Mr. and Mrs. Machasey are very popular and a large number of friends were at the depot to bid them farewell.

Moncton, Sept. 27—No less than three stores here were entered by burglars last night. Two stores owned by David Steeves on St. George street and by McKinnon on Robinson street were broken into. At Steeves' main store, where the parties entered through a broken window, a wagon was backed up to the back door and it is difficult to tell how much stuff was taken. As the thieves used a team it is supposed a large quantity of goods were stolen.

At McKinnon's place the till was forced open but only a few coppers were secured.

In Steeves' second store, where a glass panel was removed from the front door, it is thought but little was taken. The police were notified this morning but so far there is no trace of the thieves.

In the golf match between Maccan and Moncton clubs here Saturday ten men aside, the local club won, thirteen to nine.
