

Apology

Those editors who slept in on Sunday, September 22 and consequently missed the layout meeting scheduled for 1:30 p.m. that day, apologize for their indolence and offer to meet those same layout volunteers at 1:30 p.m. during the "GAZETTE Seminar" on the weekend of October 4th-6th. Layout principles will be explained and a schedule for on-the-job training will be worked out. Prior to this meeting, ALARM CLOCKS will be used by those responsible for last week's error.

introducing Lapinette by donkerr

the crassly commercial carrot-consuming advertising rabbit

this is lapinette.

lapinette is a young and frisky french type of bunny who deals with the campus branch of the bank of montreal.

this is lapinette, before checking her bank balance.

lappy giving the impression that she is a paragon of affluence.

this is lapinette, who has suddenly learned the meaning of the word thrift.

lappy learns the subtle difference between a paragon and a parody.

this is lapinette, who has just decided that bank managers are basically of kind of kind. you see, he advised her about student loans. truth is, a bank manager can't stand to hear a rabbit cry.

happy lappy clasps coins closely and contemplates the subtle difference between a parody and pecuniosity.

All students - even rabbitic-quality.

Why not hop over?

We'll mind your money for you if you can't stay.

SDS to be investigated?

WASHINGTON (CPS-CUP) - If Representative Albert Watson had his druthers the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) would be one of the groups on the government's Subversive Organizations black-list.

The South Carolina Republican last week called on the floor of the House of Representatives for a "full-scale investigation" by the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HUAC) of the "most dangerous New Left group operating in the country today."

Watson said SDS plans to overthrow the U.S. government and cited as examples of their tactics the recent Chicago demonstrations and the disruption of Columbia University last spring.

He said Federal agents who attended the SDS National Convention at Michigan State University in June heard sessions which discussed the "fine points of firing Molotov cocktails from shotguns" and other tactics of guerrilla warfare.

Watson also charged that SDS was heavily infiltrated by members of the Communist Party who see the campus groups as a good base from which to launch their own activities.
