SEVEN DEPORTED FROM BRANTFORD

Immigration Officials Carried Out Instructions in the City Yesterday.

Heartrending scenes were witnessed yesterday when seven people composed of two families and a single man of the foreign quarter were deported from the city. The party was composed of a Hungarian named Sharer and his wife and child another named Nichol Magyes, single man and Mike Kess, his wife and child. Sharer had set up his home at 46 Pearl street and Kess had made his quarters at 48. It will be remembered that the two children came to Brantford from St. Thomas where they had been taken by a freight car into which they had smuggled. The men had already established themselves in Brantford having stolen across the line some distance from Niagara Falls in a surreptitious manner, after having been twice rejected by the immigration authorities of that city. Having made Brantford their headquarters they sent for their wives who cunningly concealed themselves in a Canadian bound freight car. The deportation authorities were notified and they did not take action, that the matter had blown over. After an investigation officials visited the parties yesterday and they were deported, regardless of entreaties. Affecting scenes were witnessed when the officers did their duty. The women sobbed and begged to be allowed to remain. The home was pointed to the deportees given to understand that they were building a home, but in vain. They had their duties to perform and sentimental scruples could not be allowed to interfere with their instructions. The women parted from their dearest friends and were taken back to Niagara Falls, where they entered the Dominion and they will probably be deported to their old countries.

SIR WILLIAM ON THE REDUCTION

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

OTTAWA, April 8.—Sir William Mackenzie, president of the Canadian Northern Railway, declared this morning that he is not inclined to take a too optimistic view of the judgment in the western freight rates case handed down by the Railway Commission yesterday afternoon. Sir William said:

"It is, in my opinion, bad just now to make any alteration in the freight rates, and perhaps it would have been wiser to have postponed judgment in the western freight rate case for some time, at least. However, the reduction ordered to go into effect on September first may not be of any great material importance, but it is not a good policy to make changes of any kind in the rates in the west at the present time. Why I incline to believe the reductions will not be far-reaching on the earning capacity of the railways is that they only apply to the movement of local traffic in the west."

NO NEWS OF SOUTHERN CROSS

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., April 8.—There was no news to-day of the Southern Cross and her crew of 173 men. Flotsam is occasionally sighted but it cannot be connected with the missing sealer.

Captain Parsons of the sealing steamer Bonaventure said that oars and planks seen by him yesterday were at the entrance to this harbor and because of the adverse winds and currents of the past week could not have come from the Southern Cross and he did not take the trouble to examine them. Similar pieces were thrown overboard by ships of the northern sealing fleet, with which he cruised.

SULPICE CHOR

Brant Avenue Methodist church and Sydenham Street Methodist congregations will on Sunday, for the first time, see their choirists in surplices. This innovation as far as these churches are concerned, has been suggested as making the singers more uniform in appearance. It has no doubt the effect of making them appear more dignified for the performance of their solemn duties. The idea was taken up in Methodist and Baptist churches in this city some time ago and now most of the churches of the city rejoice in surpliced choirists, among them being Alexandra, Park Baptist, and Congregational.

When opinions have been heard at the churches making the experiment it will be decided whether or not the practice will be continued.

A ROW IN BELFAST

Militants in Police Court Kick Up Fearful Din.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

BELFAST, Ireland, April 8.—Militant suffragettes created so much confusion and noise in the police court here to-day, when Dorothy Evans and Madge Muir, officials of the Belfast branch of the Women's Social-Political Union, were brought up for trial, that the proceedings had to be adjourned. The two women were charged with having in their possession explosives for the purpose of committing a felony. The court was crowded with women when the prisoners were brought in, and, acting apparently on signal, they raised such a din that neither the magistrate nor the prosecuting attorney could make himself heard. The suffragettes kept up the uproar for a long time. Forty of them were ejected from the court, but the noise still continued, and the magistrate finally decided to suspend the sitting.

As they were led out the two prisoners shrieked that they would not permit the holding of a court.

The opinion was generally expressed that orders had been issued from militant headquarters to the suffragettes to create similar scenes every time a woman was charged with a suffrage outrage.

After passing a short period in the cells Miss Muir and Miss Evans were again brought into court. Both tried to dash through the door into the street and in the struggle with the officials Miss Evans fainted.

When placed in the prisoners' enclosure Miss Muir hurled a grip-sack at the magistrate's head and he promptly remanded both accused in custody.

Somebody ought to devote a few minutes to feeling sorry for a married man who can't think of a good excuse at the right time.
