Topics of Today.

The Dominion Parliament will have been in session for thirty days on Friday next. It is evident from the manner in which the Opposition has spent the time of Parliament that its members do not mean to let the House adjourn for some time yet.

.....

The Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen will arrive in the city from Sarnia tomorrow evening. They make a stay of a couple of days in London, but they have plenty of engagements to keep them busy.

.....

Lord Aberdeen's first visit was to the Western Fair, and he promised to see that great exhibition with deliberation. He keeps his word. The cordiality of His Excellency's reception in Windsor and Chatham on Saturday could scarcely have been greater.

.....

The Toronto World prints an alleged dispatch to a Toledo, O., paper, in which Premier Laurier is held up as an annexationist. Why is it that Conservative papers so persistently copy these lying letters, sent out from Canada by enemies of the Liberal party? Do they think it legitimate warfare to elevate into importance these scurrilous falsehoods?

The Ottawa Citizen announced that Sir Frank Smith, of Toronto, was about to marry Lady Thompson. Sir Frank says there is not a word of truth in it. He will endeavor to discover the inventor of the story.

.....

Manitoba wheat harvest is about over. The yield will average nineteen bushels an acre. The results are good in some parts and indifferent in others.

.....

Hon. Wm. Hart is much improved in health. He hopes to be able to soon resume his duties as a member of the Government of Ontario. This will be cheering news to his many friends.

.....

Essex has not yet provided a House of Refuge for its indigent poor. The county should be ashamed of itself.

.....

Maine State election takes place today. As in Vermont, the Democrats are demoralized through the silver question, and the Republicans expect to carry the State by a far larger majority than usual.

.....

Says the Stratford Beacon: That was a pretty good answer that Mr. Tarle gave to Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin when the latter asked him why certain men had been dismissed from the service. "Because," said the Minister of Public Works, "my deputy informed me that there was no work for these men to do." The amusing part of the reply is that the said deputy is a Conservative appointee.

.....

Sir Donald A. Smith is erecting a mansion house on his Scotch estate of Glenelg, Argyllshire, which will cost £30,000, and is constructing a road to it which will cost £12,000. Our distinguished fellow-Canadian must have more money than he knows what to do with.

Tupper After the Scalp of the Governor-General.

An Opposition Caucus to Consider the Question.

(Special Telegram to The Advertiser.)

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—An Opposition caucus has been called for tomorrow forenoon. It is understood that the question of the Tupper-Aberdeen correspondence will be discussed. There is opposition in the ranks of the party to the proposition of Tupper to move a resolution condemning the Governor-General for not accepting the late Government's orders in council, and in consequence the caucus will decide what is to be done on the matter. The vote on Mr. Foster's resolution regarding the Governor-General's warrants was so unsatisfactory to the Opposition that they do not want any more divisions this session, more especially on what must necessarily be an attack upon the Queen's representatives. It may be that Sir Charles Tupper will satisfy himself in making a statement in the House and leave the matter there. But I hear today that he will attack the Governor-General under the cover of a motion in condemnation of the new Government for taking office when he was dismissed by the people, and make the pretense that the Queen's representative was responsible for his downfall.

FATAL DOSE.

Brantford, Ont., Sept. 13.—B. Gilbert on Saturday took a dose of carbolic acid in mistake for a patent medicine, and soon after died from its effects. Deceased was an old resident, well known and highly respected here. He arose in the morning, not feeling well, and went to take a dose of medicine. A bottle of carbolic acid was close to it, and he took this in mistake.

MOVEMENTS OF THE BRITISH FLEET.

Constantinople, Sept. 14.—The British fleet, which has been strongly reinforced, is now at anchor in Kavala Bay, northwest of the island of Thasos, off the coast of Salonica.

GUNBOAT BOILER EXPLOSION.

Cairo, Sept. 14.—While one of the gunboats attached to the Anglo-Egyptian expedition was ascending a cataract of the Nile today, her boiler exploded, shattering her engines and completely disabling her. Fortunately no one was killed.

ACCIDENT TO EMPEROR WILLIAM'S TRAIN.

Bautzen, Saxony, Sept. 14.—As Emperor William entered his special train at Lohr, twelve miles from here, Saturday, after bidding farewell to the King of Saxony, the Dresden express train collided with his Majesty's train. No one was hurt, but the Emperor was delayed forty minutes.

