

No Fish, unless caught by Subjects of Great Britain, or of the British Dominions in Europe, to be landed or dried at Newfoundland, the Right as ceded to the French excepted.

assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Fish, taken or caught by any of His Majesty's Subjects, or other Persons, arriving at Newfoundland or its Dependencies, or on the Banks of the said Island, except from Great Britain, or One of the British Dominions in Europe, shall be permitted to be landed or dyed on the said Island of Newfoundland, always excepting the Rights granted by Treaty to the Subjects of His most Christian Majesty on that Part of the Island of Newfoundland beginning at Cape Saint John, passing to the North and descending by the western Coast of the said Island to the Place called Cape Raye.

II. And whereas it is thought expedient that the Owners of Ships employed in the Greenland Fishery should be allowed to receive the Bounty granted by an Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Support and Encouragement of the Fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, although such Ships depart from those Seas before the Tenth Day of August then following, and although they be not laden with the Quantity of Whale Fins, and of Oil or Blubber in Proportion thereto, required by the said Act, in case it shall appear by the Log Books of such Ships that they have not departed from those Seas till the End of Sixteen Weeks from the Day they respectively sailed from the Ports where they were surveyed and cleared out; be it therefore further enacted, That any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel shall be allowed and intituled to receive the Bounty granted by the said Act, for any Ship which shall have proceeded, or shall proceed upon the said Whale Fishery from any Port of Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, after the First Day of January One thousand seven hundred and ninety, and shall have sailed, or shall sail from the Port where he was surveyed and cleared out, directly on her intended Voyage on or before the Tenth Day of April in each and every Year, although he shall depart from the Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, or the adjacent Seas, before the Tenth Day of August then following, and although he shall
