

Honeywell "Uppercuts"

A judgment is going on daily. God is continually holding court and considering the doings of the sons of men. That judgment is reflected in a measure in the consciences of men. All men have a certain measure of light by which they know right from wrong; their consciences all the while accusing or accusing them.

Moody by the immortality of his consecrated life, although dead, shall bless generations yet to come, but ingersoll shall blight and curse and damn souls yet unborn.

You may turn a deaf ear and refuse to hear the gospel call now; but you will be compelled to listen to the call of judgment. You may leave this service and go out into the world again and go on in sin and laugh at the thought of judgment, but you cannot laugh it away.

All of God's predictions about judgment on individuals and nations have come true in the past, to the very letter, in spite of all the false hopes that were held out by false prophets, and, mark my words, God's predictions about the future judgment upon individuals and nations will come true, to the very letter, in spite of what you may think or say.

Men shall be judged by a man—Jesus Christ. He knows what a perfect man should be. He that was once judged by men shall judge men. He has stood in man's place, therefore, he is the most fit judge that could be selected.

With the Judge Eternal there will be a fair and a full trial.

You cannot escape that judgment day. Every infidel will be there. Every hypocritical church member every sinner will be there. You, who have steered your hearts against God and have rejected Christ and have made light of these meetings, will be there.

You shall be there to answer how you received the gospel this evening and what you did with Jesus. I must answer as to how I preach, whether I am here for money, worldly honor and the praise of man, or for the saving of human souls.

If I had an invention that could show each of you as God will see you and would attempt to display some of your characters, within five minutes time you all would have fled and I would be preaching to empty pews. Still just this thing will happen on the judgment day, and you cannot get away from it.

At judgment day you can't say "What? Jesus Christ came to Belleville and I didn't know it?" A greater man than any earthly governor is here tonight.

Some of you young men haven't the backbone, you haven't the sand to come out for Christ.

Two classes of people argue against sin—they are the Christian Scientist and the fool.

I would be glad to give some newspaper men some pointers on how to run a clean, up-to-date newspaper.

You don't know what thoughts are in the mind of a little child. When one comes up don't say "He is only a little boy." J. Wilbur Chapman was converted when he was a little boy, and he afterwards became from that start one of the leading evangelists of the world.

The Centrum Ballast

Written for The Ontario by Chas. M. Bice, Lawyer, Denver, Colorado.

In the following article Mr. Bice deals incisively with the German political situation and shows the effect of the recent elections and the policy of the party that will dominate the German Government.

Germany is not Russia; Berlin is not Moscow nor Petrograd. Germanic temperament and training are beginning to tell in the great upheaval following defeat. German Socialism is not Bolshevism, but imperialism and part of the national character. One of the reasons why the brand has failed in the United States is because of its foreign nature. It was made for the Teuton mind and bent, which is not individualistic but gregarious. They had to invent the "circular formation" in aviation before the German fier would rise.

They have killed Liebknecht and Luxemburg, the leaders of the Bolshevik uprising. The German Government has placed in custody the guards of the pair for permitting the assassination, and court-martial and civil trial may follow. Order is to be maintained in Berlin. Order is to be maintained in the provinces. The latest election returns give it one-half the total vote of the Socialist party combined. The Centre was politico-religious.

Throughout the war it stood by the emperor; and the latter in turn went out of his way to reward the party by choosing an imperial chancellor from it in time of stress. Today the Centrum is the German ballast. It is for "law and order." It is also for a united front at Versailles. Its influence will be more powerful than any other that can come from the defeated countries.

peace terms. With the death of the two ring-leaders of the recent uprising the Bolshevik importation will not die at once in Germany. Uprisings will be heard of in different provinces and when the Versailles Congress makes known the punishment to be imposed, another flare-up can be looked for in the greater cities as a matter of resentment.

In Russia the Greek church failed at the supreme moment. It was brushed aside as it were a mere toy, and yet the world had been told by the Russian writers and foreign travellers that the Russian people were deeply religious and would not be satisfied without a czar—"the Little Father"—and things like that. The Russian clerical organization was bound to the old order, and when the latter went the church went with it. There was a reaction against anything that suggested Rasputin and church scandals. The church failed the czar, and it failed Kerensky. Bolshevism is the avowed enemy of all religion.

In Germany the Centrist party for many years was the chief "bloc" in the Reichstag. The Catholic Centrum, until the recent awakening, had a larger vote in the body than any one of the numerous parties. The latest election returns give it one-half the total vote of the Socialist party combined. The Centre was politico-religious.

