The Department has been in the habit of forwarding, to missionaries and others, money and provisions for the relief of the Indians within the District of which you are now Sup^t, in the following proportions:

The Montagnais Indians of Beltrami $500.00; the Morris Sengon, and Seven Island Indians $500.00; the Godbout Indians $75.00. One half of the above amounts, it has been usual to send in the Spring, and the balance in the Fall of each year.
