Canovan, not guilty.

Dunn has moved to Gagetown and will open a law office upstairs over the GAZETTE office. He will be ready for business this week.

WOOD FOR RIVER STEAMERS.—The woodboat Flying Yankee arrived from Jennings Thursday with a load of cord wood for the Star Line Company. She is now discharging at the company's wharf.—Gleaner.

PIC SOCIAL.—A pic social will be held at the Orange Hall, No. 4, Clones, in aid of the school, on Thursday, May 12th.
There will be a dance in connection with the social and a very enjoyable time is expected. Should the weather prove unfavorable, the social will take place on the first fine day after.

EGGS THAT ARE EGGS.—Mr. Samuel Purvis, Duck Creek, has a hen across between a Plymouth Rock and Black Spanish that has laid some thirteen eggs, three of which when placed on the scale turned it at one pound, thus averaging 5 1/2 oz. each. This hen is not a very large bird, but lays wonderful eggs.
Who can beat this? Next.

ENTERTAINMENT AT WESTFIELD BEACH.
—A musical and literary entertainment will be held at Westfield Beach, on Wednesday evening, May 4th. A good program has been prepared for the occasion.
The proceeds are for the purpose of painting the Methodist church of that place. As the object is a worthy one, it will, no doubt, draw a full house.

SOCIAL GATHERING.—Mr. George and Miss Nettie Allingham entertained a number of their friends at their home on Thursday evening, the 28th ult. Music was furnished during the evening by Messrs. McConchie, Brown and Corey.
Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock.
It was in "wee sma' hours" when the guests dispersed all expressing themselves as having spent a very enjoyable evening.

DROWNING ACCIDENT.—Word reached here on Thursday of the drowning of a few days ago of Mr. Manzer Parent, of Bear Island. Mr. Parent was steered driving on Black River with Gilman's drive. It has not yet been learned how the fatality occurred. Mr. Parent was about 40 years of age, and leaves a widow and family. He was a well known and highly respected citizen of Bear Island, and very general sympathy is expressed for his bereaved family in their sorrow.

DEATH OF MR. S. C. WESTON.—Mr.
S. C. Weston, one of Upper Gage-town's best known citizens and business men, passed away at his residence at that place on Saturday morning last at 11 o'clock. Mr. Weston conducted a general store and also taught the Upper Gagetown school. He resigned from the latter on March last on account of ill health.
He was in the 36th year of his age. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn their sad loss. Mr. Weston was a member of Court Menesseemock, No. 1140, I. O. F., and had a policy in that institution for $1,000. Mrs. Weston has the sympathy of the entire community in her sad bereavement. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
The Rev. Mr. Henderson assisted by Rev. Neil McLaughlin conducted the funeral services at the house and grave.
The pall-bearers were—Messrs. E.
Crothers, Jas. Babbitt, Geo. Babbitt, Isaac Estabrooks, Frank Estabrooks and Jas. Estey. The funeral was under the auspices of the local court of Foresters.

SUMMERIDE ELECTRIC LIGHT.—During my regular business trip over the Island quite recently, I had the pleasure of supplying an order for the Summerside Electric Co., of Summerside, P. E. I. In visiting the plant I found perhaps one of the newest and best systems throughout the Maritime Provinces—being equipped with two tandem compound engines of 175 horse power respectively. These are belonged direct to two Thomson Houston alternators of 1600 light capacity which are of the latest type. I, being a former Queens county boy (but now of Toronto) wish the readers of the GAZETTE to know that this plant is operated by H. J.

Morrison, of Chipman, N. B., a competent engineer and to whom much credit is due for its heatness and good running order. Mr. T. B. Grady of Summerside, is manager for the company.

Petersville.

April 30.—The farmers here are busy fencing. Very few have done anything in the line of agricultural operations. A few have commenced ploughing.

Mr. Beverly Pender disposed of his farming utensils, stock and household effects by public auction on the 28th inst.
There was a large crowd in attendance and the bidding was quite animated, most of the goods bringing a reasonable price.
Mr. Pender intends leaving for Manitoba next week.

Miss Florence T. Mahood, and Misses Anabella and Phoebe White spent Sunday the 28th inst., in Clones, the guests of Mrs. T. Hamilton.

Mr. Geo. N. Irvin, of South Clones is visiting relatives in this section.

Several of our farmers attended the St.
John fair this week with large consignments of "little grunners" and report very profitable sales.

Mr. R. A. Graham is in South Clones framing a barn for Mr. Thomas Petty.

Gladstone Dying.

The Grand Old Man is going—though Dr. Habershon and the Queens own Surgeon watch at his bedside.

LONDON, April 25.—The newspapers say Mr. Gladstone is sinking fast. A change for the worse was observed night before last and Dr. Habershon and Sir Thomas Smith, Surgeon Extraordinary to the Queen were hastily summoned to Hanarden and spent the night there.

It is considered significant that no bulletin was issued yesterday from Hawarden, and that Mr. Gladstone's family has been summoned.

Rev. Stephen Gladstone celebrated communion in his father's home on Easter.

The Tucker Murder Case.

WOOSTOCK, April 27.—In the Canavan-Tucker murder trial today, a jury was sworn and old Mrs. Tucker and old man Tucker gave their testimony, which differed in many respects from that given at the corner's inquest. Tucker's testimony went to show that the relations between the deceased, Minnie Tucker and Patrick Canovan were very intimate.

Old Mrs. Tucker said she noticed Canavan and Minnie in a very compromising position only a few days before the alleged murder.

Had Squared Up.—"Sir, there are certain duties we all owe to the country."
"I don't. They soaked me for $14 on three suits of English clothes, and I paid it; I paid it."

Judge—"Witness, you are forty years of age?" Female Witness—"Yes, alas!
One gets older every day. And yet I was young once (heaving a sigh). Ah, your Lordship would hardly believe how young I was."

BORN.

WIGGINS.—At Waterborough, Queens Co., on April 1st, to the wife of Thomas M. Wiggins, a son.

MARRIED.

BROWN-BARTON.—At the residence of the bride on the 28th ult. by the Rev. J.
Coombes, Frank F. Brown to Alice M.
Barton all of Cumberland Bay, Queens Co., N. B.

DIED.

CARLYLE.—At Cambridge, Q. C., on April 11, Elizabeth Carlyle, beloved wife of John Fugaley, aged 83 years. She was a worthy member of Lower Cambridge Baptist church.
