

at any time when he shall be prevented by illness or other unavoidable accident from acting in such office, and to remove such deputy at his pleasure; and such deputy during the time for which he shall be so appointed, shall have the like powers and privileges, and be subject to the like duties as if he were the Clerk of the Court for the time being; and the Clerk of the Court shall be civilly responsible for all the acts and omissions of his Deputy. 5 10

Treasurer to receive all fees

Judge's salary

Clerk and bailiffs how paid

Proviso.

Certain duties assigned to the Clerks

XI. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of every District shall be the Receiver General of fees of the several Division Courts within his District; and every such Treasurer shall be paid a per centage of pounds, on every hundred pounds of the gross produce of the fees of the Courts of which he is Receiver General; and every Judge shall be paid by a certain salary, the salary of a Judge being in no case more than pounds, or less than pounds; and the Clerk and the Bailiffs of the Court, shall be paid by fees hereby allowed to them; and the Governor in Council shall fix the remuneration to be paid to the Judges, having due regard to the population of the several Districts and Divisions, and the remuneration to be paid to the Judges, may be increased, or, as vacancies shall occur, may be diminished by the same authority: Provided always, that the salaries of the said Judges as at present established, shall remain the same unless otherwise altered by law, or unless vacancies shall occur 15 20 25 30 35

XII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of each Division Court, shall issue all summonses warrants, precepts, and writs of execution, and register all orders and judgments of the Court, and keep an account of all such summonses, executions, and other process of the Court, and shall take charge of, and keep an account of all Court fees and fines payable or paid into Court, and of all suitor's money 40