

After Must Now Be Cleared to the Privy Council.

Borden's effort to have the question in the form of a stated case laid, Privy Council law lords refuse to proceed upon a hypothetical issue.

Wilfrid Laurier's advice must now be followed. He pointed out in Parliament the Hebert case raised in concrete the very issue that is presented in the question of Mr. Borden's act.

Under the right of a Protestant minister to marry in Quebec, the law of the province is that of the Dominion. Hebert case before the Privy Council, which may be done on appeal from the Quebec court.

The Church of Rome carries the Hebert case to the Privy Council. It is an end of the marriage law controversy in so far as it affects the law of the province.

Lord Blythe, president of the White City Exhibition, entertained Mrs. Borden, Mrs. Kingmill, Mrs. Ewart and a number of other Canadian ladies to luncheon yesterday.

The Morning Post gives prominence to a correspondent's statement relating to the participation of the dominions in strengthening the British navy.

Canada Not to Dictate. "Hence," says the correspondent, "the presence of the Canadian ministers in London. They have come here to learn and not to dictate."

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

BRITISH TORIES WANT TO BORDEN

Carleton Club Will Banquet Him. Canadians Are the First Outsiders to Be Honored.

London Press Continues to Discuss Canada's Aid to Imperial Defence—Britain Will Not Dictate the Manner of Contribution.

London, July 31.—The Right Hon. R. L. Borden and his colleagues here will be entertained to dinner by the Carleton Club on Friday night.

The Morning Post gives prominence to a correspondent's statement relating to the participation of the dominions in strengthening the British navy.

Canada Not to Dictate. "Hence," says the correspondent, "the presence of the Canadian ministers in London. They have come here to learn and not to dictate."

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

SCOTT ACT MATTERS

Two Seizures of Liquors at Hotels Replevined by Orders and Temperance People Fail to Fight Cases.

Newcastle, July 27.—The police committee and Scott Act inspectors Dickson and Hill are having considerable trouble in their attempts to honestly enforce the Canada Temperance Act in Newcastle.

Shortly after the town election, the Mitchell Hotel was raided and liquor worth $600 was seized on a search warrant against the supposed proprietor, Jas. P. Whalen, then absent in Scotland.

The second case was against Edward Dalton, of the Windsor Hotel, also a charge of second offence. Liquor was seized on the premises of Dalton's father on search warrant against the hotel proprietor.

One citizen who complained that he had not been asked in the Whalen case, refused to go to bondsmen for the small sum required in the Dalton case.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

NEW YORK POLICE GRAB $2,400,000 A YEAR

All Sorts of Vice Paid for Protection, Confesses Toll Collector

Jack Rose Makes a Clean Breast to District Attorney—Says Lieutenant Becker and Three Other High Officials Got $600,000 Each and Distributed to Men "Higher Up"

Webber Says He Got $2,000 to Give Slayers of Rosenthal—Sensations Promised—Clemency Offered Becker if He Will Reveal the Head Graters

New York, July 30.—Swoon statements, tending to show that the annual graft collected by high police officials in New York city from gambling houses and other illegal resorts has amounted with the last year to $2,400,000 are in the hands of District Attorney Whitman tonight.

The statements were made to the district attorney today by "Red" Jack Rose, self-confessed graft collector for Police Lieut. Becker, head of the "Strong Arm Squad."

Every trail led to a toll collector. District-Attorney Whitman, to learn how $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed.

Every trail led to a toll collector. District-Attorney Whitman, to learn how $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed.

Every trail led to a toll collector. District-Attorney Whitman, to learn how $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed.

Every trail led to a toll collector. District-Attorney Whitman, to learn how $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed.

Every trail led to a toll collector. District-Attorney Whitman, to learn how $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed.

Every trail led to a toll collector. District-Attorney Whitman, to learn how $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed.

Every trail led to a toll collector. District-Attorney Whitman, to learn how $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed.

BODY OF MISSING NURSE FOUND

Dorcas Snodgrass Drowned in Creek Near Catskill, New York

Authorities Believe Young Woman Died as Result of Accident—Diamond Engagement Ring Found on Finger—Her Fiance Satisfied as to Identity

Catskill, N. Y., July 30.—The body of the young woman found Sunday afternoon in Dubois Creek, near this village, was identified this afternoon as that of Dorcas I. Snodgrass, a nurse, who has been missing from the home of her sister in Mount Vernon since July 17.

The identification was made by Frederick Schmidt, the young woman's fiance, an electrical contractor of Mount Vernon, and by Police Lieutenant M. L. Silverton of the same place.

The body is in such condition that identification, except from the jewelry and clothing, was difficult.

Upon their arrival, Mr. Schmidt and Lieutenant Silverton went to an undertaker's establishment, where they were shown a diamond ring and portions of clothing taken from the body, and both identified the articles as the property of Miss Snodgrass.

After the examination Mr. Schmidt made no statement, but as he left the improvised morgue, he said to Lieutenant Silverton: "I'm satisfied it is the body of Miss Snodgrass."

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

VIEW OF PROMINENT LONDON EDITOR

Harold Spender Declares Cabinet Would Be Displaced

Says it Would Infringe on Rights of Parliament—Thinks Overseas Dominions Should Not Have a Voice on Peace or War

London, July 30.—Harold Spender, writing editorially in the Daily News and Leader this morning on the subject of cabinet control of foreign affairs in conjunction with the dominions, points out how peace or war is now practically in the hands of the cabinet, although it is even possible that war might be declared by the prime minister alone.

"Therefore," argues Mr. Spender, "if the dominions were given a statutory voice they would likely possess more power than the house of commons or the cabinet."

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

He may believe that he is also a member of the Privy Council. He is a civil contract involving certain duties and certain responsibilities.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

REFUSES TO REPEAL RECIPROcity ACT

U. S. House of Representatives Declines to Agree to Senate Amendment to Excise Bill by Twenty Majority.

AMALGAMATION NOT YET COMPLETED, BUT NO DOUBT WILL BE

WEST IS STRONG FOR RECIPROcity

PROBATE COURT MATTERS

TO REGULATE FISHING IN NEWFOUNDLAND WATERS

U. S. Senate Committee Votes to Ratify Treaty Between Britain and United States—Takes Action on Award of Hague Tribunal.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills