WHOLESALE & RETAIL STORES

As may seem from the illustrations the city has a number of large stores. Of these that of G. & Ed Couture demands special attention, because its growth is closely interwoven with the city's development. The business was established in 1841 by G. Couture. Twenty years later his brother Louis E. Couture entered the business under the firm name of G. & Ed. Couture, and as such it is conducted today by J. Ed. Perrault & L. P. Bégin the present owners. The firm does an extensive retail and wholesale business in groceries, beer wines, liquors cigars and provisions of all kinds, and is a heavy importer of all these goods.

The leading wholesalers and importers of groceries and provision located in Lévis, is A. Carrier & Fils, the foundation of which was laid

P. Guy, Jos. Gagnon, Edouard Goulet, M. Hamelin, L. H. Bégin, Nap. Lamontagne, Mme. Boivin, J. I. Langlois, S. Paradis, Charles Castonguay, etc., etc.

Le magasin de meubles de M. A. A. Falardeau ne le cède à aucun de ceux de Québec. Ceux de MM. Vachon et Lemieux sont aussi très populaires.

Lévis compte quatre pharmacies; celles de MM. O. T. Dion, S. Marmet, D. Fortin et E. Morin.

MM. Paquet et Jean et Paul Beau-lieu ont de beaux magasins de quincaillerie.

Il y a à Lévis six bons hôtels: le Victoria, le Saint-Laurent, l'Hôtel du Peuple, le Kennebec, le Globe et l'hôtel Larochele.
