

Squadron Leader G. Milsom

Squadron Leader G. Milsom, at present Acting Commanding Officer of No. 4 Initial Training School, is an aircrew veteran of the last war. He joined the service at the age of 17 in February of 1918, and qualified as an Observer. He served in Canada and Great Britain as a Second Lieutenant with the Royal Air Force.

In civilian life, Squadron Leader Milsom was President of Construction Gunite Limited, Toronto. He enlisted with the Royal Canadian Air Force in May of 1940, and was on the third Senior Administration Course to be held at Trenton. In July of 1940 he started I.T.S. work as a Flight Commander at No. 1 I.T.S., Toronto, where he instructed in Law, Administration, Map Reading and Reconnaissance Work.

Serving at various stations in Canada, he has been at Regina I.T.S., serving for a time there as Temporary Commanding Officer. He was Chief Ground Instructor at No. 4 I.T.S., and later, Senior Administrative Officer. He was in Command of this school in March and April of 1943, and was later posted as Senior Administrative Officer to No. 15 E.F.T.S. at Claresholm, from which station he returned to assume his present Command here.

Squadron Leader Milsom is well known for his interest in sports and his energetic application to every job he undertakes.
