While the parade of the 13th Regi-nent last evening was not a record-reaker, it was sufficient to let the offi-ers know that the keen interest taken s keeping the men in shape. There the set of the parade of the parade ment last evening was not a record-breaker, it was sufficient to let the officers know that the keen interest taken is keeping the men in shape. were 566 officers and men on the parade state. Col. Moore expressed his pleasure at the continued good turn-outs, and hoped they would continue. A march out was taken up Mulberry street to

Bay to Main street, where company was indulged in for a while. The parade state was as follows: Col. Moore, Majors Mewburn and Ross, Capt. Domville, adjutant; Major Herring, Pay master; Capt. Carter, surgeon; Major Lester, quartermaster; Major Forneret, chaplain; staff sergeants 11, buglers 47, band 37, bearers 18, signallers 8, A 56, B 61, C 62, D 55, E 55, F 39, G 51, H 58, total 566.

The points for the company competition in the 13th Regiment up to date are as follows: A 395, B 426, C 424, D 373, E 367, F 302, G 362, H 409.

The Bugle Band of the 13th Regiment will hold a smoking concert on Thursday evening next. A big time is expected, as the members of the corps are an up to date lot, and always have the best of good things on tap.

as the members of the corps are an up to-date lot, and always have the best of good things on tap.
The Army Service Corps is going anead at a rapid rate. Col. Langton, was in the city on Thursday evening and put the corps through its paces. He expressed his surprise and delight at the splendid manner in which the men were had in hand, and stated that, taking into consideration the amount of drill they had in hand, and stated that, taking into consideration the amount of drill they had had, he was quite willing to put them up against any other corps, in the matter of drill. He stated that the blocal corps was receiving special attention from the heads of the department, and it would be but a short time before the uniforms would a arrive. Sergt. splendid manner in which the men were devoting themselves to the work they had in hand, and stated that, taking into consideration the amount of drill they had had, he was quite willing to put them up against any other corps, in the matter of drill. He stated that the local corps was receiving special atten-tion from the heads of the department, and it would be but a short time before the uniforms would arrive. Sergt-Major Sloan, formerly with the 13th ser-geants' mess, but now at the head of the Army Service Corps, is also delighted Army Service Corps, is also delighted with the way the men are working. unday was the last parade that Sergt Major Sloan put in with the 13th, and will be missed, as he is a thorough military man, well versed in discipline will be of great help to the new and corps

The 13th sergeants' mess have entered a team in the Daily Mail trophy chal-lenge match, to be shot on May 23rd.

The many friends of Col. Sergt. "Dick" Woodcroit will be pleased to learn of hes promotion to the quartermaster-ser-geantship.

The interest in the 91st Athletic Asso-ciation is very keen, and the nom-ination meeting to be held at the Board of Trade rooms on May 11th promises to be a lively one. Capt. Roy Moodie and Capt. C. R. McCullough are the op-posing aspirants for the office of presi-dent, and whichever gets it will make a good executive head. The men of the regiment are very enthusiastic over the prospects, and the fever is getting them in great shape.

Major Roberts is expected home on May 9th, owing to the severe illness of Capt. Fairgrieve. Major Roberts has been spending some time in Scotland.

(apt. Bell, the genial adjutant of the Dist Regiment, is figuring that it is about time he took a holiday, and so he has asked Col. Logie for permission to go off duty for a week or two. While the captain is away he will have a look around the armories in New York, for-the purpose of gotting a few ideas in re-gard to the furnishings of the new quar-ters here. During his leave of absence Lieut. Millen will be the acting adju-tant.

While mention has been made of the fact that the officers of the local regi-ments hope and expect better terms than are offered so far for the Quebec than are offered so far for the queuec tercentenary, it is an assured fact that the  $\delta$ fficers and men of both regiments are looking forward with eagerness to the time when they will be on the train, bound for the Gibraltar of Canada. The

Col. Logie is asking for the bumper parade of the season for to-morrow, when the 91st will hold the first church parade to St. Paul's Church.

The Schumacher challenge trophy will be shot for on May 23 by the members of the 91st. This trophy was donated by Col. Schumacher, of South Africa, for the best shot in the empire, and it is creating a large amount of interest.

A feature of the fine programme which is being arranged for the sixth military tournament of the Toronto garrison, to be held in the Armories on May 13, 14, 15 and 16, will be the ex-hibitions in gymnastics and artillery drill by the Cadets of the Royal Mili-tary College, Kingston. They number about seventy-five handsome, athletic young fellows, trained to the minute, and go through a series of evolutions with a precision and grace that would with a precision and grace that would put to the blush the finest efforts of the far-famed Zouaves or any profes-sional body of gymmasts that have ever visited Canada. Japan Anxious to End Its Trouble With Clina. Pekin, May 1.-Japan is facing a seri-ous situation as a result of the boycott arising from the Tatsn Maru incident. This was the steamship that was seized by the Chinese authorities last Febru-ary on the ground that she was carry-ing arms and ammunition to Chinese revolutionists. Japan forced China to give up the ship and salute the Japa-nese flag, and this crystallized the ill-feeling against Japan in China, and re-sulted in a boycott of Japanese navy, whose cruiser squadron is now anchor-ed off Taku, was received in audience by the Emperor and Empress-dowager to-day. Coincident with this occur rence Japan is seeking the support of Great Britain to pui a stop to the boy-cott by joint representations. The boy-cott by joint representations. The boy-cott by interpresentations. The boy-cott is increasing, and Japan is not satisfied with Chinese efforts to stop it. China, by means of a campaign in the foreign and native press. is making an intelligent and consistent effort to bring western influence to bear on Japan, but Japan, it is said here, regards this course as hostile, and connects it with what the Japanese call the American championing of China's independence and the action of Englishmen in the far-cast against the Anglo-Japanese alliing man who rejoices in the very war-like sobriquet, "Sea Wolf," and who made Jack London famous, has been engaged by Mr. J. The officers feel that the Government has been just feeling the pulse of the regi-ments throughout the Province, so to speak, by the issuance of the first batch of orders, and it is confidently expected that everything will be satisfactorily arranged to suit the officers. If the offi-cers decided not to go, it would seri-ously affect the parade states of the lo-cal regiments for the rest of the spring drills, and the officers would not like to have that occur, after such a splen-did start has been made. There is a proposal on foot, in the event of the troops going to Quebec, of having the officers and men of the 15th Brigade joined together and have one large tent for mess pursoes. The idea has been favorably received, and meets with the approval of the officers of the brigade. This arrangement will mean that between 1,000 and 1,200 men will eat under the same tent.
