

whereby the time for the commencement of the action may be limited, and for all other purposes from the date of the issuing the original Writ.

Renewing and returning writs issued before the commencement of this Act, &c.

12 V. c. 63. As to writs issued in continuance of preceding writs under the said Act.

XXIX. When any Writ of Summons or Capias in any such action shall have been issued before, and shall be in force at the commencement of his Act, such Writ may, at any time before the expiration thereof, be renewed under the provisions of, and in the manner directed by this Act; and where any Writ, issued in continuation of a preceding Writ, according to the provisions of the Act passed in the twelfth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to make further provision for the administration of Justice, by the establishment of an additional Superior Court of Common Law, and also a Court of Error and Appeal in Upper Canada, and for other purposes, shall be in force and unexpired, or where one month next after the expiration thereof, shall not have elapsed at the commencement of this Act, such continuing Writ may, without being returned non est inventus, or entered of record according to the provisions of the said Act, be filed in the proper office of the Court, within one month next after the expiration of such Writ, or within twenty days after the commencement of this Act, and the original Writ of Summons or capias in such action may thereupon, but within the same period of one month next after the expiration of the continuing Writ, or within twenty days after the commencement of this Act, be renewed under the provisions of, and in the manner directed by this Act; and every such Writ shall, after such renewal, have the same duration and effect for all purposes, and shall be, if necessary, subsequently renewed in the same manner as if it had originally issued under the authority of this Act.

Proof of such renewal of writs.

XXX. The production of a Writ of Summons or Capias with the memorandum signed as required in the foregoing Section, shewing such Writ to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient evidence of its having been so renewed, and of the commencement of the action as of the first date of such renewed Writ, for all purposes.
