

2.

It is observed that butter is being furnished upon relief orders. You have been told to inform merchants that they are not to supply butter unless specially ordered in the case of invalids, as it comes within the class of luxuries.

Your full report with regard to the above mentioned charges is required without delay.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.