GOWER ST. CHURCH.—The Subject of the morning sermon in Gower Street Church will be "A daily rate for every day." At 3 p.m. the Government Service will be held, followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The Subject of the evening sermon will be "The Society of Heaven."

ENTERTAINED PERFORMERS.—After the concert in the British Hall, Thursday night, Mr. Jno. L. Slattery entertained the male performers at Mrs. Summers' restaurant, Military Road. A banquet was served and a most enjoyable time spent all voting their host a jolly good fellow.

MISSIONARY SERVICE.—The annual missionary service of the Cookstown Road Church, announced to take place Sunday, January 5th, will be postponed until the week following, Sunday, the 12th inst. This delay is caused by the indisposition by sickness of several whose names appear on the programme.

ANXIOUS ABOUT SCHRS.—It is rumored that three other Gloucester herring vessels, which left Bay of Islands herring laden on Friday of last week, have not arrived at Gloucester. A fourth vessel which left at the same time, went ashore at Gabovers, and her skipper believes that the vessels had a terrible time in the storm which raged that night and Saturday.

Here and There.

RECORD FREIGHT.—The Prospero sails to-night for the northward, taking the largest freight on record.

NEW CHIEF ENGINEER.—Mr. J. Coffey, second Engineer of the S. S. Adventure has been selected as chief Engineer for the sealing steamer Labrador.

ANOTHER BIG FREIGHT.—The S. S. Morvenna left Sydney at noon, yesterday for here with a full cargo of freight which accumulated there, for the Reid Nfld Co.

FREEZER IN TROUBLE.—The American herring freezer, now at Bonne Bay, is in trouble. The engineer in charge recently quitted the ship and the engine and boilers cannot be got to perform their duty, so that the herring have been frozen for sometime past.

WANTS BIG SIDE BET.—It is not likely that any wrestling match will come off between Otto Oppelt and Jim Smart, as the former will be going to Switzerland shortly to spend the winter with his parents. However, if a big side bet is put up, say between $500 and $1,000, Otto will get in training to meet Smart.

WASHOUTS REPAIRED.—The washouts near Cape Ray, on the railway line, are now repaired and trains can now run as usual. They were caused by the high sea and tide of last week in the storms which prevailed, going over the track. Some parts of the road were washed out for four to five mile lengths and such a sea was never before experienced in this section of the country.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—By the fogota, an unfortunate young woman of Greenspond, arrived for the Lunatic Asylum. Not long ago he attempted suicide by jumping over the wharf there and was over thirty minutes in the water, her skirt and loose apparel floating her. When rescued she was almost gone. She had to be watched carefully on the ship.

HAD ROUGH TIME.—The schr. E. P. Morris, which arrived here from the French Shore, a couple of days ago, was out in all the recent stormy weather and had a hard time of it. She escaped without damage until entering the Narrows at 3 a.m. when she struck the rocks and was towed to port by the John Green. The vessel has since been leaking badly, the pumps are kept going and it is feared that a good deal of her fish cargo is damaged.

Obituary.

KENNETH RYDER, J.P.

On Christmas Day, there passed away, of pneumonia, at Hauling Point, White Bay, Kenneth Ryder, Esq., J.P., C. E. Teacher. Mr. Ryder was a teacher from 1902 up to the time of his death and a lay teacher. He taught at Green Island Cove, Savage Cove, Hauling Point, and Lance au Clair (Labrador). He leaves a wife and one child. His death will be keenly felt by the Church of England as he proved himself to be a devoted and earnest church worker, a conscientious teacher, and an all round good man. His dying request was that he be buried by the side of his father at Bonavista, of which he was a native. He was made a Justice of Peace in 1907.

The Police Court.

A man convicted of being drunk and disorderly in the house of his mother-in-law, gave his own bond to stay away from the place in the future.

A man who pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly in his own house was ordered to sign his own bonds to keep away from his house and leave it in possession of his wife.

A man pleaded guilty to obstructing a conductor of the R. N. Co's train in the discharge of his duty; he was fined $5 or 14 days.

Two young men were charged with using lewd and abusive language towards a cabman, one pleaded guilty and the other pleaded not guilty. The first was fined $5 and the second was ordered to pay costs.

A young man who pleaded guilty to the larceny of a pair of boots from the Royal Stores was fined $20 or 30 days.

SATURDAY Jan. 4, 1913.

For a cough which is tickling or troublesome at night—or in the daytime for that matter—there is nothing more convenient than to have at hand a box of Keating's Cough Lozenges. This old and well known remedy has relieved and cured the coughs of two generations of English speaking people, and still retains its popularity, for it still retains the qualities which have caused its reputation. Those who use Keating's Cough Lozenges will find them a safe and effective remedy. Price 30c. a box.

Among shaving soaps, there is more that stands higher than the Eramic shaving stick. It is a good English soap which gives a free thick lather. It has a pleasant perfume, and softens the skin and beard. Being well dried, it does not waste, but lasts longer than most shaving sticks. Price 25c. each.
