

MEN WILL NOT ACCEPT AWARD

Of Conciliation Board in C.P.R. Dispute—A Strike May Result

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—The labor department received a letter this morning from J. T. Murray, counsel for the union of C.P.R. machinists, announcing that the men are not prepared to accept the award of the board of conciliation and investigation in connection with matters in dispute between the men and the company affecting both eastern and western divisions. The company has agreed under protest to accept the conditions of the award for both divisions.

Further efforts will be made to bring about an agreement on the points still in dispute in the hope of averting a strike, which, if the present decision would very seriously interfere with the work of the company in the west and involve heavy loss on thousands of farmers and others.

RAIN IS NEEDED.

Man., Aug. 1.—The weather continued to be throughout most of the day yesterday, with the sun shining and the temperature standing over 90 at points. The night was not so hot, and the temperature fell to 75 at 10 o'clock. The rain which fell last night was not enough to satisfy the farmers, and the temperature appears like a week end not until the needed heavy rains.

Farmers are making good crops at barley, cut-while in Southern Alberta, much of the winter wheat stock and the yield will be good. The long drought is likely to bring the general wheat harvest on rapidly, and the crop is expected to be good. The weather is expected to be clear and hot for the next few days.

CAMPAIGN WILL BE SHORT AND SHARP

Former Scott Will Open Government Campaign in Saskatchewan at 10:15, Wolsley Tonight.

Regina, Sask., July 27.—Talk on the streets and in the hotels here and reports pouring in from all centres of population in the province indicate there is no lack of intense interest in the Saskatchewan election campaign. Former Scott will open the government's campaign in his speech at Wolsley tonight. He will deal with the record of the government of some years and will outline his plans for further action if the government is re-elected to power again. His pronouncements are being carried by the press in all parts of the province. Mr. Haultain and his followers still complain of the evidence of disaffection and the shortness of the time until election day. Enquiries at both the Conservative and Liberal headquarters are being made as to the plans for the campaign. It is expected that the campaign will be a very close one, and that the result will be a very close one.
