"A. L. O. E. (Miss C. M. Taylor) may be termed a writer of sanctified fiction. There have been many of these, yet judging by the bold stories here had upon the youthful mind she has been queen of them all. Gifted with the genius and possession of the art on the popular novelist, she knew how to catch attention and hold it. Her productions were characterized by brilliancy of plot and happiness of diction. But she was not content with endowments to enable her to write, she sought to improve the practical utility of the novel, and was the pioneer in this respect, and she was the first to show that a novel could be a study with no inherent instruction, and a guide to a better life. The child reads the story, sees the moral, and is nothing profited. Miss Tucker interweaves the two so that they cannot be separated. Every turn in her narratives illustrates some important truth or enforces some valuable lesson."—Daily Witness.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither tin nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Engine, says: "Ayer's Hair Vigor is the most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

Mr. ANDRÉ FAHREIN, leader of the celebrated "Fahrein Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1882: "Ever since my hair began to give every evidence of the change which the falling time procured, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of importance to me, as I am a minister, orator, actor, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mrs. O. A. PIERCE, writing from 18 Elm St., Charleston, W. Va., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

STANDARD LIBRARY FOR 1884.

STAMP OUT BAD LITERATURE!

By special arrangement just made with Funk & Wagnalls, of New York, we can supply the Standard Library for 1884

To all Subscribers for $4—Postage Paid.

This offer will be good until the end of this year.

Act promptly and thus help a noble effort to circulate GOOD BOOKS.

REGULAR SUBSCRIPTION per year for 26 books, $3.70. The ordinary importers' prices for these books, cloth bound, would aggregate from $30.00 upward.

ADVANCE SUBSCRIPTION (that is, if you subscribe on or before Jan. 31, 1884) $2.00; $2.00 of which is to be paid when the vol. is ready, and $2.00 when the 12th vol. is received.

By subscribing now, you save nearly 50 per cent. of the exceedingly low price you would have to pay for the books after they are issued in our library.

By subscribing now, you help make the plan possible, for if friends of good reading do not subscribe, we dare not run the risk of publishing this class of books at these low prices.

Why we cannot give the names of the 26 Books. As they are all to be new books, we do not yet know their titles. However, they will consist of Travel, History, Biography, Popular Science, Miscellany—all New, Standard and Popular. Remember they will be mailed you every two weeks, post-paid.

It would not be politic to give the names in advance; for, if we did, those hostile to the cheap book movement in the book trade could easily combine and cause us heavy loss. Our friends must take our guarantee that the books will be valuable, new, representative, and that they will be. The present retail prices of such imported books, cloth binding, at these aggregate from $30.00 upward. By our plan we will be able to supply these at $4 to those who subscribe in advance; $5 to all others. This assurance must suffice.
