

Read what the Frogs in the Creamcrook SAY.

Two frogs fell into a cream crock. One immediately gave up in despair, and said: "There's no use in struggling; we might as well realize at once that we must die, and pass in our checks gracefully." "You may do as you please," replied the other, "but for my part, I shall continue to jump as long as there is life enough left in me, and perhaps something will turn up." The faint-hearted frog was impressed with the wisdom of this latter speech, and accordingly both frogs began vigorously to hop up and down, and keep up a constant commotion in the cream crock. The result was that the cream was churned to butter, whereupon both frogs got on top of the butter and hopped out.

MORAL—When you feel blue and discouraged, and are inclined to think that there is no use in wasting energy when times are dull, remember the two frogs that fell into the cream crock and keep a jumping.

This constant activity is the policy with which we have kept business brisk this season as in the past. We hear many reports of poor business, dull times, scarce money, etc., etc., but our experience has not been in accordance with this. Some lines of goods we have placed at prices that carry no profit to us, in others, we have taken advantage of the whole-sale man's anxiety to unload part of too heavy a stock, and bought at figures that mean a big loss to him, but cheap goods to you, but there is not a department in our store in which you will not find goods selling at less than the regular prices. We propose to keep business humming all summer, if low prices will do it.
