Another teacher of the plano who has had an unusually good training and who has just been appointed to he staff of the Conservatory is Mr. leorge L. Adlam who has been engaged in the teaching profession for fifteen years in England, America and Canada. He is a great believer in the Columbian system, which he taught in Brandon for a considerable time having had a class of over 70 pupils in the Manitoba city. Mr. Adlam has had ne most thorough training as a teacher which all his studies were directed. He studied in the New England Conservatory, one of the leading institu-tions of its kind in the States, under the widely known Karl Faelton and also with Dr. Louis C. Elson and Dr. Goetschius. He then went to London, England, and studied under Mr. York Trotter of the Guildhall School of Music. On his return to this continent taught for some time at the New England Conservatory, and has been engaged since in his profession in various cities. He recently arrived in algary from Victoria. Mr. A. J. Talbot is fast making a ame for himself as a painstaking teacher of the violin and trombone, and since joining the Columbian staff he has earned a name for himself in various parts of the States as a good player of his instrument and a most apable instructor. Mr. Beaufort will be in the city for week or ten days, and he will be ased to see anyone interested i he Columbian course at the studies n the Mason and Risch block.
