

Notice to Retail Merchants

If you are at present advertising, or intend to do so in the near future, we can be of very material assistance to you.

Our business is devoted to the writing, displaying and placing of advertising for any line of business.

If you hold a SALE it will be far more profitable to you to place the advertising and in our hands rather than in the hands of "SALE SYNDICATES" or "SALE EXPERTS," who charge an enormously absurd figure for their service.

If you are a regular advertiser using a certain size space, we can make your ads far more compelling and profitable than they are at present.

The Free Press says "it has been announced that there will be no shooting season this fall while the troops are still on the ground."—we would ask the Free Press who made such an announcement.

Last night's issue of the Free Press has the following:—

"Cowley, under arrest in connection with the strike riots, who was ill in the hospital with tonsillitis, is now in such a weakened condition, according to Dr. Ingham, that he may die. Seized with hemorrhage of the lungs while in court on Friday, he had to be hurried back to the hospital, where he has been suffering from hemorrhages since."

The above is only one of many misstatements published in the local "Cottons" and demonstrates that no reliability can be placed in its news items re the strike situation.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 3.—With a blood-stained coat and a damaged Panama hat in their possession, but only the slightest clews upon which to base a theory, the police of this city worked tonight upon the supposition that Paul H. Thompson, of Grand Island, Neb., fire commissioner of his state, had met with foul play while on a visit here.

SAH, ON LUSTANIA.
New York, Sept. 3.—Viscount Haldane, sailed tonight on the Lusitania. He reached the ship shortly before midnight with his sister, Miss Elizabeth, who made the trip with him. Lord and Lady Strathcona, who came over with Viscount Haldane, also returned on the Lusitania.

OPERA HOUSE

Opening tonight the management have secured two headline vaudeville acts. Mona Montague will appear in "Poses from famous Statues" concluding with a dramatic transformation dance. This act is said to be one of the finest ever presented on the coast. Surnell & Hart will offer a playlet entitled "The Gambler's Hope." It depicts a typical scene in domestic life and is not of the melodramatic sort that its name would suggest. Those who witness Sidney Drew in the Vitaphone dramatic picture the first part of the week will have the opportunity of seeing him in a comedy picture "The Late Mr. Jones." It is a seaside story and very funny. The other picture offerings are a Selig comedy drama "Hoyden's Awakening" and an Edison drama "The Red Old Hills of Georgia." Pathe's Weekly has an unusual number of interesting events this week.

Miss Polly Marshall, of Vancouver, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Pollock, Pridemore street.
