-The friends of W. M. Seaborne, who — The friends of W. M. Seaborne, who is now traveling in England will be glad to lean that he is improving in health. On Sunday a congregational letter was read from the pulpit of St. Matthew's Church, bearing the news that Mr. Seaborne was improving. This is the first news of this nature received since his departure. The object of the reverend gentleman's trip is to raise funds for the missionary purposes of the Anglican Church, and also to raise funds with which to erect a new church in East London. Mr. Seaborne is expected home about Feb. 1.

—Rev. Mr. Somerville, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian congregation, Windsor, who has on more than one occasion preached in this city, in his discourse last Sunday emphatically denounced those who are stirring up the worst feeling of the Roman Catholics with their "no Popery" cry. If Protestants believed their religion was the true one, it was their duty he thought to convert their Roman Catholic brethren to their way of thinking by living such a life that could commend Protestant religion to them. These agitators of the preson day were not Protestants; they were lunatics. were lunatics

The New Port Stanley Bridge.

County Engineer Bell has completed the plans for the new Port Stanley bridge. The superstructure will be of steel with two spans of 110 and 112 feet, resting on two stone abutments and one stone pier. The readway will be 16 feet wide and sidewalk 6 feet. The contract will be let this fail so that the material can be got on the ground during the winter. It is intended to remove the old bridge to the south, and use it while the new one is being built so that traffic will not be interrupted.—[St. Feil Down a Shaft. The New Port Stanley Bridge.

Feil Down a Shaft.

A serious mishap occurred at the warehouse of R. C. Struthers & Co. yesterday afternoon. Edward F. Beaumont, a clerk, was standing near the elevator hoist. In a preoccupied moment he missed his footing and fell to the bottom of the shaft—a distance of 50 feet. When picked up he was unconscious. The young man's left arm was found to be broken and had bruises were revealed on the back and head. He was conveyed to his home, 812 Coiborne street, in the ambulance. members' friends assembled, and several hours of enjoyment resulted. Bro. J. Fitzgerald, P. G. C. of Canada, presided at the concert. The following artists took part: Solos, Messrs. Walter Barklamb, John Logan, Henry Short, John Fleming, A. R. Galpin, Miss Gussie Graham; selections on violin and organ, Prof. Green and Mr. Henry Brinsmead; guitar solos, Messrs. Walter Bradford, Alfred Webb; recitations, Charles Walker. A vote of thanks to these persons for the pleasure which they had afforded those present was proposed by Bro. Ald, Carrothers and seconded by Bro. Joseph Graham. The approbation of the audience in the sentiments of praise expressed by those fathering the resolution was enthusiastically manifested. Where Union is Strength.

A meeting of the Christian Endeavor societies in connection with the Methodist shurches of the city was held in the King Street Church last night. The programme was of a varied nature and consisted of a discussion on the various phases of the temperance question; an address by Mr. F. W. Daily on union in all work, while a quartet composed of Messrs, Southcett, Dr. Ziegler, Gorman and Boulesby rendered two selections in first-class style. Miss Ettle Parker, in a reading from Charles Dickens' "Nicholas Nickleby," received hearty applauss. Mr. W. Wattam as chairman fulfilled his duties in perfect style. Mr. F. W. Dally, in speaking on union, said that he strong y favored a united condition of the Miss. In Circles, Christian Endeavors, Epwer h Leagues and other societies whose aim is one, as in such a condition all work undertaken would be of a unanimous nature and would not conflict in any way. The number of meetings would be reduced, but the attendance would be increased and the interest taken in all matters would thus be greater. Mr. James H. Bowman discussed the question, "What is the Plebiscite?" In the present case it was a vote on the liquor traffic and whether prohibition would be of any panefit to the country or not. He was in favor of the taking of each an opinion, as there had been a taking of the opinion of Londoners on the reduction of liquor licenses in the city. That plebiscite had resulted in the reduction of liquor licenses in the city. That plebiscite had resulted in the reduction of liquor licenses in the city.
