

Knockers not knockout entertainment

Dear Editor:

We were greatly disappointed that the CSL would bring entertainment of such a degrading nature (ie. The Chicago Knockers) to the UNB campus.

Since we, the students, are paying for the entertainment brought onto campus in our student fees, it should be of a nature that is appealing to a more general audience. (ie. both males and females). The Chicago Knockers, under the guise of a sporting event (?), were on the whole only appealing to the male population, and a small proportion of the males at that.

Not only were The Knockers in appeal, but they were not the type of entertainment that would, or should be expected at a university for either sex.

They were an insult to all of us.

Fortunately the evening was not a total loss as we were offered an alternative: The X-Men. For most of us, however, there was really only one choice!

Please don't limit our entertainment again.
