According to statistics gathered regarding the ubonic plague, it is established that there have been 250,000 deaths recorded in India since its beginning. These figures, however, are undoubtedly far below the actual total, as the natives are known to have coneealed many deaths.

It is not generally known that the remains of all the Czars of Russia since Peter the Great lie in a memorial chaplet built on one of the islands of the Neva. All the cenotaphs are exactly alike, each being a block of white marble, without any decoration whatever. The only distinction by which one is marked is the name of the deceased Emperor.

Miss Blunt, a great-great-granddaughter of Lord Byron, was lately married to Neville Lytton, a member of the Bulwer-Lytton family. After the wedding at Cairo the couple rode ten miles across the desert to her father's place, near Heliopolis, where they were welcomed by a troupe of Arabs and Bedouins, who, in honor of the festival, roasted a whole flock of Judge Davis, a new occupant of the bench on the Lafayette county (Mo.) circuit, has set aside the long followed practice in that jurisdiction of locking up juries. At the conclusion of the evidence and argument in a criminal ease a day or two ago the judge said: "Mr. Sheriff, show the members of the jury to their room, and give them the key and let them lock themselves in. There is no more reason why a jury should be locked up than that a judge should when he is considering a case." One of the oldest milestones is to be seen in the museum at Leicester, England. It is a cylindrical block of sandston, roughly inscribed with an abbreviated statement to the effect that it was erected during the emperorship of Caesar Hadrian, son of Trajan, conqueror of Parthia. It also says: To Leicester, two miles." The Hadrian milestone was discovered over a century ago beside the ancient Fosse way, and narrowly escaped being converted into a dawn roller by the unromantic and practical finder.

Grace church, Baldoon, have decided to purchase a six-octave organ and are now on the lookout for a good one. The proceeds of the Christmas enter-tainment will be devoted in that direction, and we hope to see a full house.

The Ladies' Aid at their last meeting very generously and without solicitation passed a resolution to sub-scribe $20 to the organ fund for the use of the Sunday school, and it will be a kindly thing for all the families of the church and congregation to help, and make it a cash transaction. We have been told by the pastor that Dover circuit stands at the head of

"It may not be what you call an incentive to art," said the newspaper artist to the portrait painter, "but we draw some things that some of you color men are strangers to." "And what is that?" "Why, a good regular salary."

Arthur Helps-Always say a kind word if you can, if only that it may come in, perhaps, with singular opportuneness, entering some man's darkened room like a beautiful firefly, whose happy convolutions he cannot but watch, forgetting his troubles.

"Goo bo wow ee bah wow," yelled the baby as it dropped its milk bottle. "Bless its ittle heart," said the mother, "don't you hear what it says?" "Sure," answered the brute of a father. 'Rubber neck,' that is, its bottle; give it to him."

Samuel Newhouse of Salt Lake City startles the insurance world by paying $283,828 for a "paid-up" life policy, which insures him an annuity of $8,000 during life and to his heirs $200,000 when he dies. If these figures are correct the insurance company has the best end of the deal.

To prevent the extinction of India rubber trees in the Congo Free State the government has decreed that for every ton of rubber yielded annually there must be planted not less than 150 trees. The law which prohibits gathering rubber except through incisions in the bark is to be more strictly enforced, and violation will be punished by a fine up to $2,000 or by imprisonment.

"Pall Mall," incidentally pronounced pel mel, comes from Paile Maile, an ancient game suppo played on the present site of Pall Mall by Norman monks, by whom it was introduced into England. The observent Pepys, in his famous diary, makes mention of it thus: "April 2, 1661. itto St. James's park, where I saw the Duke of York playing at Pelemele, the first time that I ever saw the sport."

In a letter to an Ottawa county, Kas., paper one of the famous Twentieth Kansas writes: "Night before last I was on picket duty all night, and yesterday morning I found that the nigger picket was within a hundred yards of me. The Elder Booth was an Attractive Adept in that Art.

He had some very odd ways at times. We were playing "Hamlet" one night in Natchez, and during Ophelia's mad scene a cock began to crow lustily. When the curtain fell upon that fourth act, this crowing became more constant. And when the manager could not find Mr. Booth to commence the next act he looked up and saw him perched on the top of the ladder, which was the only way to reach the "flies" in that primitive theater.

The manager, ascended the ladder and had quite a lengthy discussion with Mr. Booth, who at last consented to come down on condition that he should resume his high position after the play and remain there until Jackson was re-elected president.-"Autobiographical Sketches of Mrs. John Drew," in Scribner's.

When a boy at school, the late Mr. Spurgeon took a prominent part in answering all questions put to the class. One cold day, however, the teacher noticed that he was so very backward that he remained the whole time at the bottom of the class. This went on for some time and puzzled the teacher until he noticed that the fire was near the bottom of the class. He immediately changed the class about, making the bottom the

The good advice of the laird of Waterton, in Aberdeenshire, to a sheep stealer reads like a very practical joke. He had himself sent the man to jail and in those days sheep stealing was a capital offense. Visiting the prisoner the night before the trial, he asked him what he meant to do. To which the prisoner replied that he intended to confess and to pray for mercy.