Throughout the war it stood by the emperor; and the latter in turn went out of his way to reward the party by choosing an imperial chancellor from it in time of stress. Today the Centrum is the German ballast. It is for "law and order." It is also for a united front at Versailles. marked a prominent marine man. "If we are able to have the city made a terminal for the big boats when the Welland Canal is completed, Kingston should keep up the fight to have Kingston made a terminal."

Liquor Seized at Oshawa

Oshawa, Jan. 27.—A large haul of whiskey was made here by L. D. Duke, the catch consisting of a carload of bags consigned from Montreal to Oshawa to Mr. Silver, care H. Brown, Toronto, and billed as empties. Upon investigation it was found that liquor was concealed in the sacks and upwards of 150 gallons were seized.

This consignment, no doubt was intended to be unloaded at Oshawa and reshipped to Toronto by auto route.

Moonshiner Caught

On Monday morning Inspector Stewart and County Constables Wm. Dickson of Westwood, and Archie Moore, of Peterboro, drove out into Dummer and arrested Matthew Lyttle of that township on a charge of conducting an illicit still. For some time Lyttle had been suspected of carrying on an illegal traffic in liquor and close tab was kept on him by the authorities, with the result that Tuesday morning the inspector and constables made an early and unsuspected visit to the scene of his operations and, we understand, caught him in the very act and secured a liberal supply of his latest brew, as well as a quantity of ingredients and the utensils used in his manufacture. Lyttle was taken to Peterboro where he will be placed on trial.—Norwood Register.

Necessity Drove Them

It may not be generally known but a Kingston man and his wife skated all the way to Cape Vincent a few days ago, just to get a good drink of beer. It is also rumored that they brought a couple of bottles back with them on their return trip. There are many people in Kingston who like their beer, but it is a safe bet that but few would be willing to skate to the Cape to quench their thirst. Perhaps the hardest task would be to skate back to Kingston.

An Innovation

The latest thing in Kingston is the introduction of Victrolas in some of the barber shops. Have you not heard music as you passed some of the tonsorial shops? A newspaper representative was given quite a surprise one day this week, when he heard one of these "music machines" working overtime in a Princeps street shop. It is stated that just as soon as one shop started the ball rolling by purchasing a Victrola the proprietor of a shop on the other side of the street also installed one. So now the patrons of the barber shops will have music while they are getting a haircut or shave, just like the "big folk" at the swell hotels who have music while they eat. Musthath charms so if the barber happens to make a slip and take a piece out of a man's lip while shaving, the incident will be overlooked.

Horses Afflicted With "Flu"

Some parts of Durham County appear to be suffering from influenza of two types, one of which affects man and the other beasts. The States man reports that Mr. J. H. Darch, Tyrone, has lost a mare with influenza and has five other horses sick with the epidemic. Two veterinarians were unable to save the favorite mare.—Cobourg World.

Eighteen Months for Youths

Manchester and Belmore two youths who were charged at Lindsay with stealing a Chevrolet automobile and also with stealing goods from summer cottages, were sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment. To John Church and Parish Hall

As a memorial of the 100th anniversary of St. Peter's Church, it is proposed to join the church and parish hall. Plans have been drawn up for this and a large amount of money promised for the work. This has been in contemplation for some time and now that the war is over it is expected that the undertaking will be carried out.—Cobourg World.

Kilburna vs. Crown

The Campbellford Herald says: A number of our citizens went up to Toronto yesterday to attend and give evidence at the trial of Kilburna vs. the Crown for damages to certain lots by reason of the construction of the Trent Canal. Among the number were Messrs. M. A. Hawley, E. C. West, A. J. Jenkins, C. Benor, I. A. Humphries, G. A. Payne, J. B. Ferris, F. J. Smith, S. J. Eaker, T. A. Brown, A. R. Whitelaw and C. E. Dunk.

Nurses Moving

Kingston, Jan. 27.—The court house room in the 2 storey, which was taken over two years ago by the Military Hospitals Commission for the purpose of quarters for the nursing sisters stationed at Queen's Military Hospital, will be vacated about the end of the month. Met the Troop Trains

The ladies from the Soldiers' Comfort League met two train loads of returned men who passed through Cobourg last week and treated them to apples and cigarettes. There were 575 men on one troop train. The soldiers in conversation sang the praises of the Olympic and said they were kindly treated on the way up from Halifax. That city sent a man with them to go as far as Toronto, who catered to their wants and helped in every way to make the trip pleasant.—Cobourg World.

