

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

XV

BOOK II. SPECIFIC WRONGS.

CHAPTER VI. PERSONAL WRONGS.

I. Assault and Battery.

	PAGE
What is a battery	213
What an assault	213
Excusable acts	214
Self-defence	218
Menace distinguished from assault	219
Summary proceedings when a bar to civil action	219

II. False Imprisonment.

What is false imprisonment	220
Justification of arrest and imprisonment	221
Who is answerable	222
Reasonable and probable cause	224

III. Injuries in Family Relations.

Protection in personal relations	225
Historical accidents of the common law herein	226
Trespass for taking away wife, &c., and per quod servitium amisit	227
"Criminal conversation"	228
Enticing away servants	229
Actions for seduction in modern practice	230
Damages	232
Services of young child	233
Capricious operation of the law	233
Constructive service in earlier cases	234
Intimidation of servants and tenants	234
Coercion of customers	236

CHAPTER VII.

DEFAMATION.

Civil and criminal jurisdiction	237
Slander and libel	237
1. Slander.
When slander is actionable	239
Meaning of " prima facie libellous "	240
Special damage	240
Repetition of spoken words	241

U. W. O. LAW