north, hesitating—notthrough suspicion, for such was still entirely absent from his mind, but from the peculiarity of the position, rendered doubly so by the prevailing of the haze. "Shall we go on board, Helen ?" he asked looking toward, the latter.
"Would it not be ungracious to refuse? she whispered. "I should so much like to see one who has seen and spoken to Hermann."
This settled it, and Bridgenorth agreed to go on board.
"But how can the lady ascend?" he inquired.
"Oh, easily. See, here is a rope ladder with broad wooden steps."
And even as he spoke, the ladder he named was let down from above till its ends hung readily within reach.

THE CLAIMANT OF A SCOTCH EARLDOM.—On Tuesday last a New York deputy sheriff arrested "Lord" George Grodon, alias George Henry Gordon, alias Gordon Gordon, at the suit of Jay Gould, on an order of arrest granted by Judge Brady. Gould swears that on the 1st of last March he delivered to Gordon six hundred shares of Eric Railway stock, of the market value of $36,000; that he instructed Gordon to sell the stock, and with the proceeds to purchase 80 neres of land in Westchester County, and that Gordon dia to observe his instructions, but refused to return the stock, and converted it to his own use. Bail in $37,000 was furnished by Gordon, who was then released from custody. Gordon is an Englishman, who went to New York some time since, representing himself as a large Eric stockholder, and claiming that he owned half of all the Eric stock held in England. He āppeared at the Eric offices at the time of Gond's overthrow, and londly demanded admission, which was refused. It is said that he claims to be the Earl of Aberdeen, whose fate was long in doubt, but whose loss at sea appears now to be settled beyond question. Notwithstanding this, Gordon is said positively to assert his identity with the lost Earl, and to declare his intention of claiming the Aberdeen estates.

A friend of ours who is chief clerk in the Governmental Dispensary, says that no medicine chest is now complete without Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. We always supposed it was prescribed by law; if it is not, ought to be, for certainly there is nothing in the whole materia medica of so much importance to the soldier and the sailor as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.