Hon. Wm. Taft at Peterboro

Peterboro, Jan. 27.—A most eloquent and forcible plea for the formation of a league of nations as the only effective way of clinching the purpose for which the Allies fought in the Great War was made by Hon. William Taft, ex-president of the United States, in a splendid address in the Grand Opera House here on the occasion of his recent visit. The machinery he suggested as essential to the successful development of the plan included an international court to settle justifiable questions, a commission of Conciliation to deal with issues that were not justifiable, the necessary power to carry out the rulings of these bodies, and a congress of nations to modify international law. The distinguished visitor was given a warm welcome to Peterboro. He was entertained at an informal dinner by the municipal authorities and during the afternoon was the guest of American residents of this city. Two addresses, one from the Law Association of Peterboro, and the other from the City Council, were presented to Mr. Taft.

Business As Usual

The grain shipments via Grand Trunk through Lindsay keep up many double-headers passing to and from the Great Lakes daily. That the Grand Trunk Ry. is a valuable asset to Lindsay is shown by the fact that during the past month the local payroll amounted to $56,000. Practically all this money is spent in Lindsay.

Officer Here on Rabies Case

Veterinary Surgeon Wm. Maynehan representing Dr. W. W. Stark, a Dominion officer in Toronto, was in town the first of the week in connection with the rabies case and made an investigation of the circumstances. He expressed himself satisfied with the precautions that have been taken in regard to it.—Cobourg World.

Fined for Cruelty

A very extreme case of cruelty to animals was brought before the inspector of the Humane Society in Sophiasburg, in which it was found that three horses and two cows were left for days at a time without proper shelter and very little food and water, and during the recent storm were compelled to either stand all the time or lie down in the snow. The case was laid before Magistrate Williams, who very promptly fined the owner, and also required the immediate removal of the stock to more comfortable quarters. This kind of thing cannot be tolerated in this county and anyone knowing of like cases will confer a favor to the Society by giving them the information.—Picton Gazette.

Mrs Long Issues Writ Against C.P.R.

Mrs. Jessie Lang, of town, has issued a writ against the C.P.R. for $8,000 damages for the death of her husband, the late William Lang, at Bonar Law station on Oct. 12th last, when a C.P.R. freight train collided with a C.N.R. passenger train, causing the fatality. Suit is entered on behalf of the widow and her two daughters, May and Marjorie Lang. The case will be tried at the spring assizes.—Havelock Standard.

She Took Her Father's Advice

AND DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS SOON HELPED HER BACKACHE.

How Mrs. Beaudoin Found Complete and Permanent Relief From Her Kidney Trouble.

Fisherton, Man. Jan. 27.—(Special.)—"I have taken your Dodd's Kidney Pills for kidney trouble and they have completely cured me."

These are the words of Mrs. Arthur Beaudoin, a well-known resident of this place, and it is no exaggeration to say she voices the sentiments of a large number of the people of Manitoba. They have had kidney trouble; they have used Dodd's Kidney Pills; they have found them good.

"Yes," she says, in speaking of her case, "I suffered from kidney disease for six months before I was married in October, 1917, and two weeks after I was married I was laid up. The doctor gave me no relief. My father advised me to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. I commenced to take them at once, and a few days after I felt better. I continued to take them until I was perfectly cured. I will always keep them in the house as they are my best friends.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have been used to treat rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, dropsy, sore back, gravel, and other similar ills. That they continue to give satisfaction is evidenced by their ever-growing popularity.

If you haven't used Dodd's Kidney Pills, ask your neighbors about them.

Obituary

WILLIAM MCKNIGHT

William McKnight, a pensioner of the American Civil War, passed away last evening at his home, 35 Parker street, at the age of 80 years. His son John, a soldier of the C.E.F., died in England a few months ago of influenza and pneumonia. Born in Tyrone County, Ireland, he came to Canada over 40 years ago, after serving in the American Civil War. He was a gardener by occupation, being employed for many years with the Belleville Cemetery Company. In early life he was a member of the Orange Order. In religion he was an Anglican. Mourning his loss are his widow, one son James, of Belleville, and four daughters, Mrs. H. Thurston, of Michigan, Mrs. B. Russell, of Illinois and Misses Jane and Susan McKnight at home. Mr. McKnight has been ill for several years. A son William left home many years ago and his whereabouts are unknown. He is presumably dead.
