A Birthday Greeting.

BY JOHN INRIE, TORONTO, CANADA.

TIME is over on the wing,
 Fast our moments fly away;
 Let us prize them, though they bring
 Joy and sorrow mixed away!
 Had we joy alone, my friend,
 We would seek no other sphere;
 Did God only sorrow send,
 We would wish the end was near!

God is wiser far than we,
 And He knoweth what is best;
 Lo, us in His wisdom see
 That He seeks our FAITH to test;
 May we live as though this hour
 Were our last on earth to spend;
 And, come sunshine, shade, or show'r,
 God's best blessing will attend!

Let the years roll on apace,
 Heaven is nearer than before;
 Let us bravely trials face,
 Waves break loudest near the shore!
 Summer, Autumn, Winter, Spring,
 All within one year are bound;
 Let us through each season sing
 Songs of praise the whole year round!

JOHN INRIE'S POEMS, containing about 400 pages, neatly bound in cloth and gold, will be sent, post free, on receipt of one dollar. INRIE, GRAHAM & Co., 30 Church St., Toronto, Canada. Only a few copies left.

Presbytery of Winnipeg.

THE Presbytery of Winnipeg met Nov. 12th in Manitoba College. There were present Rev. C. B. Pitblado, moderator; fifteen ministers and four elders. Rev. J. A. Reddon, of Moosomin, and Rev. John Ferry, of Selkirk, being present, were asked to sit as corresponding members. Rev. R. G. MacBeth reported that he had held a meeting with the congregation at Selkirk, at which the congregation had decided to offer a call to Rev. John Ferry, who has been conducting services there as temporary supply for several months. A salary of $250 was offered. The call was supported by

Rheumatism Cured

Mr. Byron Crandell

"In July last I was taken with rheumatism in its worst form. Local physicians treated me, but their remedies did not give me any relief. I was advised to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial, which I did. I take great pleasure in stating that two bottles gave marked relief. Continuing regularly with the medicine, I am now cured. While afflicted I was frequently obliged to use crutches. I cannot recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla too highly. BYRON CRANDELL, engineer at Water Works, Toronto Junction, Ont.

Mr. Tait, a commissioner from the congregation, but inasmuch as the call was insufficiently signed, it was agreed to delay matters so that other members of the congregation, who wished to append their names to the call, may have the opportunity to do so. The names of Messrs. T. D. Malcolm, Herbert Lloyd and Richard Footo were presented to the Presbytery as students who wished to enter upon a course of preparation for the ministry. The rest of the business was of a routine character. The Presbytery then adjourned until the second Tuesday in January.
