Local Market.

London, Saturday, Nov. 18.

The attendance was fair, but business was by no means active. Butter was supplied largely, and was easily disposed of. Factories are paying good prices, and for this reason there is not a great amount brought in Eggs were none too plentiful. Sales in this line were slow.

Poultry was not up to the usual quantity for a Saturday market. The demand was good and sales were rapidly

There was a good representation of butchers, with the usual amount of Markets in general throughout the Markets in general throughout the province are quiet, and at these prices this market is still quite a little higher than those surrounding us. Wheat brought $1 10 to $1 12. There was not a great deal of wheat offered. The demand was steady. Peas sold at 97c for a very fair lot. No change occurred in any other kind of grain.

Hay sales were a little slow at $9 50 to $10 50. All first quality stuff brought to $10 50. All first quality stuff brought

$10, and over. The dressed hog market was quiet, and sold at $5 for loads of choice! Live hogs were unchanged at $3 75. Young pigs were almost unsaleable. Receipts were heavy and no offers could be obtained up till noon.

SIX MONTHS IN THE CENTRAL

Berbert Wilson Sentenced on Three Charges - Willie Armstrong Sent to the Reformatory.

Herbert Wilson, who was found guilty on three charges on Tuesday, was sentenced this morning to six months in the Central on each charge, to run concurrently, by Judge Edward Elliott. Wilson flim-flammed Mr. H. French out of $5, attempted to rob Mrs. Riddle, at Port Stanley, and succeeded in getting away with a purse from Mrs. Margaret Smith, who keeps a small store on Waterloo street. Wilson's first offense, and the judge stated that his sentence would have been much heavier but for this fact. He gave the prisoner a severe lecture, and told him that he would fare very badly if he came within his jurisdiction again. Willie Armstrong, the small lad charged with breaking into the house of Mrs. M. Bodley, of Oak street, came up before Judge Edward Elliott to-day. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to the reformatory for a term not less than three years, and not to exceed five years. Armstrong was up in August last on a similar charge. Bruce Laird, charged with stealing a coat and vest from Peter Sherry, city, pleaded guilty and was remanded for a week for sentence.

AMUSEMENTS

MMM MURPHY. The theater-goers of London will next Wednesday be called upon to pass judgment upon what is said to be one of the greatest of this season's crop of plays. It is called "The Carpetbagger," and will be presented by Tim Murphy at the Grand. Mr. Murphy will be remembered for his triumphant farce suc-cess, "A Texas Steer." In his latest effort, the star is seen in the role of Melville Crance, the carpetbag governor of Mississippi, in 1861. It is said that what the women will find to admire and rave over in "The Carpetbagger" is the gentle truth of its love stories, and that to the men the pungent sarcasm and humor of the strongly-drawn hero will appeal forcibly. There is a negro bodyservant to the governor, who, it is re-marked by those who have witnessed the play, is funny to the last degree in sction, not as is a minstrel, but in the faithful exhibition of racial character-

"A MAN OF MYSTERY." Burgiaries are not uncommon in melodramas, but it is only in "A Man of Mystery," the new melodrama, to be produced on a spectacular scale at the Grand next Saturday, that a burglar hypnotizes the owner of a house and makes him open his own safe. This makes him open his own safe. This scene in "A Man of Mystery" is pronounced by critics to be one of the most powerful as well as original situations ever seen in a theater. This is not the only one, either, for the play fairly bristles with dramatic surprises, that follow each other rapidly, and keep that follow each other rapidly, and keep up the interest of the audience to a pitch of tremendous intensity. There is plenty of comedy in the play, too, so that the lights and shade so necessary to a drama are ingeniously supplied throughout. The leading character is a rascal known as the "Shadow," who is eventually cornered by the hero, Ned Keene a detective, who wears the so-

LIFE SAVED .- Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I to a trial as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good.

An invitation to "take something" Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done it will do again.
