Long Pitched a Three-Hit Game-Guelph Whitewashed the London Team---Scores In the Minor Leagues.

Almost within sight of the Brock monument, but on U. S. soil, the Hamilton Tigers trounced the Niagara Falls, N. Y., Yankees. It was the opening game in the new International Baseball League, and the event was the biggest thing of the season so far in the busy border city. Prior to the game there was an automobile parade, headed by the Elks' Band, and Mr. Henri McMahon, who was the recent Democratic candidate for the Senate, but who was defeated by Governor Hughes' man. Behind these came Mayor Douglas; Col. Isaacs, the fire commissioner; the two opposing ball teams, the managers of the teams, the press representatives, and Nelson Pitton and his cream horse. The procession passed through the principal streets and disbanded at the ball park. Here about 1,000 fans gathered and saw a battle of pitchers. It was a twirlers' contest from the time Mayor Douglas closed his address and said "Play ball!" And to the delight of the host of Canadians present the "man from Canady," as the rooters termed him, had the better of the argument from start to finish. The aforementioned gentleman was Nelson Long, a native, and he was there with domestic curves that were equal to the imported article. He caused twelve Yankees to pound the mist-laden air, and think that there were holes in their bats. On the principle, perhaps, that Baseball League has been organized by the general agency teams in Chicago, with William Leith, of the Royal, as previdence and Pierce.

As a result of his efforts the conclusion was arrived at by the Hamilton delegation that Long's name is written on the payroll in India ink, instead of in erasable lead. Long proved to be the Nelson of the Yankee's Trafalgar.

Although Long was given the credit of winning the game the honors were really shared by Brennen, another Canadian.

If shared by Brennen, another Canadian, Brennen lifted the ball over the left field fence in the eighth innings, when the score was 1-0 in favor of the Yank dees. This put new life into Connors, and he cracked out a two-bagger, and he scored on McMillen's dribble, to the pitcher, who threw wildly to first. Nisgara Falls' only run was a good one—a home, made by DeRemus in the seventh. He lifted it over the left field fence, being the discoverer of the soft spot which Brennen later explored.

From the view point of the spectators the game was a corker. It was not only close, but fast, being played in less than an hour and a half. The weather conditions were by no means ideal for fast hall, being duil and threatening, and in the last innings the clouds shed a few tears, showing slight sorrow for the Cataracts. There were a few changes in the line up of the Tigers. Doksinger's smiling face was missing from the out field, he having been released on account of his poor stick work in exhibition games. Maxey was out in right garden, and his place at the initial bag was take the life than the property showing. Old-Man Bradford was all over the lot, in centre garden, and his place at the initial bag was take the lyfe through the stream of the search of the sixth inning, when Beston, made his appearance in a Tiger uniform, playing second. He made safely once, the other being garnered by the third baseman. Maxey met the ball three out of four times at bat, but lick was against him, the flying out. He may not know anything about the "speed balls" that are sometimes given to the gallopers, but he had a supply of speed balls for pale pellet pounders, and he struck out seven of the bard-hitting Hamiltons. That is going some, it must be admitted.

Bradley was favorite with the old folks at home, and Cy DeRemus was the second choice. The youthful giant made himself solid when he swatted the ball for a homer, although he showed up well in his exhibition games. At Toronto—It was a slaughter of the sponsing team, and judging by yesteray's game, a good brand of ball should be dished up. The game will start at o'clock sharp and Mayor Stewart will make a short speech and pitch the first ball. If the weather is fine there will be a record-breaking crowd present, no doubt, as a great many fans have had a relapse—got the ball fever bad again. According to plans prepared by Manager Paige before he left Niagara Falls last night, Fense is to pitch to-day's game, and Hill Gleaon will be in the box to morrow. Harvey Muir will twirl on Saturday. No other changes will be made in the team for the series with the Yan kees.

A HAMILTON MAN MADE TOP SCORE.

Toronto, May 21.-There were 39 competitors in the Olympic trial sports at the Exhibition Grounds yesterday afternoon. Fifteen qualified for the finals on Friday. The shoots will be continued to-day, when another fifteen will qualify for the finals. The team that will go to the old country will be selected from the first six.

The shooters who qualified yesterday ware: G. Beatty, of Hamilton; A. W. Westover, Sherbrooke; Dr. Wilson, Hamilton; George Vivian, Toronto; J. Jennings, Toronto; M. E. Fletcher, Hamilton; G. M. ST. GEORGE'S GIRL LOST THIS GAME.

A very interesting game of basketball was played in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Tuesday evening between the Collegiate G. A. C. and St. Georges G. F. S. The gris of both teams were fast and accurate but the collegiate girls excelled themselves in the collegiate gris excelled themselves in the collegiate girls excelled themselves in the collegiate gris excelled themselves in the collegiate gris excelled themselves in the collegiate of the c

BATTERED WITH A CLUB.

Hired Man Assaults Farmer Near Brockville.

Brockville, May 20.—Robert Stewart, an elderly farmer, residing two miles north of the town, was the victim of an assault with criminal intent, about 8 o'clock this morning, and is lying in St. Vincent de Paul Hospital with his head badly battered, and the doctors in attendance unable to tell whether he will recover or not.

Stewart, with his hired man, James Stewart, with his hired man, James Young, aged 24 years, of this town, went out to a field to do some seeding. Stewart stooped over to adjust a nut on the machine, when Young struck him over the head, with a padded club, which he had secreted under his clothes. Seven or eight blows were struck before Chas. Kingston, working in another field, saw what was going on, and ran to his neighbor's assistance.

Young took to his heels and has eluded capture, though the countryside is cut on a search. That the robbery of the house was the motive of Young is certain. So carefully was it planned that Stewart's dog was chained up and you found until some time later.

that Stewart's dog was chained up and not found until some time later. Young when a youth had a bad crim-inal record, at one time serving a term for attempting to wreck a train on the New York Central.

SANCTIFYING A CRIME.

Night Riders Held Prayer Meeting at Barn-Burning.

Barn-Burning.

Lacenter, Ky., May 20.—Kneeling on the ground in the moonlight with their heads bowed, while their leader, his masked face turned toward beaven, offered prayer, a band of "night riders" Tuesday night destroyed the big to-bacco barn of H. G. Maddox, not far from this place.

The spectacle was witnessed by Flint Randall and Miss Maggie Tate, two young people, returning from a party, who were captured by the raiders and forced to accompany them to the prayer meeting and barn burning.

After the torch had been applied the young people were led some distance away, with instructions to go home. As they left they heard the strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," to the accompaniment of enackling timbers and the roar of the flames.
