When the rush to purchase had been in a measure satisfied the market fell back more than half way from the top level reached. There was a decided undercurrent of nervents and decided undercurrent and decided undercurrent and decided under ousness, however, and values received support from time to time, especially at every mention of sales for ocean shipment. Speculators for the most part were convinced that a heavy export trade was going on in red winter wheat from the seaboard and in hard winter from Chicago. Statements that blue stem crops in the northwest had become rust smit-en like the velvet chaff variety acted as a further discouragement to he bears late in the session.

Winnipeg Grain Markets. Winnipeg, July 26.—The markets opened strong today on the favorable political situation in Great Britain and Germany over the Moroccan crisis. Prices were maintained better on the American markets, but in the local pit there was a decline in distant months. Cables came 1-4 to 3-8 higher. The wheat export business was very brisk locally, and good quantity was worked. One nessage stated that no less than 70 ands had been shipped to the United Kingdom from America, in which Canada will have a large share. In the oats market there was a fair amount of expert activity. There was a very good demand for all grades of cash wheat. est pattern; smuggled into Galacia,

Oats were weak, chiefly owing to the weakness in corn, which was prevalent in the Chicago market in the opening part of the sesion. July closed unchanged; October 1-4c lower and December 3-8 lower.

In the American options Chicago July and September wheat rose 3-4c each on the day, and December rose 7-8c. Minneapolis closed 11-8 higher in each month. The weather map of the west showed higher temperatures had been general with no rain except at Edmonton.

THE FINANCIAL AND CUMMERCIAL MARKETS

Edmonton, July 25—Heavy receipts of local produce of all kinds is at last having its effect on prices, and hay and potatoes among other things are on the down grade. Hay in particular is keeping the First street market busy asd with the change in hours, the sales during the next month should be very heavy. The quality is good in most cases, although some of the Timothy is on the green side and does not meet with much favor.
