

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL PROTECTS ITS PRINTER

We copy the following from the Annapolis Spectator which might prove a gentle reminder to the Mayors and Town Councils of the incorporated towns in Kings Co.

To His Worship the Mayor and members of the Town Council: Gentlemen:

As it seems to be the policy of the present Council to encourage local industries and as there has been no protection against competition by travelers in printing line from Yarmouth, Truro or other places, permit me to suggest the justice of adopting a resolution such as that appended hereto.

Yours respectfully, J. W. DAWSON STEARNS.

Whereas it is the policy of this Council to encourage local industries as far as practicable in preference to competitors who have no interest in the town, and

Whereas, it is currently reported that representatives of printing offices in Yarmouth, Truro and other places have taken orders here for work which might have been done in Annapolis Royal, therefore,

Resolved, that a license fee of not exceeding $20 per annum shall be exacted from each and every printer doing business in this town, who does not maintain a printing plant and equipment in the town in default of which license a penalty shall be exacted of $5 for each order under $20 and 50 per cent. of the gross cost of each order exceeding $20.

After discussion, in which C. Adams said he had received as good work from the Spectator office as he had seen anywhere and some other bouquets were thrown, it was moved by C. Whitman and Adams that the license committee make a report to the Council at its next meeting about everything on which they can charge a license and what rates they would propose. Passed.

COLD "DONT'S"

This is the season for colds. If you want to avoid one—

Don't be afraid of fresh air. It cannot of itself ever give anyone a cold in the head.

Don't forget exercise, and add as much fat as possible to your daily consumption of food.

Don't overburden yourself with thick clothes. Ventilation as well as warmth should be aimed at.

Don't toast yourself by the fire. This only heats one side of the body, while the other may be chilled by a current of cold air.

Don't treat a cold as a trivial matter. It may lead to influenza and serious illness.

Don't sneeze without covering your mouth with a handkerchief. A man with a cold can easily throw his poison 12 ft. by a sneeze.

The political pot is beginning to simmer again.

SOME KICK TO THIS

A correspondent sends in a receipt for making Perkins' Homebrew, and while we are not in the business ourselves we are glad to place it before those who are interested in the preliminary details of their own funerals. Here is the formula: Pursue a wild bullfrog and carefully gather the hops.

Thirty-two million Methodists were represented in the World's Conference of that church in London. Indicating the extent to which a man by the name of Wesley puts his ideas over.

THE HORRORS OF WAR

(From Canadink.) Two soldiers went into a restaurant on the eastern front, and said to the waiter: "We want Turkey with Greece."

The waiter replied—"Sorry, we can't serve it."

"Well, then, get the Bosphorus." The boss came in and heard the order and then said—"I don't want to Russia, but you can't Rumania."

They were not a Paraguay Tommies, as they went away. Hungary saying, they never sausage a place, and wishing they were at Frankfurt or Bologna where they could have a decent meal. But they longed most to get back to "Old Blighty" to Sandwich, as they were bred and mustered there.

A SOPORIFIC DISCOURSE

(From the London Express.) "What was the text of the sermon today?"

"He giveth His beloved sleep." "Many people there?" "All they beloved."

STRANGER SLEEPS IN OTHER TWIN BED, WIFIE WILD!

If you are a loving wife, and if you discover a man other than your husband right in your bedroom, in fact, right in the other one of your twin beds, what would you do?

That's exactly what happened to Mrs. Harry Hawkins and she expected her husband to walk in any minute, too.

Mr. Hawkins had gone out early in the evening on business and his wife had retired at her usual hour, without a sign of anything amiss. Imagine her dismay when on wakening and tripping blithely over to wake hubby, she beheld another man, wearing her husband's pajamas and a high silk hat!

Report has it that Mrs. Hawkins became terrified at that moment by the entrance of her husband. However, you can discover in what manner she handled the situation when you see the screaming bed-room farce, "Twin Beds," which Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven are presenting in picture form, and which comes to the Opera House next week as the latest First National attraction.

The National Crisis

"My appeal is to the whole people; to every man and woman who wants to do right by this country; to everyone who breathes the spirit of our fathers who founded this British Dominion."

—ARTHUR MEIGHEN

THE Election to be held December 6th will be the most momentous in Canadian history; for as men and women vote will depend the economic stability, the political stability and, indeed, the national stability of this country.

Today we find group striving against group, class against class, the industrial and financial structure of the country assailed by false and unsound doctrines and theories, while our great neighbour to the south has adopted a trade exclusion policy directed against Canada's vast agricultural interests.

The currencies of nearly every country in the world are depreciated. The Canadian dollar in the United States is subject to a heavy discount causing a loss of over one hundred million dollars in exchange annually.

Europe is overwhelmed with war debts—unemployment is acute—and the restoration to pre-war conditions is slow.

While Canada is in a much more favorable condition than many countries, yet there is evidence of stagnation, instability, unemployment and lack of confidence.

Taxes are heavy because of the country's efforts in the Great War, but have become burdensome on account of the misconceived policies and blunders of Governments that directed Canada's affairs prior to 1911.

These conditions are largely the direct aftermath of the war, but they must be dealt with fearlessly and constructively. This is no time to consider experimental changes, or the theories of visionaries.

This is no time for Crerar and his Free Trade policy. This is no time for King and his wobbling "charted" policies, varying with each provincial boundary.

It is the time to cling to orderly, stable Government in the interest of all the people; to be guided by the experience of the past, proceeding upon lines that have been proven sound.

It is the time to place the destinies of Canada again in the hands of a Government led by a sane, courageous Canadian who has safely brought the country through the trying years of reconstruction, and upon whom we can rely to retain and initiate policies in the interest, not of a group or class but of all the people.

It is the time to support Arthur Meighen and his Candidates.

Meighen will lead us through

Home Town Paper Week

It is very rare that the average newspaper boosts its own business, but gives quantities of space in boosting the affairs of others.

Somebody suggested that it was time for the newspapers of the country to adopt a week in which their own business should be given precedent, and THE ACADIAN thoroughly endorses the idea.

The date set is the second week in November, from the 7th to the 12th, including that great world event, Armistice Day.

The official title for the week will be "Subscribe For Your Home Town Paper Week."

Thousands of papers will join in this event, and our readers will hear more about it as time goes on.

Ever ready to help in any cause that is in the interests of a better community, better living conditions, and better government, we now ask the readers and advertisers of THE ACADIAN to turn in and lend a hand during "Subscribe For Your Home Town Paper Week", and boost for us.
