thus far advanced in the Dominion of Canada.

Higgins was a member of the Tan-y-draig Gang. This was a party of boys whose activities were mostly of a criminal nature. They had a record of thefts charged against them, and for years the gang was a nuisance to the community in which they lived and carried on their nefarious work. The murder of young Doherty, one of the party, was a murder of the police department. According to the evidence adduced at the trial of Higgins, the boys started for Lily Lake to pick berries. While Doherty was walking alone, Higgins drew a revolver and shot Doherty through the back three times. It is thought the reason for the murder was a dispute over the dividing of spoils which had been stolen shortly before the fatal day, and the fear that Doherty would inform on Higgins.

The murder was committed in June, 1917, and attracted considerable attention. Higgins was at the time but 16 years of age, and during his trial showed not the least sign of guilt. It was proven conclusively, however, that he deliberately shot his friend and companion. As it is not likely that he will ever see the outside of the penitentiary walls, his exemption claim will not come up in this province. Another rather ludicrous claim was filed by a colored man who is serving a five year term. He says, "I have no special reason, but I just don't care to go." It is to be hoped, however, that ere his time for liberty arrives the war will have been won by the Allies.

Following this claim was another, different in style but most interesting. A man who was convicted of a rather serious crime was given five years. Prior to his conviction he had a wife and a child. In his papers for exemption he claims that he is the sole support of a widowed mother. A number of other claims of a similar nature have been received throughout the Dominion and all will have to be attended to and recorded.

All the men confined within the walls of a jail or penitentiary must comply with the provisions of the Military Service Act. In addition to those filing claims for exemption a percentage, and rather large one, have filled out service cards. This means that they are ready and willing to go overseas. It is not for one moment doubted that many of them would much rather take a chance on the firing line than serve their time in prison. It is thought that the Minister of Justice will rule in the case where men are confined on petty charges, and it may be that he will grant them their freedom should they be called to the colors.

Of all the subjects to be dealt with in the province, the Indian is probably the most interesting. They are for the most part unable to read or write in English. They have been notified to register for service or file papers for exemption before the last of the month, but not one case has yet been reported where this has been done. Apparently they are of the opinion that they are not to be classified as soldiers, and they are going to make up the population in this province. It may be that a special officer will be sent to the reserves to make the Indians realize that they too have to follow the same procedure as their white brethren.

PLAYGROUNDS EXECUTIVE MEETING HELD. Many Important Matters Discussed—Reports Received—Mothers' Meetings to be Held—The Grant for Playgrounds Work.

Many important matters were discussed at the executive meeting of the Playground Association held last evening at 22 Princess street. A good deal of business was transacted and several suggestions made as to methods of raising funds to carry on the work. The matter was left in the hands of a committee who were appointed to look after this and report at the next meeting. Information was asked by the City Council as to a grant for the playground work and this information will be supplied at once.

An excellent report was given from the Boys' Club. This work is flourishing there being more than the usual number of members at this time of year. A most successful New Year's trial was arranged for the boys and was greatly enjoyed by them. A lively discussion took place regarding the necessity of those in the work taking a deeper personal interest in the boys and it was decided to hold mothers' meetings on certain afternoons and also to invite the parents on certain occasions, to attend the entertainments given for the boys. Social service and community work was also discussed.

A committee was appointed to look up the members who joined last year and try to renew their interest in the Playgrounds Association so that they may take their place both in the responsibility and pleasure of this splendid work.

A. M. Belding presided at this meeting.

ARRESTED FOR BROACHING. A freeman employed on one of the steamers to recently dock at this port was arrested by the C. P. R. officials yesterday, charged with broaching the cargo. His name is Alfred Armstrong, and he is a native of England.

GIVEN IN CHARGE. James Howard of Toronto was yesterday afternoon given in charge of the police by a non-commissioned officer of the C. A. M. C. of Halifax.

DR. D. S. CHOWN IN CITY. Dr. D. S. Chown, superintendent of the Methodist church in Toronto, passed off through the city yesterday en route to Halifax. He was registered at the Royal Hotel.

WHY SHE WEPT. The local pawnbroker's shop was on fire, and among the crowd of spectators was an old woman who attracted much attention by her sobs and cries of despair, according to the San Francisco Argonaut. "What is the matter with you?" a freeman asked. "You don't own the shop, do you?" "No," she wailed, "but my old man's suit is pawned there, and he don't know it."

STANLEY REID, A LONGSHOREMAN, BROKE HIS NECK

Fell Into Hold of Steamship at West St. John Last Night—Was About 25 Years of Age and Resided on Princess Street—Body Viewed by Coroner Kenney.

A sad and fatal accident occurred last night at West St. John, about 9 o'clock. Stanley Reid, a longshoreman, in leaving the hold of a steamer slipped on one of the steel rungs of the ladder and fell on the cargo in the bottom of the steamer breaking his neck. It is thought that the frost coming out of the steel made them exceptionally slippery.

According to facts learned by The Standard last night the young man was engaged in the hold along with other longshoremen in discharging the cargo from the steamer which is unloading at No. 16 shed. They had completed the assembling of some cargo and had covered it with tarpaulin. When the party were leaving the hold, the unfortunate young man was the last on the ladder, the other men going up ahead of him. On reaching the deck they discovered that he was not with them and on making a search they discovered his body lying at the foot of the ladder. The city ambulance was immediately summoned but it was found on reaching the scene that his neck had been broken.

Dr. Kenney was sent for and after ordering the body removed to Chamberlain's undertaking rooms on Mill St. it is likely that an inquest will be held.

Stanley Reid was a young man of about twenty-five years of age. He resided with his sister at the foot of Princess street, who will receive the deep sympathy of friends.

CORPORAL'S GUARD MAY BRING A MAN FROM CHARLOTTE

Wrote Military Authorities He Would Not Report for Duty—Claimed He Should be Exempted—Should Have Been First Day Draftee.

The military authorities it was learned yesterday, are in receipt of a letter from a young man in Charlotte, N. C., who states that he will not report for duty. It is understood that the reason advanced is that he should be exempted. His case, however, does not warrant the granting of exemption. He should have reported in St. John the first day of the call, January 3, but he failed to do so. No time will be lost in apprehending the young man and bringing him to the city.

Yesterday there were but a few of the number called who failed to report, and it may be that some of the men who did not respond have been granted exemption by the appeal process. The same number of men will be called today and each day succeeding until the total this province is called upon to provide has been made up. It is not the intention of the military authorities to make public the exact number of men from New Brunswick or any of the provinces who will be obliged to contribute.

Leathery men were in barracks, and all have taken up their new life with interest. It is thought the officer commanding the unit to hold the drill on Monday morning.

The Deputy will transfer from their quarters on the West Side to the Exhibition building this morning. Official reports received at Ottawa by the Military Service Council from all parts of the Dominion indicate that men called up in the first draft are readily responding to the call. The reports include the military districts of Montreal and Quebec, and nowhere, it is stated, has there been any serious hitch in the arrangements.

It is understood that further drafts of men in classes one will be called up as their cases are disposed of by the tribunals, and as military requirements necessitate. The men will in each case be notified by registered mail when and where he is to report for active service.