CANADA'S SOUND BANKING SYSTEM.

London, Sept. 14.—Thos. G. Shearman, writing to the Times, says that the deplorable condition of the American farmer is due to the absence of banking facilities, and the high rate of interest on the crossroads stores. Mr. Shearman recommends that the United States follow Canada's banking system.

GREAT STORM IN ENGLAND.

A severe thunder storm, accompanied by a whirlwind, passed over the county of Essex yesterday. The rainfall was heavy. Ancient oak trees were torn up by the roots and other damage was done. In the town of Saffron-Walden a number of buildings were blown down, while the roofs of many others were carried off. No lives were lost.

CAUSTIC LABBY.

London, Sept. 14.—This is Mr. Labouchere's telegraphic reply from the continent to a London editor on Mr. Chamberlain's remarks about him in America: "Chamberlain and Wilkes are bitter enemies of the British Empire. Chamberlain cites Wilkes, for Wilkes was a Radical who found salvation in a court uniform, and seeking to bring about the republic by repudiating his former principles."

.....

THE ZANZIBAR SULTANSHIP.

London, Sept. 14.—A Zanzibar dispatch says: The belief is prevalent here that Germany does not intend to acquiesce in the action taken by the British Government, through Rear Admiral Henry Rawson, in appointing Hamoud bin Said as Sultan of Zanzibar. Said has been at the fall of the palace on Aug. 27, and in spite of the request of the British consul to surrender, there has been no disposition manifest on the part of the German officials to give him up.

THE CZAR'S VISIT.

New York, Sept. 14.—A cable dispatch from London says: "Sober-headed people do not consider that Germany gained much from the Czar's visit. The French are all excited over the Czar's coming, and believe that he will help them to regain Alsace-Lorraine. The British regard his visit mainly as a domestic event, but hope that union between the two countries will be strengthened. Russian police officers and special Nihilist detectives will aid the Scotland Yard force in guarding the Czar."

.....

The Economist says that the Czar has given no pledge beyond hoping that peace will not be broken by any single power.

.....

The speaker warns the Czar that if he wishes to earn the friendship of Great Britain, Russia's attitude concerning the Armenian massacres will have to change. Review considers that the outcome of the visits will be that Russia will still regard the triple alliance as hostile and treat it accordingly.

PETITIONS FOR JAMESON'S RELEASE.

London, Sept. 14.—The petitions for the release of Dr. Jameson and his associates lay stress upon the fine physique of the prisoners and their being accustomed to live in the open air. The prisoners themselves are not whining. This makes the indiscretion of their friends in appealing for mercy on fantastic grounds more grievous. It is hardly within the range of possibility that the Home Secretary will intervene prematurely for the protection of men of such fine physique, especially when his action would offer a marked contrast to the delay in releasing the Irish political prisoners, broken in health, and fit, like Gallagher, only for confinement in a lunatic asylum.

ARREST OF "NO. 1."

London, Sept. 14.—P. J. Tynan, the notorious "No. 1" of the Irish Invincibles, who was so frequently mentioned during the trial of the persons charged with the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and T. H. Burke in Phoenix Park on May 6, 1882, was arrested at Boulogne yesterday morning on a warrant issued in 1882. Tynan is also charged with being concerned in the manufacture of dynamite bombs for use in England. Tynan admitted his identity. In his possession were found a considerable sum of money and a number of incriminating papers. It is stated that his capture is connected with the arrests of Bell and Wallace, charged with Tynan in being concerned in a dynamite conspiracy.

THE QUEEN'S POWER.

London, Sept. 14.—The recent disclosures in the publication of the Bismarckian letter of 1875, in which it was seen how Queen Victoria, by writing to Emperor William, first foiled Bismarck's plans for the final conquest and division of France, is a striking instance of her power, when she chooses to exert it. Apart from the message which she is understood to have sent to the Sultan through Sir Philip Currie, expressing her indignation and horror of massacres, the Queen is known to be using her influence with the Czar. The visit of the Czar to Balmoral, which was supposed to be purely a family affair, devoid of all possible political results, is likely to prove the other way, and to have more practical influence on European politics than either the visit to Vienna or Breslau, or possibly more even than the Paris demonstration.
