MALIGNANT LUMPS AND TUMORS

Are Readily Cured by Our New Constitutional Treatment Without the Necessity of Operation.

Many people are afflicted with lumps or tumors in various parts of the body. Tumors, if not treated, are dangerous, and should not be neglected for several reasons. In the first place, their growth may involve or impair some vital part of the body, in the second place they constitute a drain on the system, and in the third place they frequently develop into cancers. Few people care to have these growths removed by the surgeon, as they dread the pain of the operation. With our pleasant home treatment it is different. You simply take the remedy internally. It goes through the system, searching out and neutralizing and destroying those poisons from which tumors and cancers develop. After a time you will notice the tumor lessening in size, and gradually disappearing until it is completely cured. Send two stamps and we will mail you our treatise and testimonials.

AMENDMENT TO CUSTOMS ACT B.M.E. CONFERENCE AT BUXTON

Measure Adopted to Amend Inland Revenue Act—Senator Mason May Lose His Seat.

Another Gusher at Leamington—Parkhill People Return Home From Alabama.

Ottawa, June 4.—Sir William Mulock in the House of Commons today said that there have been fifteen instances of the settlement of labor disputes by conciliators under the provisions of the conciliation act, 1900. Two of these were cases of strikes averted as the result of the appointment of a conciliator under the act. There was in addition one case in which the intervention of the department had been requested by one of the parties to a threatened strike. Negotiations were subsequently suspended at the request of the employer and the matter in dispute left for final adjustment by the parties immediately affected. In the fifteen settlements referred to, three have been in favor of the employers, five of the employees, and seven the result of compromise and mutual concessions. Two of the strikes in question arose purely out of misunderstanding and were settled by explanations of the real situation. With the exception of the cases in which the Minister of Labor acted as conciliator, the conciliator appointed under the act has invariably been an officer of the labor department. The cases of conciliation effected under the conciliation act have been effected through the instrumentality of officers of the department.

The bill to amend the electric light inspection act was read a third time. It provides that when municipalities are owners of electric light plants, they shall be subject to the same penalties as other corporations operating such plants.

The bill to amend the inland revenue act was read a third time. It provides that duties shall be payable on the first of each month for commodities produced or manufactured during the preceding month. Hitherto the date of payments has been the sixth.

The bill to amend the customs act was taken up by committee. One of its provisions is that there shall be an assistant commissioner of customs, which is a new office. The provision allows the minister to employ temporary officers in the outside service. Mr. Patterson had not already had this power, and the only object of the bill was to make it clear.

Mr. Monk suggested an amendment that temporary officials should not be appointed for a longer period than six months, but the Government declined to accept it.

The bill was put through committee and now stands for its third reading. The evening was spent in committee of supply, the estimates for 1903-4 being presented by the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

IN THE SENATE.

The committee adjourned till the 11th inst.

After the speaker took the chair Sir C. P. Pelletier presented the report of the committee on privileges, which was adopted.

The following bills were read a third time and passed:

FATAL FOREST FIRES

Devastate an Entire Town in New Brunswick.

St. John, N. B., June 5.—Word has reached the city from the pretty little seacoast village of Quispesau, about thirteen miles west of St. John, that forest fires Tuesday and Wednesday nights and early yesterday morning swept the place, leaving but three or four buildings standing. The town of 200 people homeless and destitute, and the chief industries of the place, namely Dunn Bros' pork packing factory, and Knight's big sawmill, are in ashes. The financial loss will aggregate over $100,000. There are 37 buildings in ruins, including the establishment of the village stores, the Episcopal residence, the Catholic church and four railway bridges.

Word from Piccadilly, Kings County, near Sussex, states that the two elderly women, Mrs. John Linden and Miss Susan Teakles, were burned to death by a forest fire as they were endeavoring to liberate cattle from the fields. From all over the province reports come pouring in stating the brush and forest fires are unabating. Many villages and communities are in great danger.

Would Scratch Till the Blood Flowed

A Dreadful Case of Itching Eczema Which Defied Ordinary Treatment and Was Permanently Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. Link, 12 Walker street, Halifax, N. S., states: "After three years of miserable torture and sleepless nights with terrible eczema, and after trying over a dozen remedies without obtaining anything but slight temporary relief, I have been perfectly and entirely cured by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. After the third or fourth application of this grand ointment I obtained relief, and a few boxes were sufficient to make a thorough cure. It is six months since I was freed of this wretched skin disease, and as there has been no return of the trouble I consider the cure a permanent one. I would strongly urge any one suffering as I did to try this ointment, and shall gladly write to any who wish to refer to me for particulars of my case. I was so bad with eczema that I would scratch the sores in my sleep until the blood would flow."
