Mrs. I. Wm. Barnes, her two daughters, the Misses Sybil and Harriet Ada Barnes, and Miss Minnie Girvan, went to St. Martins on Monday for a week, to be by the sea. Miss Lou Girvan joined them on Tuesday.

The garden party and 5 o'clock tea, under the auspices of the ladies of Anglican church at Hampton Station, which came off on the grounds of Mr. George M. Ryan last Thursday, was a very enjoyable and financially satisfactory function. In the evening the Hampton Cornet Band gave a concert, and ice cream and other refreshments were served. The weather was delightful, and the grounds were illuminated. Much credit is due to Miss Annie Cochrane and Mrs. Clarence Spooner and their assistants for the zeal and energy they displayed in carrying out the affair which will add a substantial sum to the fund for installing an acetylene gas plant in the chapel of the Mission.

The Rev. Mr. Ross, pastor of the Methodist church, took two of his children last week on a trip to his former home on P. E. Island, and returned in time to conduct his Sunday engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Foster, of Sussex, visited Hampton on Monday.

Mr. Harold G. Ellis, of St. John, has been spending a few days with friends at the station.
