347th Day of the War LATEST From the Front.

Messages Received Previous to 9 a.m.

OFFICIAL.

LONDON, July 16.
The Governor, Newfoundland: General Hamilton reports that the attack in Gallipoli on the 12th resulted in the advance of our right and left centre, including the French corps, by about 400 yards. Over 400 prisoners were captured. Nothing special in the French report. The Russians report enemy advance in the region of Riga. The Russians are occupying a position south of Przasnysz. The Austrians are attacking in the Dnieper district. Steady Italian progress continues. Palazano peak was carried by a surprise attack.

ST. PIERRE BULLETTIN.

PARIS, via St. Pierre, July 16.
In the region north of Arras, the enemy attempted during the night to come out of their trenches south of Sarleul Castle, but was immediately stopped by our infantry and artillery fire. In the Argonne our cross-irrigation kept back the Germans, who did not try to attack. Between the Meuse and Moselle it was a busy night, but without infantry attack. There was a bombardment at Jouvaise ravine; at Ailly wood, grenade fighting; north of Fleury, gun-shooting and cannonade. In Lorraine the Germans attacked on a 3-kilometre front on positions previously lost by them near Leirey. At the same time they bombarded all our line from Champenoux forest to Enouse, making also a few partial infantry attacks, which were repulsed at all points. Near Centry, after having taken a foothold in a small wood, they were driven back by our counter-attack. In Parroy forest the assaulting troops, coming as near as our wire entanglements, were dispersed by our fire, leaving us some prisoners. The enemy's losses seem to be heavy.

Dardanelles.—On the 12th and 15th July our Oriental expeditionary corps and the British right attacked the Turkish positions, capturing several lines of trenches. A first line was captured on all this front during the morning of the 12th, and a second line that same evening after a magnificent charge by Zouaves and legionnaires. Next day saw new progress.

on several points, and the occupation of the low valley of Kerewe. We captured 200 prisoners and our Allies 150. PARIS, July 16.
Hill 285, in the Forest of Argonne, which was stormed by the Germans early this week, has been recaptured by the French forces, according to an official statement given out this afternoon by the French War Department. The recapture by the French of Hill 285 is also announced to-day in a statement from the French Embassy, issued through the British official press bureau; also a refutation of the German claims of an important victory in the Forest of Argonne. The statement says their gains at no points exceeded a depth of 400 metres (440 yards). Hill 285 which they occupied for a time, has been recaptured.

ORDERED TO LEAVE IRELAND.

LONDON, July 16.
The Government ordered three members of the Sinn Fein, Blithe, Malloys and Pim, of Belfast, to leave Ireland. The immediate cause of their expulsion is believed to be their campaign from public platforms against war recruiting. All of them are active in the Sinn Fein section of volunteers who broke away, and opposed the followers of Redmond, the leader of the Nationalists in the Commons.

MEAT PACKERS' NOTE.

HEARING OF THE MEAT PACKERS' CASE.

LONDON, July 16.
The third day of the hearing of the meat packers' case in the British prize court, was again occupied by Attorney General Sir Edward Carson. Presenting the Crown's arguments for the condemnation of the Norwegian steamers, Alfred Nobel and Kim B. Jorsens, and of the Swedish steamer, Friedland, the Attorney General produced a letter that had passed between Messrs. Aschers of Hamburg and the American packers, and asserted that it contained frank statements that efforts were being made to deceive. He showed that it was the exportation of goods from Denmark that was desired. One of the letters of Aschers to one of the claimant firms, said the Attorney General, reads: "We shall have to take our chance, and hope the little lot will slip through." The Attorney General argued with the suggestion of the judge that the American packers would naturally supply anyone with goods, who pays for them, and added that they had a perfect right to supply Germany if they could get their goods through, but the suggestion that Britain should derive no advantage from her sea power in time of war, he said, was untenable. Carson contended that there had been a conspiracy by all the parties concerned to deceive belligerent countries. The meat packers' cases were adjourned until next Tuesday, on account of the pressure of other matters before the Prize Court.

THE SPORTING LIFE.

The farmers sadly ramble over soggy fields and wet, and say, "Our job's a gamble—none knows which way to bet! We think we have a reason for planting oats and chops, we somehow think the season will boost such kind of crops; and then they send wet weather, a deluge and repeat, and we cry all together, 'We should have planted wheat!' Oh, warfare is exciting, when hardy soldiers arm, but it's not so exciting as life upon a farm! Talk not of stress and danger, of battlefields and fights, before the harried grainger, of dreadful days and nights! If he could quit his farming, and soldier for a spell, he'd think the quiet charming, a rest he'd earned so well. In shooting foes or strangers there is no mental strain, like that endured by grangers who fight the drought or rain. There's nothing so exhausting in packing round a gun, as in a fight that's costing the farmer all his mon. This farming is a scramble for goals we seldom win, a hazard and a gamble, a scandal and a sin."

BRITISH THEATRE.

The highly entertaining programme provided by the management at the above house yesterday was much appreciated. Altogether five splendid photo-plays were shown, chief interest of course being centered in the one: "Dolly Plays Detective" in which picture Mary Fuller made a most welcome re-appearance to St. John's audiences. Each picture earned well merited praise and as usual they were faultlessly projected. There is a big matinee for the children this afternoon and the management promise another excellent bill for Monday and Tuesday including a two reel feature with Francis X. Bushman.

We learn that the celebrant will be the Rev. Dr. M. J. Ryan, of Toronto, who will also preach on the occasion and administer Holy Communion. The voluntary silver collection will be this year devoted to paying off the loan raised in building a residence for the sexton of the cemetery. No doubt the collection will be a substantial one. $976.08, as compared with $1,128.27 for the corresponding period last year.
