Earl Montgomery and Joe Rock who have long been co-stars in Vita graph Big "V" Comedies are now to be starred separately. They signed new contracts the first of this week. By the division both Montgomery and Rock attain an ambition to play alone that resulted from the increasing following they have gained with each year of the five they have played together in Vitagraph comedies. Vitagraph has been assured that the popularitty of the pair would serve to attract an equally wide following with each as a separate star. Their productions will be in two reels. Prior to Montgomery and Rocks film partnership they were on the stage. chiefly in musical comedy.
