routed, and were pursued close under the walls of Cabua. A brigade of Germans was ent off from the main body of the Neapolitan army and driven to the mountain The garribaldians took 5000 prisoners. The Neapolitans had 3000 killed and wounded. The Royalists subsequently made a storie from Cupua to the rescue of the German brigade, but were repulsed. The King of Naples was present at the battle.

Rumors were current that Capua surren dered, and that the bombardment of the town was progressing, but neither had been confirmed.

Some Sardinian troops assisted the Gari-baldians in the late battle. Garibaldi had called on the King of Sar dinia to go to Naples and to send him 14, 000 men immediately.

The Piedmontese troops had entered the Neapolitan territories. It was reported that three Great powers had protested against the entry of the Sardinians into Naples.

It was asserted great consternation prevailed among the Turin Cabinet, in conse quence of the Russian and Prussian Ambassadors having remitted the formal pro-tests against Sardinian invasion of Naples. Advices from China state that the aliied troops reached Peiho on the 1st August, and established their camps at Pehtang. They found the Northern and Southern forts evacuated, and attacked the Tartar camp on the 12th when the Chinese fled in disorder. At the departure of the mail the allies were opposite Taka forts, where the Chinese were preparing to resist. The grand attack was to take place on the 15th August. The re-bels attacked Shanghai onthe 18th August, and were repulsed. Trade stopped.

The Swiss troops mutinied at Samarang; A similar rising had been discovered at Java in season to frustrate it.

St. John's, N.F., Oct. 23.
The City of Washington left Liverpool on the 10the, via Queenston on the 11th, and passed Cape Race at 7 this evening.
The Jura from New York arrived out on the 9th.

The details of the battle of Volturno have been received. It was a most protracted struggle, but the Naspoliton army was finally driven back in great disorder to the fortress of Capua, with an estimated loss of over 3000 men killed, besides 5000 prisoners. The forces of Garibadii lost from 1200 to 2000 men. No movements have taken place since the battle up to latest advices.
