Newspaper Change,—From a recent issue of The Guelph Mercury we learn that Mr. Innes, the talented conductor of that journal, has taken into partnership Mr. John A. Davidson, who for some yeart past had charge of the mechanical department of the office. We are pleased to learn that the increasing business of The Mercury has necessitated this change. The Mercury is a stannch, old Reform journal, enjoying a very extensive circulation, not only in its own county but elsewhere, and well deserve its popularity. We tender the new first our hearty congratulations.—Stratfor Dascon.

BREAKPAST.—Epps's Cocoa,—Grathful And Comportino.
